NO. 137—SEVENTY-THIRD YEAR | VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1931 | TWENTY PAGES

SECRETARY TO PRESIDE OVER WORLD PARLEY

Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson Named Chairman of Disarmament Conference

BLAMES HIGH TARIFFS FOR ECONOMIC CRISIS

British Minister Says Remedy Must Come From International Co-operation

GENEVA, May 19 (AP).—Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, was designated tonight by the League of Nations Council to preside over the World Conference for limitation and reduction of armaments, which begins February 2, 1932. He warmly thanked his colleagues on the council tonight for the honor, but said that he must consult the British Government before accepting.

No doubt was felt here, however, but that he would be the directing chief of the conference.

Mr. Henderson's selection as chairman was considered tonight to be a testimonial to his steadily increasing prestige and popularity in the European world of international affairs.

THE WORLD'S GRANARIES

Blaming high tariffs and competitive armament for the present world economic situation, Mr. Henderson reminded the Pan-European Union Committee today that millions of people are unemployed and hungry, while the world's granaries are bursting with unsalable food. The only remedy possible, he declared, must come from international co-operation.

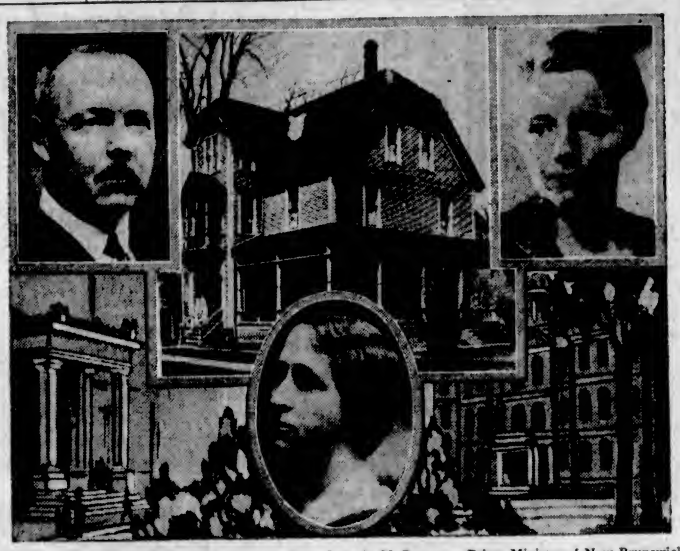

"In our countries," he said, "unemployment, poverty and actual starvation exist, and yet, while men walk the streets unable to find work to earn bread for their hungry families, the granaries of Europe and the countries overseas are bursting with food that cannot be sold.

"OUR POTENTIAL DUTY"

"Our potential duty to create wealth is greater than it has ever been. Countless millions of capital are lying idle in our banks. There are hundreds of millions of people in the world whose demands, not

Becomes Premier of New Brunswick

OFFER PLANS TO REGULATE WHEAT FLOW

INTERNATIONAL BODY WOULD BE ORGANIZED

Details of Polish Scheme Revealed—Russia Will Present Views Today

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—Russia now enters the arena. Before the conference of wheat-exporting countries tomorrow afternoon, she will state her proposals and plans and possibly may do something to lift the veil of mystery which still lies over the actual amount of her available wheat surplus.

In view of the proposals of Makim Litvinoff, Russian delegate at Geneva, to eliminate international dumping, similar Russian proposals at the wheat conferences are rather expected, especially after the frank declaration of Samuel R. McKelvie, of the United States Federal Farm Board, that the board had no intention of dumping surplus stocks. But among wheat men the difficulty, it is felt, might lie both in defining a fair price and in implementing the anti-dumping agreement.

EXPORT QUOTAS

From four different sources today the conference received proposals for regulating the flow of wheat to the market. Although differing in method, all four propose to operate through the medium of an international body working by means of export quotas. The plans were those of Australia, Poland, the Balkan countries and the United States.

Under the Australian proposal, contracting countries would give guarantees for due observance of the plan through a bond lodged with the Bank of International Settlement. A central marketing organization created under the Australian scheme would have regard to the normal relativity of prices as between market grades in participating countries.

LOREN L. BROWN APPOINTED LUMBER TRADE COMMISSIONER FOR B.C. IN GREAT BRITAIN

Assisted by the Provincial Government, Timber Interests Have Selected a Representative to Stimulate Sales of Forest Products in United Kingdom —Appointee Has Had Large Experience

Will Leave for His London Headquarters Early in June

Was Formerly in Charge of Forestry Sales in Eastern Canada, and Later Was in Charge of British Columbia's Exhibit at Wembley Exhibition —Latterly in Charge of European Sales

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Loren L. Brown has been selected by the British Columbia Manufacturers' Association as its trade commissioner in the United Kingdom. He will leave in July to take up his duties. Mr. Brown's appointment was confirmed at a meeting of the lumbermen's directors this morning. Approval of the selection has been given by Hon. N. S. Lougheed, Minister of Lands.

Mr. Brown has had a long experience in the marketing of timber, and his appointment is regarded as highly satisfactory to the timber interests of British Columbia.

The appointment of a special lumber trade commissioner to Great Britain is the outcome of the encouragement given to the idea by Hon. N. S. Lougheed, Minister of Lands, who realizes the necessity for having a direct representative of British Columbia shippers on the ground. While in England several years ago, Mr. Lougheed gave considerable study to the problem of marketing local lumber in Great Britain.

GOVERNMENT AID

When the lumber interests decided to concentrate on building up the export market to the United Kingdom, the Minister of Lands agreed that the Government would assist to an amount not to exceed $15,000 in order to stimulate lumber sales and, if possible, bring the industry back to full-time employment.

The difficulty that has been confronting the lumbermen was the selection of a suitable man to send across the Atlantic. In the selection of Mr. Brown they believe they have a man whose past experience will prove to be of the utmost value,

Engineer Is Killed Several Injured as Train Leaves Rails

WAYNOCKA, Okla., May 19 (AP).—The engineer was killed and several persons injured when the fast Santa Fe California-Chicago passenger train, the Missionary, was derailed southwest of here tonight. The body of James Taliferro, the engineer, was buried underneath the wreckage. Station agents at Waynocka and Quinlan said the cause of the accident was unknown.

FIRES SWEEP CALIFORNIA

MERCURY SHOOTS UP TO NEW ALTITUDES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19 (AP).—While grass and brush fires burned in scores of places over a wide area in Northern California today, and the mercury shot up to new altitudes in many localities, Governor James Rolph, Jr., took official notice of the situation and appointed a fire emergency committee to co-ordinate state and private fire forces.

The Governor said:

"A genuine emergency confronts the state."

MANY FIRES REPORTED

Several brush and grass fires in Northern California were reported to the state forester's office, the largest being between Carbondale and Ione. Fires also were reported in Napa County, near Shingle Springs, in Calaveras County and in the Cache Creek district of Yolo County.

In the San Francisco Bay region the mercury reached 89 degrees at 2 p.m., the hottest of the year and the second hottest May 19 on record.

BRIGADES KEPT BUSY

Low humidity kept Oakland and San Francisco fire departments busy. One home and a street railway station had burned and six other homes were menaced by a brush fire blazing over a wide area in Oakland, near Leona Heights.

A quantity of livestock was reported burned alive in Redwood Canyon. Near Morago the ranch home of John Avila was burned, with damage estimated at $50,000.

In San Francisco an apartment house was burned.

Causes Sensation at League Council

JULIUS CURTIUS

Foreign Minister of Germany, caused a sensation at the opening of the League of Nations Council meeting yesterday at Geneva by saying, in answer to a statement by Foreign Minister Aristide Briand of France, that if the World Court decided the proposed Austro-German customs union was legal, it would be insupportable to bring Germany before the council as a disturber of the peace of Europe.

OXFORD WILL HONOR PROFESSOR EINSTEIN

OXFORD, Eng., May 19 (AP).—Oxford University will confer an honorary degree of doctor of science on Professor Albert Einstein on Saturday.

RAIL RATES DISCUSSED

T. A. Reid Seeks Reduction in Freight Rates on Grain to Vancouver

SAYS B.C. TREATED AS ORPHAN SINCE UNION

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—With less than forty minutes to go, the House of Commons tonight, having ended a lengthy debate on the Beauharnois situation, found itself projected into another discussion "of great public importance" affecting the other end of the country.

T. A. Reid (Liberal, New Westminster), informing the House that he proposed to move an amendment to the motion to go into supply, brought up the problem of freight rates on grain and grain products which has agitated British Columbia for several years. Mr. Reid had not finished his speech when the House adjourned.

"DISCRIMINATORY RATES"

It was not his intention to obstruct the business of Parliament, Mr. Reid said, but something should be done to reduce "the discriminatory rates on grain and its products," The poultryman of British Columbia had been in dire straits in the last few months, and he hoped the Government would take speedy action to remedy this state of affairs.

Mr. Reid expressed surprise at the attitude of certain members of the House towards the fight engaged in by the British Columbia farmers against these "discriminatory freight rates." The province had been treated as an "orphan" since joining Confederation.

ADVANTAGE TO EAST

Eastern Canada received lower domestic rates on grain from the Prairies than British Columbia, said Mr. Reid. Wheat was hauled for domestic use from Saskatchewan to the head of the Lakes for nineteen cents a bushel, while the rate to Vancouver was 41 1-2 cents, and Vancouver was only half as far.

Investigation of Beauharnois to Be Undertaken

Committee of House to Study Eastern Power Corporation in Minute Detail—Charges of Fraud, Misrepresentation and Improper Dealing Made in Parliament—Debate Takes Most of Day

Speakers Claim Order Granting Right to Water Can Be Annulled

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—Committee of the House of Commons will investigate the Beauharnois Power Corporation, its various subsidiaries, and its scheme for development of hydro-electric energy by the construction of a canal to divert a portion of the flow of the St. Lawrence River between Lake St. Francis and Lake St. Louis in the Province of Quebec.

This outstanding development emerged today in the course of a debate in which the whole Beauharnois development was held up as a gigantic scheme to secure to private interests the entire flow of the St. Lawrence River at the point for power purposes. Allegations of fraud, misrepresentation and improper dealing, charges that members of the Dominion Senate were interested in the power scheme, and intimations that the Beauharnois corporation had even gone so far as to attempt to corrupt members of the Quebec judiciary, featured a discussion which focused the attention of the house.

PROTESTS AND OBJECTIONS

Frequent protests, demands for rulings by chair on points of order, objections to bringing the judiciary into Commons debate, and heated interjection held the stage for practically the entire day.

DECLARE WAR ON BANDITRY

Nanking Government Sends Armies to Kill or Disperse 20,000 Brigands

POSTPONES CAMPAIGN AGAINST REBELLION

HANKOW, May 19 (AP).—The Nationalist Government dispatched armies into Hupeh and Anhwei Provinces today to kill or disperse 20,000 bandits who have been looting border areas of the two provinces.

Responding to the appeals of the people whose towns and farms have been laid waste, the Government postponed its campaign against the incipient rebellion in South China to make war upon organized brigandage.

TERRORIZE INHABITANTS

Troops which yesterday scattered one Communist army, said Nationalist authorities, will be reinforced to engage three outlaw hordes. The bandits, with semi-military organizations known as "Red armies," marched over the areas, terrorizing inhabitants with their show of cannons, field guns and thousands of rifles.

Threatened by Government and bandits alike if they did not support the respective combatants, thousands of peasants fled from the battle area.

"LIABLE TO EXECUTION"

Chiang Kai-Shek, chairman of the Nationalist Government, ordered the peasants not to yield to brigand demands for protection, saying if they did they would be liable to execution and all within their villages would be held responsible.

Chiang also carried his campaign into Honan and Northern Hupeh Provinces, offering money to those who would assist Government troops in capturing Red and bandit chiefs whose bands have pillaged and burned towns for many months.

Coincident with its bandit campaign, the Government planned to purchase forty British airplanes to extend commercial air service. These will be equipped with machine guns to protect passengers.

EARTHQUAKE AT LISBON

LISBON, May 19 (AP).—Two violent earthquake shocks rocked Lisbon at 3:23 a.m. today.

THREE BURIED ALIVE IN CAVE

Hope Is Abandoned for Trio Caught in Avalanche at Tours, France

TOURS, France, May 19 (AP).—Buried alive in a cave—in which men of the Stone Age once lived—Brig.-Gen. Robert H. Dunlap of the United States Marine Corps, was the object tonight of frenzied rescue efforts, although hope that he had escaped death virtually had been abandoned.

An avalanche from a hilltop overlooking the Loire River engulfed today both the general and two farmer folk—man and wife—with whom he had been friendly.

The marine officer was caught with Denis Briant, the farmer, while both sought to save Briant's wife, who was trapped first by the fall of earth and rock.

WITNESSES TRAGEDY

It was estimated tonight two or three days may elapse before the imprisoned trio can be reached Mrs. Dunlap, who was preparing with her husband to visit the historic Tower of Cinq Mars la Pile, nearby, witnessed the tragedy and was in a state of near collapse tonight.

Brigadier-General Dunlap only a few weeks ago was transferred to Tours to perfect his studies of the French language.

HEARD HER SCREAM

The officer and his wife were at Briant's home today when, from a nearby barn where Madame Briant was engaged in her housework, they heard her scream. Simultaneously there was a thundering roar as the top of the precipice above their home began to split and topple over.

The two men rushed to Madame Briant's assistance, but before they could reach her they were themselves engulfed. Virtually the entire hillside above the region was affected before the slide of rock, earth and trees halted.

PRESIDENT MAY VISIT OTTAWA

Herbert Hoover Expected to Lay Corner Stone of United States Legatoin

By CHARLES LYNCH

OTTAWA, May 20 (CDN).—President Hoover and Mrs. Hoover are likely to visit Canada this Summer on the invitation of the Canadian Government.

Should plans for the construction of the new $500,000 American Legation proceed according to schedule, Mr. Hoover will be in Ottawa about the middle of July to lay the corner stone of the structure.

Questions of international interest, including the joint development of the St. Lawrence waterway, wheat and tariff matters, will be discussed between Mr. Hoover and Premier R. B. Bennett if the president is able to come.

GUEST OF GOVERNOR

The president would likely be invited to stay at Rideau Hall, the official residence of the Earl of Bessborough, Governor-General of Canada. If he did not stay at Rideau Hall, he would be the guest of Colonel Hanford MacNider, United States Minister to Canada.

If Mr. Hoover comes to Ottawa in July it will be in the nature of a return visit for that of the Earl of Willingdon to Washington when he was Governor-General of Canada. Warren G. Harding was the only President of the United States who ever visited Canada while in office.

LIONEL CHARTRAND IS AGAIN ARRESTED

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—Lionel Chartrand, one of two Dominion Government workers recently tried on charges of racketeering in Civil Service positions, was rearrested this afternoon for Montreal police and taken to the Quebec metropolis by train. The warrant charged him with fraud.

United States Gives No Encouragement to Windsor Commuters

Reply to Canadian Note Sets Out Instructions to Immigration Officers, But Does Not Answer Complaint Made to Washington

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—No encouragement to border commuters is held out in the official reply of the United States Government to representations made on behalf of Canada regarding the restriction of commuting privileges across the border.

Correspondence between Mr. Wrong, Charge d'Affaires of the Canadian Legation at Washington, and Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of State of the United States, was tabled by Premier R. B. Bennett in the House of Commons tonight.

Mr. Wrong took up the commuter situation in a note to Mr. Stimson, December 26, 1930, and Mr Stimson replied in a formal note, May 11, 1931. The United States note sets out the instructions issued to immigration officers governing commuters, and makes no answer to the complaints that the spirit of the understanding arrived at between the two countries in 1927 has been departed from.

"The information as to procedure in the latter part of the Secretary of State's note," said Premier Bennett, "indicates certain concessions from the usual practice to facilitate reconsideration of the cases of persons already rejected. The final paragraph of the note permits persons rejected as commuters to apply for temporary entry to the United States as visitors and constitutes a general exception to the regulation."

Summarized, the instructions are:

(1) Commuters who have abandoned their status as such shall be regarded as new immigrants.

(2) Commuters who have been out of employment for six months in the United States are presumed to have abandoned their status.

(3) Commuters who leave Canada will have to secure entry as new immigrants when they go back to work in the United States.

(4) Commuters shall not be refused because they change their employment in the United States prior to the check-up.

(5) Where commuters obtained privilege by fraud it shall be withdrawn.

LABOR DEPUTY WILL RETIRE

J. D. McNiven Will Relinquish His Post—Adam Bell Promoted

J. D. McNiven, for twelve years Deputy Minister of Labor, will retire in June, it was announced at the Parliament Buildings today. He will be succeeded in office by Adam Bell, who has been an assistant to Mr. McNiven for the past two years.

J. D. McNiven has been prominent in labor circles for a quarter of a century. In 1903 he was a member of the Legislature in the Liberal Opposition, retiring from politics in 1907 to enter the service of the Federal Government as fair wage officer. In 1912 he was appointed to be representative of the Dominion Labor Department in the West, with headquarters in Vancouver.

When the Provincial Department of Labor was formed in 1918 he was chosen as deputy minister, a post that he has occupied ever since. Some months ago he signified his wish to retire, but agreed to stay on until June.

Adam Bell, who will succeed to the deputyship, was for many years prominent in railroad workers' affairs in Revelstoke, where he was defeated in the last election by Dr. W. H. Sutherland. He entered the employ of the Government several years ago, and has since been employed with Mr. McNiven.

Will Shortly Set Date for Seattle Recall Election

SEATTLE, May 19 (AP).—City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll, announcing today recall petitions contained 5,000 names more than necessary to authorize an election to recall Mayor Frank Edwards, said he would set the date of the election on June 1. The mayor lost a last-minute effort to block the official canvass of the petitions.

Wreck Survivors Lived Three Days On Ship's Biscuits

Bishop of Nassau, Sister and Sailor Escape When Yacht Founders on Reef—Captain Dies Diving for Belongings

NASSAU, Bahamas, May 19 (AP).—Stories of subsisting on biscuits for three days while they waited rescue from a distant Bahama island, were told here today on the arrival of survivors of the wreck of the yacht Livonia, which foundered off Plana, or French Cay, last week with the loss of her captain, Joseph Taylor.

Bishop Roscoe Sheddan, his sister, Evelyn, and a member of the crew were brought to Nassau late today on the motorboat Molola, which was sent out from here Saturday when word of the shipwreck was received.

The Livonia went down ten minutes after striking a reef off Plana during a squall, survivors reported.

All on board made their way ashore.

DIVES TO DEATH

Members of the crew said Captain Taylor dived into the water several times against the advice of Bishop Sheddan in an attempt to recover some of the bishop's belongings.

The fourth time, they said, Taylor failed to come up. Efforts to recover the body were futile.

Bishop Sheddan is head of the Nassau Diocese of the Church of England.

CAPT. DOLLAR IMPROVING

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., May 19 (AP).—Captain Robert Dollar, shipping magnate, ill at his home here, was considerably improved today. Captain Dollar spent a restful night and was described as very cheerful today. He gets up every morning and shaves himself and stays up much of the day.

Passengers Are Gagged And Robbed

RAWLINGS, Wyo., May 19 (AP).—Three passengers of the Westbound Los Angeles Limited, Union Pacific passenger train, were bound, gagged and robbed in their berths near here early today. The two robbers were captured.

Those robbed were two sixty-year-old women, Mrs. M. A. Johnson and Mrs. Joseph E. Huber, and the latter's son, H. P. Huber. The robbers obtained only $60, which was recovered when they were arrested after Huber freed himself and notified the conductor.

Russell Howarth, nineteen, and George H. Bachman, eighteen, were arrested as the robbers. Train robbery is a capital crime in Wyoming, punishable by death or life imprisonment.

Vatican and Fascist Gov't Experiencing Difficulties Over University Incident

By WILLIAM H. STONEMAN

ROME, Italy, May 20.—The Vatican and the Fascist Government are once more experiencing difficulties with each other because of treatment dealt by the Italian authorities to Catholic university associations.

In a semi-secret audience, Catholic student leaders reported to the Pope that the Catholic headquarters at Parma University were invaded recently by Fascist students. The Pope reprimanded the leaders for not reporting it previously. He declared that in the future he would personally see that they had justice from the Government.

"We personally will pay for damages in case of new troubles," the Pope said. "We have our way of getting satisfaction from the Italian Government."

The interview is not reported in The Osservatore Romano for fear of complications.

LATE FROSTS ON PRAIRIES

RAINS WILL BENEFIT VAST WHEAT SECTION

WINNIPEG, May 19 (CP).—Multi-weathered May turned loose some more belated snow in Manitoba today and sprinkled touches of frost on growing crops in all three Prairie Provinces. Frost did slight damage to crops in Northern Saskatchwan, but had no effect in other parts of the West.

Just a few days after the city was treated to a heat spell that ran up temperatures to ninety degrees, Winnipegers plodded along streets inches deep with slush; parched Manitoba farm lands of last week were covered with a wet snow that melted as quickly as it struck the ground. Rain fell for several hours in the Calgary district of Southern Alberta, saving crops from possible frost damage.

Cool, unsettled weather, bringing rains that wheat farmers needed badly and forest fire fighters craved is likely to continue in the three Western provinces tomorrow, according to forecasts. It has definitely cut short raging forest blazes that caused more than $100,000 damage in the Saskatchewan Government's Beaver Hills Reserve, northeast of Regina, and undetermined damage in Riding Mountain Park Reserve, in Northwest Manitoba.

Crop-damaging winds that caused soil blowing, particularly in Saskatchewan and Alberta, apparently have abated. Six degrees of frost were registered at Saskatoon, Prince Albert and Battleford, in Northern Saskatchewan, and Swift Current and Moose Jaw, farther south, had four degrees. Six degrees also was reported in the Calgary area. Brandon had two degrees.

EARTH TREMORS FELT IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, May 19 (AP).—Earth tremors were felt in Hestaco and San Martin Tlacotekpec, State of Vera Cruz, today and last night. According to newspaper dispatches, at San Martin the tremors were accompanied by a severe wind, rain and hailstorm that unroofed houses, uprooted trees and caused some damage to the cathedral.

YACHT RAN INTO HEAVY TIDE RIPS

Runaway, With Motion Picture Celebrities Aboard, Cruising to Jervis Inlet

Running into a heavy tide rip on Monday afternoon, between Port Townsend and Discovery Island, a yachting run, with Victoria as its objective, was miscalculated, and Shoal Harbor, near Sidney, was the haven reached, the party aboard, consisting of King Vidor, motion picture director, and his equally well-known wife, Eleanor Boardman, arriving in Victoria overland.

The yacht, named Runaway, recently built at Seattle, where she was constructed by the Lake Union Drydock and Machine Works, from designs by Ted Geary, naval architect, of Seattle and Los Angeles, started out to cruise in British Columbia waters and ran into a nasty sea, which caused the yacht's skipper to head for smoother water, and he anchored in Shoal Harbor.

The call at Victoria will now be deferred until the return of the Runaway from Princess Louisa Inlet in five or six days from now, when the screen celebrities expect to anchor in Cadboro Bay and sight-see about Victoria for a day or two.

The Runaway is 52 feet long, is twin-screwed and has a speed of 20 knots. After concluding the visit to British Columbia waters, it is the intention of the owner of the yacht to sail her south to California. For the trip to Jervis Inlet, Major Rowson, secretary of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, recommended Harold Payne, of Sidney, as one who was familiar with the section to be visited, and it was the intention of Mr. Vidor to endeavor to enlist his services when he left Victoria to join his boat at Shoal Harbor yesterday afternoon.

wheat except within the limits of their stated quota. An international wheat organization would be established in London. The conference would fix a basic quota to be exported by each country during 1931-32.

OTHER POINTS IN SCHEME

Among other points in the Polish scheme are:

1.—The international wheat organization would have at its disposal a reserve of about 10,000,000 metric quintals which can be utilized by a majority vote in order to make up export quotas designed to meet special requirements.

2.—The total annual quota would be allocated for a period of twelve months. No country would be able without special authorization from the international wheat organization to export in any one month more than one-fifth of its annual quota.

3.—Export wheat as well as wheat flour could proceed without the authority of the international wheat organization when it has been altered in character in accordance with the regulations issued in this connection.

The Polish proposal also provides for increasing or decreasing export quotas according as the price exceeds or falls below the level calculated on Liverpool or London markets for Australian wheat.

EXPORT CERTIFICATE

In the official text of the proposals issued tonight this price level was left blank. Under the proposals, exporting countries will undertake not to export wheat or wheat flour not altered in character unless accompanied by an export certificate delivered by the international wheat organization.

The international organization will, under the scheme, establish at stations and ports approved for export movement, a bureau at which export certificates can be obtained. The grant of export certificates would be subject to the payment of a tax of (amount left blank) in Swiss centimes per 100 kilograms to cover the ordinary expenditure of the wheat organization. This tax may be replaced by the payment of a corresponding lump sum. The allotment of quotas among exporting firms would be settled by the government of the exporting country. Disputes between contracting parties would be settled by arbitration.

While the Danubian countries have not yet issued their scheme, it is understood to follow the Polish proposal closely.

AMERICAN PROPOSAL

The United States proposal was for curtailment of production. Mr. McKelvie declared he could not see any possibility of a satisfactory solution of the world wheat problem if it did not include, "as its most important element," curtailment of production in exporting countries. He reiterated his statement of yesterday that the United States Farm Board had no intention of dumping its huge surplus of wheat.

The conference opened yesterday with delegates from eleven wheat-exporting countries attending. Hon. O. Howard Ferguson, Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain, is the permanent chairman. As yet, Canada's scheme has not been presented to the conference. It is expected the full conference will discuss all the schemes submitted when the delegates meet tomorrow morning.

NEW AGRARIAN PLAN PROPOSED

Spain Seeks Cultivation of Big Estates by Co-operative Farming Bodies

MADRID, May 19 (AP).—The Government today promulgated the new agrarian programme, which seeks to bring about cultivation of large estates by co-operative farming societies. The project will have to be approved by the National Assembly, and many of its details remain to be worked out.

Under the scheme there will be no actual confiscation of land. The Government declares the new programme is necessitated by a crisis facing Spanish agriculture and by unemployment.

THE NEW DECREE

The new decree does not affect all large land holdings. The Government intends to apply it first to big tracts owned by municipalities or the Central Government and to those large uncultivated estates whose owners wish to lease their land.

The co-operative working societies would lease the land from the Government and cultivate it as a community project. Rents would be low and modern agriculture methods would be introduced.

PROTEST FROM POPE

Negotiations between President Alcala Zamora and Papal Nuncio Federico Tedeschini, believed to involve a protest from Pope Pius against anti-church depredations, are being kept secret. Meanwhile, reports continue that many monks and nuns are leaving Spain.

At the some time, many who left their monasteries and convents during last week's riots are returning.

INVESTIGATION OF BEAUHARNOIS TO BE UNDERTAKEN

than provided for in the order-in-council passed by the former Government. In stating that the whole matter should be referred to a committee, Mr. Bennett informed the House he had been collecting information on the Beauharnois development. He had not had time to consider this information, and opinions of counsel, in detail, but he agreed with Mr. Gardiner that the canal was larger than provided for by the order.

BEING DEWATERED

"The St. Lawrence River is undoubtedly being dewatered if the cubic feet per second provided for by the original leave granted to the company by the Province of Quebec, plus the leave to take 30,000 second feet additional, is given effect to," said the Prime Minister. "The river is being dewatered and the water turned into a canal which is not being built as a canal but as a communication between two waterways formerly served by the river itself."

The matter was flung into the arena of the House by Robert Gardiner, U.F.A. leader, who has already appeared in the role of a strong critic of the Beauharnois development. Invoking the right of a member to move the adjournment of the House on a matter of "urgent public importance," Mr. Gardiner precipitated a division at the opening of proceedings. By a majority of 126 votes the House supported his motion for adjournment and accorded him a full opportunity to go into the Beauharnois matter. He did so, without delay.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

After a discussion which lasted until late in the evening, Mr. Gardiner withdrew his resolution. In doing so, however he asked the Prime Minister to refer to the "court of last resort" for deciding the question of who owns the water powers on navigable streams.

Certain outstanding declarations featured Mr. Gardiner's speech. He said that the power which the company is said to control "still belongs to us," and that the Prime Minister "may still secure for the people of Canada their heritage, which Sweezey and his friends are attempting to acquire by fraud and conspiracy."

He asserted the Government of Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King had no authority to approve of the application to divert 40,000 cubic feet per second made by the company," and the whole Beauharnois development is without real legal foundation and contrary to the laws and treaty obligations of Canada." He alleged the real object of the company is to secure the entire flow of the St. Lawrence River and that it is constructing its canal with this end in view.

WILL SEEK MORE

"To add insult to injury," he continued, "they have secured this past Winter 30,000 additional cubic feet seconds from the Province of Quebec, and are awaiting a favorable opportunity to ask for another order-in-council from this Government."

The U.F.A. leader turned his attention to Senator Wilfrid Laurier MacDougald. He referred to a statement which he said the Senator had made in the Senate, to the effect that he did not own any stock in the Beauharnois company. Senator MacDougald, said Mr. Gardiner, was interested in the promotion of the original Beauharnois Light, Heat & Power Company.

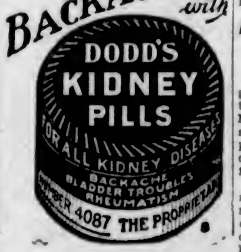

Subsequently the Senator had received 208,000 shares of stock and $780,000 for his holdings in the original company. The securities which Senator MacDougald had received were valued in the Beauharnois prospectuses at over $30,000,000, Mr. Gardiner alleged.

AGREES WITH RUMOR

Investigation by committee into the transaction was welcomed by Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister at the time the application of the Beauharnois company was granted. He was more than glad that the Prime Minister had agreed to send the matter to a committee. He asserted that Parliament had the authority to annul the order-in-council granting the application of the company to divert 40,000 cubic feet of water, and yet Members had sat for two years without moving for its annulment.

Mr. King suggested to Mr. Gardiner that if the Member for Acadia wished to make charges against members of the Senate, the House or the judiciary, he should be willing to risk his seat on those charges. Otherwise, he should not make statements which were in contravention of the rules of the House, on the floor of the Commons.

WARRANT AGAINST BAGLEY AMENDED

Bellingham Jail Closely Guarded to Prevent Escape of Hotel Robber Suspect

BELLINGHAM, Wash., May 19 (AP).—A new fugitive from justice warrant was issued against William Bagley, Harrison Hot Springs Hotel robber suspect, by Judge Ed E. Hardin, in Superior Court today, at the request of attorneys representing the Provincial Government of British Columbia.

The attorneys explained that the charge against Bagley in the New Westminster court had been amended, and they sought the new warrant to conform with the new charge.

In the meantime, Sheriff T. C. Fraser continued his investigation to determine by what method Bagley obtained a revolver with which he attempted to escape from the Whatcom County jail Monday.

The jail was being closely guarded today by deputies, who feared that friends of Bagley on the outside might attempt his release.

BILL IDENTIFIED

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 19.—A $50 Bank of Toronto bill, said to have been found on William Bagley, alleged Harrison Hot Springs Hotel bandit, when he was arrested near Sumas, was identified by Peter A. Borg, Queen Charlotte Islands, as having been paid by him to the hotel, April 26, the day previous to the robbery.

Borg was called to give evidence before Magistrate H. G. Johnston in district police court here, in connection with the extradition prosecutions against Bagley.

PEACE MEETING ENDS IN UPROAR

James W. Gerard, Former U.S. Ambassador to Germany, and Dr. J. H. Holmes Have Dispute

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—A meeting in the interest of international peace and understanding broke up in an uproar last night following a dispute between James W. Gerard, the chairman, and Dr. John Haynes Holmes over a resolution Holmes introduced denouncing plans for army air games of New York next Saturday.

Before the resolution could be put to a vote, Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, arose, and said he refused to put the motion on the ground it was out of order.

DIN BECOMES DEAFENING

Din from the audience became deafening. Gerard was hissed when he shouted he was sorry those present doubted the Government would use its military force in an aggressive war.

Someone shouted an endorsement of Soviet Russia. Gerard told him to go back there, referring to Russia as a "nation of murderers that has destroyed religion."

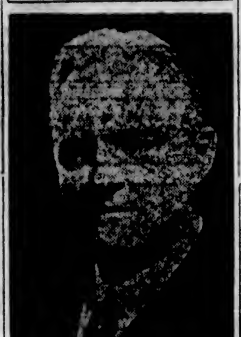

After more confusion, Gerard turned his back on the audience, turned to Dr. Holmes and said: "I enjoyed your speech." Then he walked out. The resolution was not put to a vote.

BELGIAN CABINET MINISTER RESIGNS

BRUSSELS, May 19 (AP).—Belgium's Cabinet difficulties continued today with the resignation of Pierre Forthcomme as Minister of Posts and Telegraphs shortly after appointment of new ministers of colonies and fine arts had been ratified.

He said his action was a "protest against Premier Jaspar's dictatorial methods of making Cabinet changes." Other Liberal members of the Cabinet were expected to follow his example.

TO HOLD FIRST COURT TONIGHT

Prince of Wales Will Assist Their Majesties at Buckingham Palace

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—The King and Queen, assisted by the Prince of Wales, hold their first courts of the season in historic Buckingham Palace tonight and tomorrow night. There are no additions this year to the "royal circle," as the group which assembles in the closest vicinity to Their Majesties is called, though Princess Mary, Countess of Harewood, and the Duchess of York will have young relatives to be presented.

Lady Poltimor, who belongs to the Lascelles family (the family of Princess Mary's husband) and is a cousin of the Earl of Harewood, will present her daughter, Miss Sheila Bampfylde. Lady Glamis is presenting her eldest daughter, Miss Cecilia Bowes-Lyon, cousin to the Duchess of York.

Tomorrow evening, Mrs. G. Howard Ferguson, wife of Canada's High Commissioner, will present twelve Canadian women to Their Majesties.

The Sultan of Johore and the Sultana, the former Mrs. Helen Wilson, a Scottish widow, will be particular targets of inspection in the parade of carriages along The Mall this evening. In the traditional line-up of carriages, habitues of the court and trembling neophytes will be exposed for hours to the inquisitive gaze of the London crowd as they await their summons.

The Sultana of Johore is expected to wear her priceless state jewels, most dazzling of which are a diamond tiara, a collar of diamonds of incalculable value, and a shoulder cape of diamonds. The Sultan will be attired in blue and gold uniform decorated with jeweled orders.

City Must Hold On to Park Area

The City of Victoria may have trouble in letting go of Mount Douglas Park—no matter how much the council may desire to do so—it was stated at the Parliament Buildings yesterday.

Even if the Government is desirous of taking over control of the park, it was said, and the city is agreeable, there is a bar to the transfer. Examination of the records shows that the park was transferred to the custody of the city by statute, and there exists a grave doubt if the Government has the power to reassume control until the Legislature, which enacted the statute, decides to alter the measure.

In the meantime the Government is preparing to examine the whole question anew, and both the report made by Oscar C. Bass, sitting as a royal commissioner, and the protest of Reeve William Crouch, of Saanich, against the finding of the commission, will shortly be considered by the Cabinet.

and it is expected that he, with the able collaboration of F. P. Burden, British Columbia agent-general, who has already won the regard of the British import trade, will be able to stimulate shipments from British Columbia.

Mr. Brown is a native of Canada, who has spent many years in British Columbia. For a number of years he was in the service of the Dominion Government in forestry work and in forest products laboratory investigations.

In 1920 he was appointed as British Columbia Government lumber commissioner at Toronto, where he performed very valuable work, and in 1923 was sent to London to take charge of the Government's forestry exhibit at the Wembley Exhibition.

On returning from England he left the Government service and engaged with the H. R. MacMillan Export Company, having charge of sales to the United Kingdom and European continent.

In making the announcement of the appointment of Mr. Brown to the London post, Robert Abernethy, president of the British Columbia Manufacturers' Association, said that he would leave for his new post within a few weeks.

No national government is able to deal with the economic crisis alone, Mr. Henderson declared, or to ward off a greater economic disaster which he foresaw in the form of renewed economic warfare.

WILL DRAFT PLAN

He recalled that delegations from thirteen nations had submitted proposals for relief, and said that these would be considered by the subcommittee, which has been named, to draft a plan. Suggestions include plans for industrial cartels, organization of agricultural credits, granting of preferential tariff rates on farm products, negotiation of bilateral or regional customs unions, trade and credit pacts, and a general project of tariff reduction and stabilization.

ENEMY TROOPS ARE CAPTURED

Military Scheme Carried Out by Canadian Scottish Proves Successful

The vicinity of the Colwood Race Course, on the Island Highway, was the scene of stirring activity on Sunday, when a composite company, composed of men from "A" and "B" companies of the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, and a composite platoon from "B" and "C" companies, engaged in well-planned and excellently carried out manoeuvres.

Leaving the Bay Street Armories at 10 a.m., some 150 officers and men were carried to the concentration point in transports, the mechanical transports from Work Point Barracks being called into use and driven by men of the non-permanent Horse Transport Company of the A.S.C. The scheme was one of attack and defence combined, following one of attack carried out some weeks ago.

Under command of Major H. M. McGivern, "A" Company moved to the attack against a prominent hill south of Wilfert Road from the vicinity of the Colwood Hotel. Under Major McGivern were the following officers in charge of their respective platoons: Lieut. T. Wollison, No. 1 platoon; Lieut. L. S. Henderson, No. 2 platoon; Lieut. B. H. Lamont, No. 3 platoon, and Lieut. W. B. Lambert, No. 4 platoon. Capt. C. H. O'Halloran, second in command, was with company headquarters. Attached were signalers, a Vickers gun section and stretcher bearers under Sergt.-Major E. Harwood. The defending force was organized by Capt. Stuart Robinson, and commanded during the operations by Lieut. C. M. Wightman. This force consisted of one platoon, and had attached to it a Vickers gun section and signalers.

SMOKE SCREEN USED

Advancing over the broken country, contact was made with the enemy by the scouts of the attacking force at 11 a.m., and from that time events moved with astonishing rapidity, until the final assault carried the hill. Excellent use of the available cover was made by the men, and the control exercised by the noncommissioned officers speaks volumes for the discipline which has been instilled during the months of training. The best possible use of smoke was utilized, and by taking advantage of a favorable wind the attacking force threw a screen across the enemies front, which effectually prevented observation of their movements. The defenders deserve credit for the selection of their position, which in every case gave the widest arc of fire for the weapons with which they were armed, including the machine gun, Lewis guns and rifles.

MANY VIEW BATTLE

The Verey lights used for signaling and for calling for smoke made a spectacular sight for the many onlookers who watched the sham battle from the distance. Observing the action was Lieut.-Col. Brooke Stephenson, officer commanding the 1st Battalion, accompanied by Major J. R. Kingham, second in command. Capt. V. G. F. Barton was O.C. of the referees, who were officers of the unit not actually taking part in the attack. Capt. E. B. Underwood represented headquarters of M.D. No. 11, and was accompanied by Capt. Elliott of the R.A.S.C. Others present included two officers of the 5th Regiment. Capt. Rose commanded the Army Service Corps detachment, which was responsible for bringing up the rations.

Rations were served under the supervision of Capt. O. J. Weiler, and all remarked upon the high quality of the issue. The regimental pipers gave stirring rendering of Highland music while the men had lunch and rested after a hard morning's work.

At 3 o'clock the troops fell in and were taken back by transport to the Armories. This is the second of a series of manoeuvres to be carried out by the 1st Battalion of the Canadian Scottish, and arrangements are under way to carry out many other military schemes in the district.

SHOWS NEED OF CIVIC AIRPORT

Alderman W. T. Straith Addresses Kiwanis Club on Gordon Head Project

Benefits that would accrue to the city of Victoria by the establishment of a municipal airport here were detailed at the regular luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club yesterday when Alderman W. T. Straith, chairman of the industrial committee of the City Council, gave an address in connection with the proposed Gordon Head landing field.

Mr. Straith, who has been a staunch advocate of civic and commercial aviation, has addressed various clubs during the past few weeks and, being in possession of knowledge given to him by experts in matters relating to air travel, has a keen grasp of the needs of Victoria. He mentioned, among other things, the fact that Victoria was the farthest west point in the Dominion and the key position to aerial travel to outgoing ocean liners and from incoming steamers.

PAYING PROPOSITION

Detailing a number of the items that constitute the fees in connection with an airport, Alderman Straith intimated the Gordon Head proposition, if approved by the ratepayers, would pay for itself in a very short time. It is the intention of the City Council to submit a by-law to the ratepayers shortly asking for authority to expend an amount of money to create the airport and to purchase the property required. The site, he said, had been approved by the highest officials of the Federal department and the property was all that could be desired for the purpose of landing and leaving of planes.

It has been stated that Victoria should have a seaplane base as being more suitable to the conditions. Mr. Straith pointed out that all air mail and passenger planes plying to and from cities of the United States and the Prairie Provinces were "wheel jobs."

Oak Bay, Mr. Straith said, had promised to submit a by-law to its ratepayers at the January elections to cover its donation to the project, but this would be done only when Victoria electors agreed to the proposals. He was confident that the citizens of Victoria would see the advantages of an airport here. Saanich had enthusiastically endorsed the project by voting to remit the amount of taxation on the property.

CONVENTION REPORT

The business session of the club consisted of a report from Harold M. Diggon concerning the Miami convention. He declared that the convention was in favor of the abolition of annual conventions and supported a plan of triennial mass gatherings, with legislative gatherings in Chicago in the intervening years.

The Kiwanis Club will establish a ground checkerboard in Central Park at a cost of $100 and will assist the local committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in providing cars for the delegates. There will not be a noon meeting of the club next Tuesday. It will be replaced by a meeting at Hamsterley Lakeside at 6:45, when ladies will be present.

CHINESE WOMAN IS SENT UP FOR TRIAL

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP).—Charged with having in her possession opium valued at $24,750 on April 27, Mrs. Leung Sing Kay was committed today by Police Magistrate H. C. Shaw for trial.

It was alleged in evidence at the preliminary hearing that 165 tins of the narcotic were found in trunks, which the woman asked customs officers to examine when she arrived here on R.M.S. Empress of Asia on April 27.

A man, believed to be her husband, arrived here with her, but disappeared at the time the alleged narcotics were found, and has not yet been located.

DESIRE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

TORONTO, May 19 (CP).—Creation of a department of public welfare was recommended to the City Council by the Board of Control today, based on a report presented by the central unemployment relief committee. This department is to be placed under a commissioner. Duties include regulation of all forms of social service supported by sick funds and co-ordination of the work of all charitable institutions.

CHINESE FINED $5 EACH AFTER RAID

Fines of $5 each were imposed on sixty Chinese in the city police court yesterday morning. All of the accused were arrested by police in a raid on 5 Fan Tan Alley last Saturday night and charged with being inmates of a gaming house.

W. C. Moresby, K.C., defence counsel, asked for a minimum fine on the grounds that a number of the men were not gambling. Some were seeking charity, while others were there for meals, counsel stated.

The raid was described by Police Inspector John Boulton. Sixty cents in cash was found.

FINANCIAL CONFIDENCE IN B.C.

The price secured for British Columbia's latest long term loan is a striking illustration of the confidence of financial houses in the policies now being followed in this province. Thirty-year bonds, totalling $4,324,000 have been purchased by a syndicate with a guaranteed yield of 4.455 per cent. The price is the best ever secured by this province for a long term flotation of such a magnitude. For any flotation of British Columbia it was only once bettered, and that was for a million dollar issue which in 1927 was sold to yield 4.42 per cent. In addition the province has sold to the same syndicate $3,500,000 five-year securities at the very low yield of 4.29 per cent.

These financial transactions indicate that the administration of Mr. J. W. Jones, the responsible Minister, has inspired faith in the solidarity of the credit of British Columbia. The present Minister of Finance in his first Budget has set out with the intention of showing a surplus. He has put into force a number of economies. There have been reductions in administrative expenses in practically all departments of the Government. The incidence of the Income Tax has been extended to embrace thousands of persons who hitherto were contributing little or nothing directly to the costs of administration. These policies, rendered so essential because of the exigencies of economic conditions, have met with favor in financial circles. That favor is reflected in the very satisfactory prices secured for the latest loans. Mr. Jones can rest satisfied that his financial policy has been stamped with the hall mark of approval and the people of British Columbia may congratulate themselves on having a Minister of Finance who is so determined to conserve their best interests.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS

There is rancorous feeling and no fair play in Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's latest diatribe against the House of Lords. He says the members of the Upper House in Britain are "servile to every whim and proposal of the Conservative Party." It would seem that, with the British Prime Minister, honest conviction spells servility. In effect what he does is to blame Conservatives for endorsing the Conservative attitude towards proposed legislation. Because a majority of the House of Lords do this that whole House is described as a "body of irresponsible political partisans." With Mr. Ramsay MacDonald his Socialistic zeal constantly outruns his political discretion. He is seeking for an issue for Labor to go to the country with and has seized upon that of the "Peers versus the People." The country, however, is not thinking in terms of such an issue. It is more anxious to concentrate on such fiscal measures as will bring about trade recovery, solve unemployment and restore Britain's prestige in the hegemony of nations.

It is notorious that for a long number of years past, with a few exceptions, the debating power of the House of Lords has been on a higher plane than that of the Commons. Statesmanship in Britain has led to elevation to the Upper Chamber. In that respect the British Parliament differs from all others. In Britain some of the best minds of the country are in political life. Were there no House of Lords they would not be there as they would refuse to risk their reputations before the bar of a fickle public opinion. Mr. Ramsay MacDonald can legitimately raise the issue of whatever undesirability exists in having a non-elective chamber. He shows spleen, however, in saying that the Lords occupy a servile position; that is untrue because, under the British Constitution, they compose one of the three estates of the realm. There is no "menacing challenge" in any body of men acting as their consciences dictate. In differing with policies of the Labor Party the Lords are not challenging "representative democracy." The Labor Government does not represent a majority of the people of Britain. It is a minority Government, a fact which Mr. Ramsay MacDonald is at constant pains to hide.

BUDGET "SHIFTS AND DODGES"

When Mr. Snowden's budget speech was delivered a sense of relief was experienced in many quarters which had been awaiting with apprehension further developments of the economic policy, or rather the economic theories, of the Labor Government. When it was discovered that for the present, at least, the Labor Party's Socialist programme was to be left in abeyance, and that the country might rest in comparative security for another year, there was a widespread disposition to be thankful that the sword of Damocles had not descended.

Considered on its merits as a budget, however, it has been received with almost general censure in the financial world. Alike in London and New York, the methods by which the budget has been balanced are viewed as "robbing Peter to pay Paul." To obtain the necessary current revenue for the ensuing year Mr. Snowden is taking the substantial sum of $100,000,000 from a reserve fund. He explained that this reserve fund was larger than is needed. That may be, and if so it would justify the use of part of it to reduce capital indebtedness or for some other reserve fund, but it does not justify taking it for use as current revenue to meet current expenditure. The Labor Government, in this particular, is in the position of a private individual who uses his capital as if it were income. When the capital is spent the source of income has gone.

A second device resorted to is to collect some $50,000,000 of income tax at an earlier date than hitherto, in other words, to take part of next year's income for use this year. The Stock Exchange Gazette, of London, after pointing out that such methods of balancing the budget are neither sound nor reputable, adds that the inherent vice of the budget is its failure to reduce expenditures.

"By dint of raids and anticipations of revenues, of shifts and dodges," says The Gazette, "the country is deluded, or is persuaded to delude itself into believing that it can comfortably meet a scale of expenditure beyond all reason or necessity. The source of our deficits is not shortcoming of revenue, for that yields with surprising profusion, but sheer extravagance. Mr. Snowden's ideas on economy are difficult to fathom. He tells us that next year 'if the world depression fails to lift, a reduction in expenditure will be the only alternative to increased taxation,' suggesting that he has no passion for economy on its own merits."

B.C. AND CONFEDERATION

The story of how British Columbia became a part of the Confederation of Canada has been told by The Colonist in a series of instalments which have appeared during the past nine months. As a record of history, compiled mainly from the issues of this newspaper of sixty years ago, it is a particularly appropriate contribution in this diamond jubilee year. The celebration of the anniversary will be observed with fitting ceremony in July next. In the meantime our citizens have had the opportunity of reading a careful compilation of the events which led up to Union. For this Mrs. Nina Napier deserves every credit. The story she compiled from the pages of this newspaper involved a good deal of research and the piecing together of a variety of news items. As a whole it comprises a story which could well be made the basis of a textbook for the schools of British Columbia.

Dr. W. H. Burton of the University of California has been making investigations to ascertain what is the knowledge children have of community activities before they begin to learn about them in school. He finds such knowledge listed in the following order: bootlegger, divorce, sheriff, juvenile court, bail, jury, mayor, election, polling place, ballot, taxes, insurance, bank, rent and bank deposit. Thus in youthful minds in California the bootlegger seems to be the best known of citizens. In commenting on this Mr. W. J. Cooper, the American Commissioner of Education, says cities must face the situation whether their influence is to be made to "stimulate growth, or to plant the fungi of social decay."

There are those within the Labor Party in Great Britain who are fully convinced that the policies being followed to cure unemployment are not the right ones. The preoccupation within that party, however, is to retain power. Otherwise it would be more concerned about altering a course which Mr. Benson, the private parliamentary secretary to one of the Labor ministers, describes as "utterly futile" and "wildly extravagant."

King Alfonso of Spain has not abdicated. Neither has he been deprived of the throne by any constituted authority that has replaced him. He has signed away none of the claims of his dynasty. In the meantime he is not plotting to regain power; he has, indeed, issued an official statement indicating his willingness to await the election of a Constituent Assembly in Spain.

A WRITER'S "PARADISE"

And those who were good shall be happy;
They shall stand on the Golden Stair,
And write to the Earth their messages
On the crystal dome of the air,
With pens from the wings of angels,
Dipped in Promethean flame;
And no one shall write from vanity,
And no one shall write for fame,
But each at the call of duty,
And each, to the Worlds afar,
Shall tell the truth as he sees it,
For the God of things—as they are.

—Bertrand Shadwell (Genoa).

CANADA AND SOVIET TRADE

Canada's blunt action gives a heartening lead to all who believe in firmness where firmness is needed. Canada can do better for herself than buy prison products at ruinously cheap prices. In coal, the commodity at present chiefly discussed, she has high-grade bituminous supplies of her own, and she has during the past year been drawing increasingly from Great Britain those supplies of anthracite which she formerly drew from the United States. Canada, however, has given proof of her resolve to keep at a distance a system thoroughly evil, and in doing so her action is justified both on the higher ground of principle and the lower ground of expediency.—Sydney Morning Herald.

Tomorrow hath a rare, alluring sound; today is very prose. And yet the twain are but one vision seen through altered eyes. Our dreams inhabit one; our stress and pain surge through the other.—Richard Burton.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

The time is out of joint: O, cursed spite!
That ever I was born to set it right.
—Shakespeare.

Fire in each eye and papers in each hand,
They rave, recite, and madden round the land.
—Pope.

After reading a great many newspapers, some of them carefully and many of them casually, we have reached the conclusion that the Mad Hatter of Wonderland was a sane and reasonable being compared with the masses of men of the present day. That conclusion became even more profound after a Sunday afternoon's trip out of the city and around its environs. There is scarcely a motor driver these days who does not drive as if he were running away from the police or as if the devil himself were after him. In the city on ordinary days the conditions are just the same. The driver of a delivery van, be he a milk vendor, a drygoods or a grocery distributor, or the autocratic master of a heavy truck loaded to capacity with coal or wood, speeds upon his headlong way, rushing through intersections or around blind corners regardless of consequences. And yet we wonder at the death rate upon the highways and speculate about what shall be done about it.

We suppose the general order is that business must be speeded up. On the other hand, meetings are being held and resolutions are being adopted that business must be slowed down for the purpose of permitting consumption to overtake production. Consider one conspicuous case. The Ford factories have been turning out more motor cars than the market for cars can absorb, although there can be no doubt that the Ford car is normally in great demand. Neither can there be much doubt that from an economic point of view a Ford factory is quite the last word in industrial efficiency. Neither time nor labor is permitted to run to waste in one of those modern manufacturing institutions. So, of course, the last thing thought of in a Ford factory is slowing down. But even a Ford factory is not immune from the conditions of the times. Therefore, instead of slowing down, and allowing the demand for motor cars to overtake the production of cars, an order has been issued closing the factories for a certain number of days per week.

Most of us still remember the terrible mental depression which had been produced by the Great War, and that in order to overcome that depression meetings were held and resolutions passed that business must be carried on as usual. We can remember that when the clouds of a business depression first began to loom up on the horizon over this continent, a meeting of industrial magnates was called and resolutions were passed declaring that business must be continued as usual and that no attempts should be made to reduce wages. The assumption which prompted that solemn resolution was that if business refused to recognize the fact of a depression, either there was no real depression or if there was a depression it would speedily pass. But facts proved more potent than resolutions. Many of the industrial magnates, when confronted with facts, stuck to their resolution not to reduce wages; but those who did not reduce wages either reduced the hours or the days of labor in their factories. Circumstances proved stronger than resolutions. The rate of production was not slowed down in order to permit the demand for products to overtake the supply, but the conditions were met in another way—by entirely stopping production on certain days of the week. The standard rate of pay was maintained, but the average rate of pay per week was reduced. The consciences of the manufacturers were not heavy, but neither were the pay envelopes of their workmen.

In all parts of the world the conditions seem to be about the same. We have all been tearing along the road at such a tremendous rate that we have not only overtaken ourselves; we have run over ourselves. Some speculative philosophers say the depression is the consequence of too great speed in the rate of production. Others quite as profound in their generalization contend that the depression is the consequence of under-consumption, which common people with no pretensions to philosophical acumen may say amounts to the same thing. But the profound philosophers who declare the depression is due to under-consumption contend that the over-producers are to blame for not paying their workmen higher wages and thus enabling them to consume more and to maintain the balance between production and consumption. In the meantime there is the fact, which confounds all theories, that in the midst of plenty there is a famine, and that surely is an anomolous condition of affairs in the economic history of the world.

But if the world is mad, its condition is not incurable. Every disease must run its course. This part of the world is particularly susceptible to spasms of business dizziness. There have been depressions before, and they have all passed and produced a healthier state of mind. There is, of course, the factor of Russia, which hitherto has not cut much of a figure in the realm of business or industry, to be considered. This new Russia has upset many business calculations, besides confounding many political and economic theories; but Russia, notwithstanding her tremendous mass, cannot permanently upset the equilibrium of a sound and sane world.

BATS AT SOOKE

Sir,—The failure of your special correspondent at Sooke to record an important item of news, leads the writer to attempt to rectify the omission. Tradition lodges bats suitably in the belfry as well as ants in the attic; but if the bats desert the belfry and favor the attic, what then? Such a condition of things now perverts the national order, and confusion reigns.

Bats, single or married, with a little family thrown in, under the eaves, a-twitter in a cosy atmosphere of fleas, may continue undetected by any of the senses.

Not so when multiplied by hundreds or thousands. Then a pale blue mousy miasm is apt to, in fact does, pervade a two-story farmhouse, down to the very basement and beyond, to the consternation of the inmates and jow of lewd fellows of the baser sort.

An enterprising neighbor volunteered to count the bats at dusk, when they crept out of a crevice at the gable end. He was a determined man, and moreover no mean mathematician. At intervals of five seconds or so, one by one would plane out, sideslip a few feet and vanish into the gloom. After counting 250 he began to feel queer. The strain was telling on him. He even began to doubt the evidence of his eyes and intellect. Not but what he was strictly abstemious, eschewing governmental liquid which inflates, vide Hansard, and at the same time bemuses, and which it is needless further to specify. So he decided to report progress lest a worse thing happen to him and he become, as he expressed it, "batty."

After a conference, two courses seemed open to the parties concerned. The first was to refer the question to the local sage, if and how the plague might be stayed. The second was, to write to the newspaper about it. The first was ultimately adopted nem con. A deputation waited upon the sage. He deliberated the subject while one might count, so to speak, twenty bats coming out of a hole. Then he delivered himself as follows:

"The first thing to be done is to eject the flying mammals from the attic, whers they are presumed to be.

"And the second is to prevent a return after their ejection is complete."

MR. PATTULLO'S SPEECH

Sir,—Presumably the Saturday afternoon issue of The Victoria Times has reported Mr. Pattullo's speech on Friday night correctly. Mr. Pattullo is apparently his usual irresponsible self, juggling with figures without paying attention to facts. It was the same sort of carelessness and neglect for detail which has caused the loss to this Province of over ten million dollars in his various wildcat schemes, such as Sumas, Oliver, and other land schemes, which are now costing the Province over $1,000,000 a year in interest and sinking fund, and will continue to be a weight on the taxpayers of this Province for the next fifteen or twenty-five years. Mr. the public memory is so short that Pattullo does not seem to take himself seriously. I wonder if he thinks they are likely to take him seriously, without the support of facts.

I quote from his speech as reported by The Times, in part: "During our administration in office there was only one year in which we went behind in current account, and that was only by $20,000. There were at least three years when we met both capital and income, and every year we met every obligation, and we paid out a certain amount on capital account out of income."

I wonder if Mr. Pattullo will accept a challenge to substantiate his statement as quoted above. Here are the facts and figures regarding the revenue and expenditure of the Province from 1917 to 1928 (March 31).

	Revenue	Expenditure	Deficit	Surplus
1917	$ 8,906,783	$ 9,331,740	$ 3,928,957	.....
1918	9,882,846	9,340,380	466,534	.....
1920	13,661,603	13,310,371	.....	$351,231
1921	15,319,364	10,626,890	4,407,326	.....
1926	21,775,889	21,675,075	.....	100,794
1927	20,539,081	20,788,095	160,014	.....

It will be observed that there were only two years when there were surpluses, and the total of these amounted to only $452,125, while the rest of the Liberal administration showed deficits, varying from $160,014 in 1927 to the enormous sum of $4,407,326 in 1921. It will be recalled that 1921 was a year of depression, and that in 1920 and 1921 new taxation was instituted, including gasoline, amusement tax and liquor control. The total deficits amounted to the substantial sum of $16,238,859. Mr. Pattullo says full provisions were made. Will he tell the public where and how were provisions made?

He stataed that, "we paid out a certain amount on capital out of income." Will he tell the public what these were? So far as I can see from the public accounts, these "capital amounts out of income" consisted of sinking fund and to meet interest and sinking fund and operating deficits of P.G.E., and were properly expenditures. But perhaps Mr. Pattullo can substantiate his statement. I invite him to do so or admit his statement were "only platform statements," and, "not being on oath." It would be unkind to call upon him to prove them. It is a pity, Mr. Editor, that some public men handle the truth so carelessly, and all for the sake of gaining a little doubtful party advantage.

The record of Mr. Pattullo, during the eleven years of his administration of the Department of Lands under the Liberal Government, has been so wasteful, so extravagant, and showed such a lack of a sense of responsibility in the handling of public money entrusted to him, that he is the last man who can afford to talk of an "orgy of expenditure," "extravagance," or "waste". Mr. Pattullo would be wiser if he learnt to take a little time to study details, for at present few of his statements would bear examination.

SWEEPSTAKES

Sir,—What price the liberty of the British subject when it is illegal for him to invest a dollar, even on a sweep that is run abroad and which is drawn under the supervision of the Government, the police and the press? I refer to Tattersall's consultations or sweeps which are held in Tasmania and which to my own personal knowledge have been in full swing since the early '80s. Even our virtuous postal officials will not knowingly allow any communication to go through the post to George Adams or any promoters of these consultations. Of course that is all "bunk," for one has no difficulty in applying to his sister's aunt's second cousin to forward him a ticket.

The Rev. Dr. Dobson, at some church conference, in opposing sweepstakes, contended that no state could base its upkeep on gambling. But Tasmania seems no worse off for legalizing the sweeps during the last fifty years or so, none of the proceeds of which go to any charitable institutions. There are generally two sweeps or consultations of 100,000 members held every month, and on the Melbourne Cup in November there are two at £1 each and three at five shillings each ticket, every one of which is always filled up, and a nice old haul the Government makes out of it. It takes 12½ per cent, besides two shillings in the pound for stamps on the tickets, and the promoters get 10 per cent.

It seems to me that the whole of life is a gamble. Say now that you are in want of employment. You walk up one street and meet a man who is the means of putting you on to the right track in obtaining a good position. Had you gone up a different street you would not have met that man and maybe would still be "on your uppers." In my opinion there is not the gambling element in chancing a dollar in an honestly-run sweep that there is in investing in stocks and shares that are "bulled and beared" to suit those who can obtain inside information. A sweep, too, is very different from running a casino or gambling room, where people sit and gamble all day long. If sweeps are barred then gambling on margins in stocks and shares should be stopped.

Well, Mr. Editor, I shan't see the good old Derby run this year, but all the same I intend to have a flutter on it and hope you will be able to rake up a dollar to purchase a ticket with that will at least land you a horse.

INTERNECINE STRIFE

Sir,—The news of another rebellion in China, in yesterday's Colonist, is not unexpected. As it was in Mexico, is now and ever shall be, so in China, unless the civilized nations take things in hand for the sake of oppressed humanity.

Nearly all the rebellions start in Canton or by Cantonese, who are the most aggressive and progressive section of the Chinese nation. They have different customs, a language or dialect not understood in other parts of China, and are held in a measure of fear, contempt and suspicion by Chinese in other provinces.

The national characteristic system of community rule, trade guilds and secret clan and benevolent societies works well up to a certain point, but seems to result in corruption, oppression and chaos in government circles.

The Chinese people are not yet nearly civilized enough to be entrusted with a republican form of government, with the result that the educated, the rich and the powerful are continually fighting over the heads of the masses for mastery and the power to rule and enrich themselves.

Because of sentiment, led by America, the civilized nations stand looking on, none daring to interfere, while the greatest nation or race of people on earth slowly batter each other to death in useless internal wars.

It is a lasting shame to our boasted Christian civilization that because of international jealousy, grasping trade interests and rival commercial ambitions, we have developed public opinion that has lost all that Christian spirit of gallantry which would have rushed to the assistance of the oppressed without counting the cost in loss of trade.

Too long have the powers stood looking on and meekly suffered insult, kidnapping, imprisonment, torture and death to some of our own nationals in China, with only a meek, half-hearted protest in speech. Such a policy invites the increase and greater boldness of such acts of lawlessness and lowers our prestige to the level of cowards in Asiatic eyes.

We need a strong international policy, backed by determined force, to say to China: "These bloody wars must cease; set your house in order for national peace and not for war; and, if in chaos and lawlessness the country still remains unchanged, we will take action to secure protection for life and property."

Herein, perhaps, lies the remedy for the silver problem and trade. China, the great silver-using nation, lies prostrate in the grip of rival factions, fighting for her life blood. Restore her to peace and safety, and trade and silver will begin to flow.

A call to Senator Borah lies here, if he would remedy the silver situation and boldly tackle the stupendous task to help this great nation in distress.

Led by America, let him call for a conference to devise a scheme of international police protectorate for China for ten years; disband all armies, robber bands and lawless hordes, and also guarantee protection in external spheres. Then let the Chinese Government devote itself entirely to civil government schemes and give the people that sense of safety which encourages trade and the free circulation of silver; then prosperous development will follow, and the whole world reflect the improvement.

JOINT AERIAL FACILITIES

Sir,—Will you permit me a few lines re airport. The base proposed for Victoria is of inestimable value to our city, but are we overlooking the need of a seaplane base? The one is of as much interest to us as the other, therefore we should consider it from all points.

Before the landplane site is definitely decided upon, why not consider the matter from every point of vantage? Would it not be better and wiser to secure a site suitable for both a landplane and seaplane base, and to work these in conjunction?

Many advantages would be derived. There would be economy in service, and distribution, one base—more cheaply bought, buildings more economically constructed, overhead expenses minimized, mechanical maintenance easier. The union of the two services would be much more convenient. A traveler missing one service would be enabled to take the other, and vice versa, without having to rush from one base to the other miles away.

I believe that Oakland, California, has a union depot upon the Oakland estuary. I do not wish to presume, but Esquimalt might serve our purpose if the Inner Harbor cannot be of service.

SWEEPSTAKES

Sir,—I notice there is a bill before the House to legalize the running of sweepstakes in Canada for the purpose of raising money to assist hospitals, etc. Fully 90 per cent of the population will say, "the finest thing that could happen." And so it is. No one could suggest any better, quicker or more certain method of raising money. And even if it does not pass, sweepstakes and lotteries will still continue the same as other games do, because it is born in human beings to take chances on these sports, and no matter what happens, no one will ever succeed in stopping them; so why rob people of their liberty? It can be put on a comparison with the United States trying to enforce prohibition. It just cannot be done.

Of course, there is some objection to the bill: there is to every bill brought before the House no matter what its purpose, and in this case it is the clergy or church who are against it; but why consider their objections when the vast majority are in favor? If they do not want anything to do with sweepstakes, then no one asks them to, and they are fully privileged to keep away from them and not interfere with those that do want them. Can they see anything worse in the Government permitting betting on horse racing and selling liquor to allowing sweepstakes for charitable purposes? No, of course, they can't; and neither can anyone else with ordinary intelligence.

There are other ways in which legalized sweepstakes will help and do good besides the charitable side. They will help to scatter and distribute some of the idle money that is lying dormant. They will make more business in every way, which is what we are all looking for. They will bring a very material revenue to the postal authorities on account of the enormous number of letters mailed, and the money orders sent, as well as other items of revenue. They will also provide a splendid opportunity for our local police to hunt and detect crime and criminals of a far worse calibre, instead of raiding local tobacco stores for tickets. Their time could be better spent looking for holdup men who rob citizens and blow safes open. Last, but not at all least, if the sweepstakes were financially successful, which is a foregone conclusion, it would not be long perhaps, before the directors of the hospitals would be able to grant the overworked and patient nurses and probationers a much-needed increase in their pay, which I am sure they fully deserve, considering their hours and discipline and the nature of their work. All these things are well worth consideration and should fully counteract any deficiencies the act might have in its application. In wishing Senator Barnard every success in his common sense effort, I know I am joined by nearly everyone.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

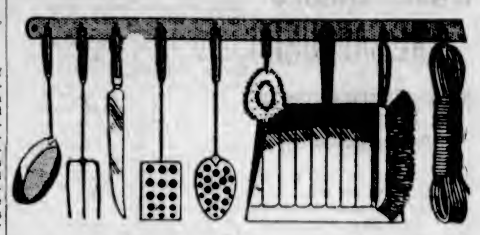

(From The Daily British Colonist of May 20, 1881)

Seattle is going to charter a company to light that town with electricity. It was learned by a telegraphic dispatch yesterday.

The steamship Seats of California—one with the modern iron propellers, swift, strong, and considered reliable—sailed from Portland for San Francisco on Friday, May 13. She passed Astoria and crossed the bar safely the same day. On Monday morning she was due at the port of destination. Down to 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, she had not reached there. Steamers sent in search had not returned to port yesterday. A telegram to The Colonist from the agents at San Francisco requested earliest information as to the arrival off this port of the Wellington steam sealer Barnard Castle. That steamer passed at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but had no communication with the shore, consequently it will not be known whether she sighted the State of California until today, by dispatch from Nanaimo. The anxiety at the Bay city is naturally very great.

Rev. Mr. Allen, who is now officiating at Toronto, will arrive in June and will be assigned for duty at the Collegiate School, in this city.

The B.C. Investment & Loan Society, of this city, has gone into liquidation.

FROM DAWN UNTIL DUSK

Saw Asia in Morning—Were Back in England at Night

BRITISH FLYERS IN RECORD AIR FLIGHT

Though disappointed of a triumphant flight to Australia, Captain T. Neville Stack and his companion, Mr. Chaplin, have made flying history, and their enforced temporary abandonment of the project to fly to Australia and back in three weeks should not be permitted to dim the lustre of two record flights between London and Constantinople.

The feat of reaching Constantinople from England in one day had never before been accomplished; the return flight to London was even a little better in point of time and distance flown. At 4:32 on Saturday morning the airmen set forth from Lympne airdrome, Kent, in a fast Vickers two-seater biplane deriving power from a 550 h.p. Napier Lion engine. They were ready to fly all of every day in an attempt to get to Port Darwin and back inside twenty-one days, thus demonstrating in no uncertain manner how a high-speed mail service might be operated half round the world. In the tanks were 265 gallons of fuel, sufficient for a nonstop flight of ten hours, cruising at 135 miles an hour. Top speed of the plane is more than 150 miles per hour, and it is, therefore, far the swiftest airplane yet to attempt the Australia journey. In a special compartment was carried a small freight load, including messages and documents to deliver on behalf of the London Chamber of Commerce at various points along the route.

Stack's itinerary provided for the airmen to reach Vienna in the first day of the outward flight. Actually the plane descended there at 11 o'clock in the morning. Forty minutes' halt, while the machine was refueled, and they were off again to fly 860 miles to Constantinople, where they made a perfect landing at 9 o'clock, two hours after nightfall. The journey of 1,660 miles from Lympne had occupied fourteen hours of actual flying, an average speed over the ground of 119 miles an hour. Head winds were met over much of the Vienna-Constantinople stage.

Signs of irregular carburetion had been noticed during the day and, after examination and discussion, Stack thought best to return immediately to England to get the trouble rectified in the works. Experts are busy today looking carefully over the petrol installation; it is thought probable that dirt may have found its way into the pipes leading to the carburetors and thus caused irregular flow to the cylinders.

The return flight was as splendid as the outward trip. The biplane rose from the airdrome at Constantinople yesterday as dawn was breaking, and just before 8 p.m. taxied to a stop outside the hangars at the Heston airdrome, near London, having made a halt at Belgrade for oil and fuel. Stack and Chaplin were able to say to friends in London last evening, "We saw Asia today!" No man in history has previously been able to do that.

This is high-speed flying with a vengeance, and comes as an emphasis to the fine flight accomplished a few days ago by the same airplane and pilots in getting from London to Berlin and back between dawn and dusk of the same day. Evidently an air mail service bringing Turkey and the Balkan States within one day of England is feasible, while continuance of the same rate of travel all along the line means Australia in a week.

Note of Protest Sent By Russia to Finland

(Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Daily ...)

MOSCOW, ... of the official newspapers echo the calm tone of the Soviet note to Finland protesting various events with that country during the last one and one-half years.

The note, signed by Nikolai Krestinsky, Vice-Minister of the People's Commissariat of Foreign Affairs, and which was forecast in The Chicago Daily News cables on Friday, was revealed to Eino Westerlund, Finnish charge d'affaires, on Sunday and published here only today. The note enumerates the incidents, varying from extracts of readers' letters in Helsinfors newspapers to the Lappa movement and a demonstration in front of the Soviet Legation, and warns that this must not continue.

DEPENDS UPON FINLAND

"We will welcome measures by the Finnish Government against its agitators for war, but we will not be caught napping if the anti-Soviet campaign continues," says Krasnaya Zvezda, of Red Star, organ of the Revolutionary War Council. "Finnish-Soviet relations depend upon Finland. The laboring population of the Soviet Union calmly, and with a consciousness of the right of its position, awaits the result of the note.

"What hope have the Finnish militarists of rattling their sabres? Even the most ardent Fascisti heads cannot imagine themselves able to conquer a powerful country under proletarian dictatorship. Relying on their foreign patrons, they are actually trying to provoke the Soviet Union into armed conflict, so that the international forces of intervention will take the field. However, they have not the unanimous sympathy of the ruling circles of all the capitalist countries, and must realize the different strength of the armed forces of the Soviet Union and Finland."

RELATIONS NOT CONCEALED

The newspaper specifies that the friendly relations between the French and Finnish military general staffs are not concealed but advertised, and that this question in the British House of Commons was based on information furnished by Finnish timber exporters.

Izvestia, organ of the Government, and Pravda, organ of the Communist party, are more quiet than the former, suggesting that Finland wants to annex Karelia, and possibly go as far as the Ural Mountains. Pravda insists that the note shows a fraternal solidarity and sympathy between the Finnish and Soviet laboring masses.

FASCISTS CLEAN RANKS OF PARTY

90,000 Italians Deprived of Their "Tessere"—Many More Lukewarm Members to Be Expelled

By WILLIAM H. STONEMAN

ROME, May 19.—Ninety thousand Italians who hopped onto the Fascist bandwagon for practical reasons and failed to live up to their obligations as members of the party have been unceremoniously deprived of their red, white and green buttons during the last seven months, it has been announced. At the same time the pruning process is being continued and thousands of others who take their Fascism lightly are due to be deprived of their "tessere" during the coming year.

ANTIFASCIST REMARKS

Most of those dismissed from the party ranks since last October, when Giovanni Battista Giuriati became party director, have been guilty of making antifascist remarks to the wrong people or have figured in scandals which brought no honor to the regime. Incidentally, the Government is anxious to get rid of all "cowards, poltroons, profiteers," and those who do not agree with the way the revolution is being carried out, in order to make way for new blood.

According to the present scheme, virtually all new members of the party in the future will be young men who have previously served in the ranks of the Young Fascists of Combat, an organization which was formed last November to train men for membership in the party.

300,000 ENROLLED

The number of youths enrolled in this organization is now approximately 300,000, all between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one. One-third of this number will pass into the ranks of the Fascist party proper at the end of the year. The number of young Fascists may gradually increase, but the present battle cry is "more quality and less quantity," the ultimate purpose being to form a small nucleus of political supporters for the regime whose absolute loyalty may be relied upon in all emergencies.

DEATH IS LAID TO FREAKISH WEATHER

HELENA, Mont., May 19 (AP).—One death was laid to the freakish weather that has prevailed over most of Montana for the last three days. The storm also caused soil blowing and damaged roads, trees and fences.

The body of Roy Depew, fifty, was found under his car on a highway north of Harlowtown yesterday. Depew was last seen driving in a dense dust storm. His car had run into a sand pile and overturned. His head was crushed.

Obituary

YEE GIN—The death occurred at the Jubilee Hospital on Sunday of Yee Gin, Chinese merchant of 535 Pleyard Street, aged fifty-one years. He had resided in Victoria for thirty years and leaves his widow and one daughter in China, and a brother in Vancouver. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon next at 2 o'clock from the Sands Funeral Chapel, and interment will be in the Chinese Cemtery.

GOODBODY—The remains of Miss Mary Goodbody, who passed away on May 17, are reposing at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, where funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. Comley will officiate. The remains will be forwarded later to Vancouver for cremation. (No flowers by special request.)

HAYNES—Funeral services will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel this afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, for the late Dr. George Henry Haynes, who passed away in this city on May 17. Rev. Canon Chadwick will offficiate. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

ALLAN MORKILL IS RE-ELECTED

Vancouver Island Horticulturists Hold Annual Meeting and Elect Officers

Allan Morkill was re-elected president of the Vancouver Island Horticultural Society at the annual meeting of that body held last night in the council chamber at the City Hall, and attended by upwards of twenty-five representatives from Victoria and Up-Island points.

Other officers elected for 1931 were as follows: First vice-president, L. E. Taylor; second vice-president, Dr. C. T. Hilton, Port Alberni; third vice-president, S. M. Streight, Sidney; treasurer, R. V. D. Guthrie; secretary, P. R. Leighton, and assistant secretary, Mrs. E. W. Hammond. The directors, forty in number, were selected from the various horticultural societies on the Island affiliated societies.

PERMANENT SHOW DATE

It was decided to fix as a permanent show date for holding the annual show, the last Friday and Saturday of April. The meeting adopted reports of the president, treasurer and secretary. The treasurer's report showed a cash balance on hand of $136.

A special committee is to be selected by the executive to draw up a list of books on gardening, and to suggest to the Public Library that these books be carried on the shelves of the library for the convenience of local gardeners. Information was received from the Portland Association announcing that an exhibit would be forwarded for inclusion in the next show of the society.

There was some discussion in connection with cash prizes, and it was decided to leave that matter in the hands of the incoming executive. The majority of the members were in favor of no cash prizes, with the exception of the junior classes.

MANY WORKMEN ARE DECORATED

Six Factories in Russia Given Awards for Completing Five Years' Plan in Two Years

By JUNIUS B. WOOD

MOSCOW, May 19.—The building of Socialism brought both honors and tragedy in today's chronicle of the advance of the five years' plan. Fifty-eight workmen were awarded honorary decorations in recognition of their industry, while two Ukraine peasants—brothers—were sentenced to shooting following the murder of an organizer of a Kolkhoz in the village of Peski.

The decree of the All-Union Central Executive Committee decorates the workers either with the Order of Lenin or the Red Banner of Labor, while one receives an additional prize of 3,000 rubles (about $1,500).

The heroes of labor include two women, nine inventors, twelve railroad workers and six system experts. Five factories in Leningrad and three in Moscow are also decorated for completing the five years' plan in two years.

The verdict sentencing the two brothers was received with great satisfaction, according to reports, 100 peasants immediately applying for membership in the Kolkhoz.

EZRA CARLOW IS CALLED BY DEATH

Former Plain Clothes Officer of City Police Force Dies at Vancouver

A former member of the plain clothes department of the city police force, Ezra Carlow, passed away at Vancouver yesterday. Carlow served as a detective under Inspector George Perdue and Chief of Police John Langley, and was rated as one of the best men on the force.

For a number of years he was in charge of the fingerprint and identification departments, where he did good work. He left the local force in 1922 and went to Prince George, where he was chief of police for four years. Returning to Vancouver, he held the position of assistant manager of the Ice Delivery Company up to the time of his death.

Would Send Envoy To South America

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—Canada should accredit one minister to serve the three Republics of Brazil, Argentina and Chile, that minister to have commercial attaches at the capital of each of those countries, declared Senator Raoul Dandurand, Liberal leader in the Upper House, during a discussion tonight on the accomplishments of the trade mission to South America this Spring.

Senator Dandurand also foresaw that in a few years, when China had become more stabilized, Canada would consider it to the advantage of the Dominion to have a minister at the capital of that Far Eastern Republic.

South America and the Orient were the two great potential markets of Canada. This country should cultivate them, he said.

✣ Eminent Specialists ✣ Find Yeast has Remarkable Effect ✣ Eat it daily! ✣

X-RAYS SHOW remarkable effect of eating fresh yeast. Above, typical case of Intestinal Fatigue. Note unclean condition of intestine. Below, same intestine kept active and clean by yeast method.

EAT FRESH YEAST just plain, or dissolved in a third of a glass of water, or any way you prefer.

LOOK at the picture above, in the center. It shows two actual X-ray photographs of the human intestinal tract, retouched to make them easier to understand.

Begin by examining the X-ray at the top. It reveals a bodily condition in serious need of treatment. It shows the retention of masses of undigested food waste in the intestine.

Can't you imagine what happens when this trouble is neglected? Putrefaction sets in. Poisons seep into your system, to cause headaches, complexion troubles, loss of energy, etc.

Now look at the other X-ray. It shows the very same intestinal tract after adding fresh yeast to the regular diet!

Note the difference. Note how contaminating particles of food residue have been cleared away, allowing undigested matter to pass through the intestine easily and regularly.

Read how you can actually strengthen the weakened muscles of your INTESTINAL TRACT . . . keep POISONS from seeping into your system

Why does yeast have this remarkable effect? Here is the answer, in the words of the great French intestinal specialist, Dr. Maurice Delort.

"The countless living yeast cells or plants," explains Dr. Delort, ". . . soften the contents of the intestine. They also actually strengthen the intestinal muscles, so that eventually they function normally, unaided.

"When intestines are kept clean and active this way, quantities of poisons no longer flood the system. 'Acid stomach' is corrected. Headaches and colds occur less often. The whole bodily level of resistance is raised."

So why go on dosing yourself with cathartics and pills? Turn to Fleischmann's Yeast. Correct Intestinal Fatigue with this natural food.

Just eat three cakes a day, before meals, or between meals and at bedtime. Rich in vitamins B, G and D. At grocers', restaurants, drug stores, soda fountains. Start today!

Fascists and Communists Win Oldenburg Elections

By OTTO BROK

BERLIN, May 19.—The elections in the Federal State of Oldenburg impressively demonstrated that the National Socialist tide is not yet stopped, as believed by many liberal-minded Germans. Such hopes, which were based on the revolt of a few North German party leaders against Adolf Hitler, were doomed to cause severe disappointment, as they attached too much value to personal rivalries within the party. But such things are only minor events for the movement that lives on the economic distress of the German middle class.

Undoubtedly the Oldenburg elections furnished another proof for the simple fact that only better economic conditions can drive back the National Socialist tide. Roughly speaking, yesterday's elections followed the trend of September 14. All the middle parties, with the exception of the Catholic Centre party, suffered heavy losses, and only the National Socialists and the Communists polled a considerably larger vote.

The Hitlerites increased their strength from 76,000 to 98,000 and the Communists from 14,000 to 19,000. This does not mean exactly the defeat of Chancellor Heinrich Bruening—the Bruening bloc still retains a small majority—yet it is certainly disappointing for the Federal Government, which expected some sort of recognition from the agricultural State of Oldenburg for all that the Reich has done for it in the way of farm relief.

WHEN PRICE COUNTS

"FORWARD WITH CANADA"
The Dominion Rubber Company is proud to be in step with this progressive movement.
W. A. Eden, President.

WHEN price counts—there is no need to buy cheap, cut-price tires which are not backed and serviced by a reputable company. Buy the Dominion Endurance — made, sold and serviced by Canada's oldest rubber organization, with dealers everywhere!

The Dominion Endurance is a low-priced tire—although it is built of materials that are of typical Dominion standards of quality, and that give extra wear.

If you want to keep your tire investment to an absolute minimum, buy the Endurance —it is the finest tire that can be made to sell at its very low price.

Dominion dealers will sell you Dominion Tires and Inner Tubes and give you good service when you want it. When you buy, buy Dominion quality.

NEW ELECTRIC RATES OFFERED

Nanaimo Company Submits Proposals on Condition of Street Lighting Contract

NANAIMO, May 19.—At the meeting of the Nanaimo Council held here last night, a letter was received from E. W. Bowness, manager of the Electric Light, Power & Heating Co., offering a new schedule of rates on condition that the city accept, within a reasonable period, a five-year street lighting contract.

The letter pointed out that the proposed street lighting contract involves the rebuilding of the street lighting and distributing system by the company at an estimated cost of $10,000, and it also involves the use of increased candlepower by the city at an increased cost to the city of approximately $1,500 per year, the average rate per candlepower under the proposed new contract being less than under the old contract.

The reduction in domestic rates would, the letter states, mean a saving to the consumers of approximately $8,000 a year; the reduction in the combination schedule would effect a saving of $150 a year, the reduction in the power schedule a saving of $5,000 per year, and the proposed reduction in commercial lighting would effect a saving of approximately $7,000 per year.

The deputy minister of marine wrote stating the Canadian Pacific Railway Company had made application for land for construction of a wharf, and asking if the City Council had any objections to offer. On motion, the Department of Marine will be notified the city has no objections.

Recommendations were received by the council from the jury which inquired into the death of Alphonse Clarck, which took place by the fire hall, and requested that the council have signs and crossing zones erected at that intersection. The recommendations were handed to the streets committee to report upon.

Frank L. Reynolds, secretary of the Empire Day Celebration, invited the Mayor and council to take part in the parade on May 25, also requesting the fire department to take part as in previous years. On motion, both requests will be complied with.

Dan Kirkbride, secretary of the unemployed committee, sent in three resolutions passed at a meeting held recently.

WOULD REVERT TO OLD SYSTEM

Ward Seven, Saanich, Favors Collection of Water Bills by Meter Reader

Voicing condemnation of the present system whereby ratepayers are to mail payment for their water bill to the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak, members of Saanich Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, at a special meeting at the Tillicum School, last night, passed a resolution calling on the Saanich Council to revert to the old method of collecting water rates in the municipality. The resolution received the unanimous endorsement of the meeting and will be forwarded to the council for consideration at its next meeting.

SUPPORTS SYSTEM

Ex-Councillor Eden, who was a sitting member of the Saanich Municipal Board when the new system was introduced, reiterated his arguments in favor of the scheme, which he stated, was instituted at the suggestion of the auditors.

Previously the water meter reader would collect the fee after reading the meter, but about July, 1930, this system was abolished and all bills are now to be paid at Royal Oak.

While the meeting favored going back to the old system, it suggested an alternative, the erection of an office in close proximity to Ward Seven, where the ratepayers could pay their bills.

Councillor D. Hoare, of Ward Two, speaking on the question of water bills, informed the meeting that his ward, at its meeting last week, passed a resolution calling on the council to revert back to the old system.

PARK DISCUSSED

Considerable discussion on the matter of soccer and softball teams practising on Hampton Road Park on Sunday morning was indulged in, following which the meeting passed a resolution calling for the park to be thrown open all week. This motion will be sent to the parks board for its consideration and action.

In a brief address, Councillor Rogers, of Ward Seven, told the ratepayers that the municipality was doing the best it could in the matter of unemployment with the money and facilities it had at its disposal.

City & District

They will leave for up the Coast, making calls for supplies as required.

DR. A. E. WEBSTER HEADS DENTISTS

Dr. A. E. Webster was last night elected president of the Victoria Dental Society at a meeting held in the study clubroom of the Sayward Building. Dr. Alan Fraser was chosen president-elect; Dr. William Russell, secretary, and Dr. E. S. Fowles, treasurer. The executive committee consists of Drs. H. J. Henderson, E. W. Hetherington and W. J. Gibson.

Following the business session and the election of officers, J. C. Bowie, of Vancouver, gave an excellent illustrated lecture on "Prosthetic Restorations."

An expression of sympathy was passed to the family of the late Dr. George Haynes, who for many years had been a valued member of the society.

Just Roamin' Around

By TWO ROVERS

Rover wants to know why that golf ball he swallowed when out at the North Saanich Golf Club the other day so entirely disagreed with him; so I am going to tell you how its chief ingredient is obtained, and then that will be the end of the rubber as far as we are concerned.

A Scotsman named Mackintosh, whose name has become a household word, after rubber and its uses became known to Europeans, made the first successful attempt to use it in converting cloth material into waterproof; but there was always the trouble that the rubber was sticky when warm, and brittle when cold.

It was not till 1839 that a New England hardware merchant, who characteristically went broke in experimenting with it, at the end of ten years found by accident that rubber, if mixed with sulphur, becomes after heating springy and resilient, and that the stickiness has disappeared.

This man was Charles Goodyear. The new treatment of crude rubber was called vulcanization. After several lawsuits he obtained recognition for this very important discovery and became deservedly wealthy. When we remember that there are some 35,000 different articles of daily use made from rubber, and useful only because of this accidental discovery of vulcanization, we should be trebly grateful to the good year that was the natal year of Charles Goodyear.

"Rover!" said I, "there are some 610,000 long tons of rubber used annually!" "Where do they come from?" Rover asked, "and what becomes of the short tons, Master?"

Until 1885, the world's supply came from wild forest trees and vines, mostly from Brazil or the Congo, but the supply varied and was never certain. The late Sir Henry Wickham had an idea that the trees could be grown in orchards and the supply regulated and augmented. In 1876 he collected Para rubber tree seeds and transported them to Kew Gardens. Many seeds died in transit, but some germinated. Later seeds were sent to the Botanical Gardens in Ceylon and began to yield rubber in four years. From that humble start sprang the rubber plantations of the Far East, the output today exceeding 600,000 tons, while wild rubber amounts to about one-twentieth of the total annual supply.

The seeds are germinated in seed beds, transplanted in rows, and in four years are grown-up enough to earn their own livings, being, in this particular alone, far ahead of our own species, many of whom, even when grown or dragged up to twenty-one or more years, are incapable of providing for themselves or of stretching a point to provide for others, too.

To collect the white milky fluid later, all one has to do is to wound the bark. "That's cruelty to animals, Master, and I won't stand for it!" yelped Rover, but I paid no attention to his bark for the moment. Rough and ready methods were first used, and it was some years before a proper and adequate method was evolved that would not injure the young trees. A gutter-shaped cut, one-third to one-half way round the tree, slantwise, at an angle of 30 degrees, is the best, as far as, but not through, the living layer inside the bark. The latex runs down and is collected in a cup. This is called tapping.

The collected latex is poured into tanks and acetic acid is added. During the next twelve hours this becomes jelly, much as milk sours and clots. The rubber clot is squeezed in a mill and compressed into sheets, and then dried. Later we use it to erase a word misspelled in our daily records of what we see and don't see whilst roamin' around.

"You are doing your bit to help keep up the demand," said Rover. And I guess he is pretty well right.

We all say things we shouldn't say;
Or lose the path and go astray;
Or miss some treasure left behind;
Or write a something not quite kind.
Each daily error we'd erase,
Could we but mistake-rubber raise!

Dr. W. J. Sipprell Gives Entertaining and Instructive Address on Holy City

Bringing trained observation and an enlightened knowledge from personal experience to bear on his subject, Dr. W. J. Sipprell, as guest speaker before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon in the Empress Hotel ballroom, delivered a most instructive address on "The Jerusalem of Today." The speaker paid tribute to the contribution of the British in Palestine and told of the age-old conflicts of religion and race that still embitter scenes famous from Biblical times.

Dr. Sipprell told of the first view of Jerusalem caught from the Mount of Olives, of the old and the new cities of Jerusalem with their garish contrasts, the one shading off into the other. In the Holy City he had visited the Church of the Holy Sepulchre with its sacred memories and hallowed as the supposed site of the crucifixion. It had been strange, he thought, to see five contrasting creeds at worship under the same roof and chanting their ritual in several different tongues.

FAMOUS WAILING WALL

Not far away from this famous shrine, which is seen by all tourists, stands the wall about the ancient city itself, including the portion known as the "Wailing Wall," where Jews foregather to bewail their exclusion from the "Holy of Holies." Still further down the narrow stoned passages of the native city and bordering on the plain below is the Mosque of Omar, the Mosque of the Rock, here the footprint of the prophet is solemnly shown to Christian visitors by the Moslem guides.

Beyond the walled town lay the road to Bethlehem, on which one passed the Garden of Gethsemane and other places of Biblical significance. The famous Church of the Nativity is at Bethlehem, and owing to the ever-present danger of its destruction by warring bands is constantly guarded against possible molestation.

Dr. Sipprell touched briefly on the course of the Crusades, which had left their marks on Palestine and Syria, and told of the significance of the Tenth Crusade, that headed by General Allenby in the late war. There was abundant evidence that the old, old conflict of race and creed between the Jew and the Moslem had not been stilled and only the presence of the British in the land had made possible the vast improvements effected through Palestine in recent years.

The walled city of Jerusalem he characterized as the most religious place in the world with the least religion in it. It was a city of amazing contrasts with through it all something of the utter simplicity of Biblical scenes projected into modern times.

THE NEW JERUSALEM

The new Jerusalem was a modern city in the true sense of the word. There were up-to-date hospitals, with skilled doctors and nurses, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A. and other such large institutions contributing to the social and public well being, as well as beautiful modern buildings of a public character with large open squares and spaces. Contrasted against the slum conditions and squalor of the streets in the older city, the new Jerusalem was a most inviting place which one could want to revisit.

At the conclusion of his address Dr. Sipprell was warmly thanked, the vote of thanks voiced so ably by Mrs. A. S. Christie being conveyed to the speaker by the president, Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, who occupied the chair.

Miss Eileen Bennett, singing "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," by Saint Saens, and as an encore Massenet's "Elegy," contributed much to the enjoyment of the audience. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. G. Deaville.

Master Hugh McKinnon, eight years old, was introduced to the members by Mrs. Scurrah as the winner of the Women's Canadian Club cup awarded at the recent musical festival here to the boy or girl gaining the highest marks in any class under thirteen years of age. By request he gave two popular recitations, "What Might Have Been," by Frederick Weatherley, and "The Duel," from Eugene Field.

Now A NEW ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR
to be made in CANADA
—a product of Canadian capital, materials and labor and embodying a NEW, SIMPLIFIED PRINCIPLE

ENTIRELY CANADIAN

The Norge—a new achievement in the science of electric refrigeration—brings to Canada the benefits of advanced research, and an important new industry. The patents and rights to manufacture the Norge in Canada have been bought outright by a purely Canadian company, having no financial connections outside the Dominion. The same group of men who have made De Forest Crosley radio synonymous with high quality and trustworthiness throughout Canada will be responsible for Norge. In men, money and materials, Norge will be entirely Canadian.

LARGEST REFRIGERATION PLANT IN THE EMPIRE

The Norge factory in Toronto will be the largest refrigeration plant in the British Empire. It will be equipped for production by scientific methods and on a large scale. Modern plant management and operation will maintain a high standard of quality and at the same time effect economies enabling the Norge to be kept at a low price level.

NINE YEARS OF EXPERIMENT

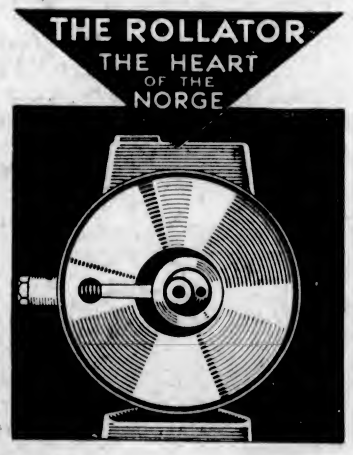

Nine years of experiment have perfected the Norge. The rotary compressor, long sought as the ideal mechanism by refrigeration engineers, has been made practical and trouble-proof in the Norge Rollator. The compressor is the basic part in all electric refrigerators. The Norge Rollator is distinctive and different. It has but three moving parts revolving in a permanent bath of oil, which makes it trouble-proof, silent and practically everlasting.

COST LOW—VALUE HIGH—BECAUSE OF SIMPLICITY

The simplicity of the Norge mechanism makes it possible to maintain a high standard of construction throughout, and to add many features and refinements, without increasing the cost. This is the outstanding contribution that Norge makes to the development of improved electric refrigeration.

IT PAYS FOR ITSELF

Any Norge model may be purchased for a small down payment and the balance spread over one or two years in small weekly or monthly payments to suit your convenience. But actually the Norge costs you nothing, because it pays for itself. What it saves you in ice cost, in spoiled food, in unnecessary trouble and labor, will more than take care of the small payments—and it will go on saving you money long after it has paid for itself. You are probably paying for a Norge now in all these ways—why not OWN it?

The compressor mechanism is an essential part of every electric refrigerator. The Norge Rollator compressor introduces a new simplicity which makes this vital part practically everlasting. Just a roller revolving in a permanent bath of oil—no pistons, valves or frail parts to go wrong—simplicity, sturdiness and precision combined.

A 3 YEAR GUARANTEE—OF COURSE

The Norge is backed by a 3-year guarantee. We do not anticipate that your Norge will require any replacements or attention. But we do not wish you to take our word for it. The Norge guarantee is an assurance that you will find in the Norge a type of electrical refrigeration which represents greater value, real freedom from operating trouble and a new standard of convenience, service and economy.

OUR PLEDGE OF QUALITY

The Norge Corporation of Canada Limited pledges itself to maintain the highest standard of quality in its products—to offer to the public an electric Refrigerator which in every respect measures up to the picture of it which we have here presented, and that truly embodies the most significant advance in electrical refrigeration made in recent years.

C.G.I.T. Council

A short meeting of the Victoria C.G.I.T. Leaders' Council was held in the Y.W.C.A. on Monday evening, with the president, Mrs. H. Nixon, in the chair. Plans were made for the girls' Summer camp to be held at Maple Lawn, Sooke, from July 27 to August 6, instead of July 17-27, as previously announced, the date having been changed in order not to conflict with the Jubilee celebrations; and the following committees appointed: Promotion, Misses G. Beall, O. Heritage and W. Urquhart; programme, Mrs. H. Nixon, Mrs. A. J. Daniels, Misses J. Menzies and J. Smith. Registrations for camp are to be left with Miss McLeod at the Y.W.C.A. as soon as possible. Miss Clara E. Maxwell, of Vancouver, has been invited to direct the camp, and will be assisted by experienced group leaders. Two new leaders from Esquimalt and Victoria West were welcomed to the council. The next leaders' meeting will be held June 24, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Y.W.C.A.

Wilkinson Road W.M.S.

The regular meeting of the Wilkinson Road W.M.S. was held Tuesday, in the schoolroom, Mrs. Massey, convener of the May programme committee, was in the chair. The meeting opened by singing, followed by the devotional period, which was taken by Mrs. Gannson. A very interesting talk was given by Rev. J. C. Switzer, on "Religion in Japan," and Mrs. Jewell gave a synopsis of the second chapter of the study book. The secretaries and watch tower heralds gave reports, and at the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

ROYAL OAK

The monthly meeting of the Royal Oak Women's Institute was held recently, when Mrs. Robson, of Vimy, president of the district board, addressed the ladies. There was a good attendance of members and visiting institute members from Strawberry Vale and Esquimalt. Arrangements were made for a visit to the Solarium on Wednesday, May 20, but owing to the ferry being off the run this week, the trip has been postponed. On Friday, June 5, an entertainment will be given by the Electra Dramatic Society. Arrangements were unanimously approved for old-time dancing to be taught in dancing classes, and on Friday evening, May 22, an old-time dance will take place in the Community Hall. A cheque from the Horticultural Society for the sum of $10 was received as the prize for winning the silver cup three years in succession at the Spring bulb show. Mrs. Grieve and Mrs. Wilkinson were tea hostesses, and a social time followed the business session.

LANGFORD

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday, May 26, at 2:30 p.m. at Cherry Bank, the home of Mrs. A. Moir, Langford Lake. Miss Doris Ashdown will talk on life insurance as an investment, and its application to the needs of the modern home and family, also educational contracts and annuities, etc.

MIMES AND MASQUERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Dr. P. M. Barr was last night elected president of the Mimes and Masquers' Guild at their second annual meeting. Fraser Lister was chosen vice-president, and other officers for the ensuing year include Harry Dee, secretary; Hugh Creelman, treasurer; Miss A. Bradshaw, assistant secretary; A. Bailey and H. S. Hurn, wardens.

Reports of the retiring officers were given and showed the guild to be in good condition in all ways. Past President Ira Dilworth and his associates were given a hearty vote of thanks for their work during the past year.

Suffered With Breaking Out a Year. Healed by Cuticura.
"For a year or more I suffered with a breaking out on my forehead. It started with a rash but kept getting worse until my forehead was covered with small, red pimples. The irritation was so severe that I used to scratch at night and my forehead was disfigured very badly. The trouble was so severe that I lost many nights' sleep.
"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample of each. I purchased more and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Olive Casman, 9633-109 A Ave., Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 15, 1930.

Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

Many friends and relatives attended the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Horne's golden wedding, which was held at their residence, 3524 West Twenty-second Avenue, Vancouver, on Sunday. Mr. Horne is a son of the late A. G. Horne, a pioneer of this province, who in 1850 came to Victoria, where he had charge of the prospecting for coal at Suquash, and was second in command at Nanaimo and factor of the Hudson's Bay Company at Port Simpson and Comox. He was the first white man to cross Vancouver Island, and the discoverer of Horne Lake. Mrs. Horne was a sister of the late Mark Bate, pioneer mayor of Nanaimo. The present Mrs. Horne is a daughter of the late Harry Cooper, who brought out the first locomotives for the Vancouver Coal Company at Nanaimo in 1862. She was born in England in 1859, and in September, 1863, left with her family on a sailing ship, and after a very rough voyage around Cape Horn, landed in March, 1864. She then went to Nanaimo. Mr. Horne was borne in Nanaimo in 1859, was Dominion Government agent in 1883, and in 1890 was appointed postmaster in that city, which position he held until he retired in 1928. Mr. and Mrs. Horne were married in Nanaimo on May 17, 1881, and made their residence there until 1928, when they moved to Vancouver. They have four daughters, Mrs. J. W. Heaps, Mrs. W. A. Owen and Mrs. W. B. Hetherington, of Vancouver, and Mrs. J. Mulroney, of Bloedel, B.C.; two sons, Mr. Harry Horne and Mr. Basil Horne, who reside in Vancouver, and there are eleven grandchildren.

NANAIMO WOMEN'S COUNCIL MEETS

NANAIMO, May 19.—In the Canadian Legion Hall last evening, with Mrs. L. M. Voltkevic presiding, the regular meeting of the Nanaimo Council of Women was held. The president was elected a delegate to the Provincial Council convention to be held in North Vancouver on Wednesday. An effort will be made during the Summer months to raise a sufficient sum to send a large representation to the next provincial convention in September. Seven societies were represented at the local meeting. Votes of thanks were passed to Mrs. Charles Trawford for the use of her home for a recent successful bridge, to the merchants who donated prizes, and the committee in charge. The next meeting will take place at a private home, to adjourn for the Summer months, and after the business session a social eveint will be held to raise funds.

The programme will include selections by the Victoria Girls' Band; choruses by Cedar Hill School choir, under the direction of Miss M. Chandler; recitation by Mrs. Crowther; solos by Edith and Lillian Williams; violin selections by Mabel Ensley and comic entertainment by Messrs. Obee and Brown.

TURKISH GOV'T SELLS VALUABLE HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS IN ERROR

ISTANBUL, Turkey, May 19 (AP).—Turkey is dickering with a waste paper company in Bulgaria to buy back two hundred bales of old papers, which turned out to be a million dollars worth of documents, constituting Turkey's ancient history.

The stuff was sent to Bulgaria on a ship which carried as a passenger a member of the Turkish Historical Commission. Accidentally he discovered in a bale that had burst, documents dealing with the Ottoman conquest of Central Europe. The other bales contained similar papers, sold in mistake by the Federal Treasury.

"ARRIVAL OF KITTY" AT SHRINE ON FRIDAY

"The Arrival of Kitty," which is to be staged in the Shrine Auditorium on Friday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, is said to be funnier than "Charley's Aunt." It has been played successfully on the professional stage over 2,000 times and over 5,000 times by amateurs.

Friday evening's performance is under the able direction of Mrs. Nixon. The proceeds will be in aid of the Orange Home for Children.

Musical Arts Society Had Successful Year

Mrs. J. O. Cameron, President, Acknowledges Generous Assistance of Local Artists Throughout Year in Address—New Directors Appointed

Attended by a large membership representation, the first annual meeting of the Victoria Musical Arts Society was held on Monday evening in the Shrine Auditorium, with the president, Mrs. J. O. Cameron, occupying the chair.

Reports presented showed that the society had finished its first year of organization most satisfactorily, with a total membership of 492, including 323 senior members and sixty-four juvenile members, a balance in the bank of $951.84, and the record of a splendid series of programmes.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

"It will not be possible at any time to give two programmes a month of the high order of those we have had this year, with a membership of 500 and a fee of only $2 each, unless the local artists generously continue to donate their services as they have done throughout the year," stated Mrs. J. O. Cameron in her address.

"Is it fair," she continued, "that a few should give unstintingly of their time and talent to enable the many to enjoy result at the small fee of $2, with a wonderful recital like that of Sunday's thrown in? This is a matter well worth considering."

Mrs. Cameron, after noting that the Victoria Musical Society is unique in its makeup, and the only one operating along its lines in this part of the world, recalled its rise, phoenix-like, from the ashes of the Ladies' Musical Club. She paid tribute to that defunct society for its pioneer work in musical accomplishment in Victoria in encouraging young musical talent, and also in bringing great artists to this city, but expressed the belief that the success of the new society in the first year of its existence had proved clearly that those who were concerned in the dissolution of the old organization and the formation of the new had been justified in their action.

"When we organized the Musical Art Society we took over two assets of the Ladies' Musical Club. The balance of $740 has been held in trust, as it were, and through the generosity of our local artists we have been able to finance the society without drawing on the amount we inherited. The other asset, the junior club, organized in 1929, has continued to grow and flourish, and the juvenile club, while organized last Fall by this society, was in process of being organized by the Ladies' Musical Club a year ago last Spring," continued Mrs. Cameron.

OFFICERS THANKED

The president acknowledged the very generous assistance given to her by Mrs. Walter McMicking, whose place Mrs. Cameron took on the organization of the new society, and paid tribute to the artists whose generous contribution of time and talent had made the first year so great a success. She thanked the various officers and conveners, including Mrs. T. H. Johns, the indefatigable secretary; the press committee, L. G. Burdon-Murphy and Stanley Bulley and the press; Miss Owen Harper, the "careful and conscientious treasurer"; Mrs. W. A. Jameson, who convened the programmes for the year; Mrs. Marion McGovern and Mrs. McMicking for their work on the juvenile branch; Mrs. Jameson, Miss Dumbleton and Miss Harper for their work in conjunction with the juniors; Mrs. Rose and F. King for looking after the printing, and Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Ira Dilworth and L. G. Burdon-Murphy for assistance in many ways.

At the close of her address, Mrs. F. G. Aldous, on behalf of the society, presented Mrs. Cameron with an exquisite basket of iris, delphinium and snapdragons in recognition of her able leadership.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Mrs. T. H. Johns gave a brilliant summary of the year's work in her report as secretary, covering the period of its organization, on July 5, 1930, with its twofold object, to advance music and the allied arts, and to create a scholarship fund. The major portion of the success of the undertaking during the past twelve months was due to Mrs. Cameron's able leadership and loyal interest, and to Mrs. W. A. Jameson, convener of programmes. The Musical Arts Society had been responsible for bringing to Victoria some splendid professional artists, not the least of whom were Mr. Harold Samuel and Mr. Plunket Greene on Sunday last.

The Orpheus Trio, from Vancouver, had given an impetus to the appreciation of chamber music; three delightful lecture recitals, on "Folk Music," by Comt Jean de Suzannet; "The Music of Shakespeare," by Mrs. Hayward; "The Beginning and Development of Music," by Mr. C. Jennings Burnett; an address by Ira Dilworth, the Christmas party at the home of the president, the joint meeting with the Women's Canadian Club in honoring Edna Jaques, the poet. "The Story of the Ballet," by Madame E. Sanderson-Mongin, and "Enoch Arden," by Mrs. Gideon Hicks, illustrated by Miss Beatrice Hicks with music by Strauss, were some of the delights of the year's programme, successfully accomplished and beautifully reviewed by Mrs. Johns, who, at the close of her report, was presented with a fountain pen.

ACTIVITIES OF JUNIORS

Miss Dumbleton reported for the juniors, summarizing briefly the very active and profitable season. With a large membership there has been a keen and practical interest, and a fine spirit of co-operation. Mrs. Cameron's fostering interest has done much for these younger members, who in the Autumn will be reorganized into older and younger divisions. Madame E. Sanderson-Mongin had given for the juniors, "The Origin of Pantomime." Mr. S. Bulley had also lectured for the juniors, and concerts and a dance had been successfully held by them. A challenge cup was presented to the Musical Festival, and a luncheon party was arranged and happily carried out for Sir H. Roberton, Mr. Plunket Green and Mr. H. Samuel, adjudicators for this year's festival.

Mrs. McGovern, as convener of the juveniles, gave a glowing account of the successes of the very young members, showing the benefits accruing to the children through their association in the Musical Arts Society.

Some constitutional amendments were voted on, and five new directors were duly elected to the executive committee and board of management, the personnel follows: Mr. Burdon-Murphy, Mr. Carson, Mrs. McGovern, Mrs. Rose, Mr. Wickett. The members of the voting committee were thanked by Mrs. Cameron.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAMME

A short and very charming musical programme was then presented. Miss Dorothy Hartree, L.A.B., though handicapped by a cold, sang Handel's recitative and aria, "Idle Pageants of Death" with beautiful clarity of diction; "The Sea Hath Its Pearls" (Bairstow) proved a song of special charm and sweetness, and "Bells of Claremont Town" (Godhart), was the third of her interesting group, giving a merry little touch to the more solemn presentations.

As an encore, Miss Hartree sang with rare sympathy, "Mary Mine," a plaintive litie song, the words and music by Mrs. J. O. Cameron, and which was received with much applause.

Miss Dorothy Morton, in piano solos, played Chopin's Impromptu in F Sharp Major, and "Polichinelle" (Rachmaninoff), with skillful execution and finish.

An Oriental curtain-raiser, arranged by Mme. de Turczynowicz and entitled "The Asra" (Rubinstein), presented T. H. Johns, soloist, as the story teller; Wanda de Turczynowicz as the princess, in a charming and graceful dance; Dorothy Parsons as the captive, and Charles Ozard as the tom-tom player. The scene was in a seraglio, and Dorothy Morton was at the piano. The setting was of Oriental splendor and the costumes brilliantly beautiful. Supper was served in the dining hall, and dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

RECEIVES TOKEN OF APPRECIATION

James S. Smith Is Presented With Purse of Gold by Postoffice Employees

James S. Smith, an employee of the Postoffice Department in Victoria since March 25, 1887, was honored yesterday afternoon when G. H. Gardiner, postmaster, presented him with a purse of gold on behalf of the department as a token of appreciation for his long and faithful service. Coupled with this was a six months' vacation with pay, dating from April 1 to September 30, after which Mr. Smith will be placed on the superannuation list.

Although Mr. Smith was actually signed as an employee of the department in 1887, prior to this he was a messenger boy for the postmaster at that time. In all Mr. Smith has worked under five postmasters in his time. For the last twenty-five years he has been employed in the directory department, and it is said that he knows more about this work in Victoria than any other man does of any other city in Canada.

X-RAY TREATMENT OF BOILS AND OTHER INFLAMMATIONS

It would seem that everybody at some time during their lives have had a boil or a carbuncle. It may be that it occurs but once during a lifetime, but anybody that has ever had one will admit that that is often enough, in fact too often.

There was formerly always some difference of opinion as to the opening of a boil or carbuncle as soon as it was discovered or really started. Some physicians were of the opinion that as soon as it was discovered it should be opened so as to give it a chance to drain out as early as possible, also to relieve the pressure which in turn was causing the pain.

Other physicians held just the opposite view in that the trouble, which was being walled off by the white corpuscles of the blood, would only be spread to a larger surface and likely to affect the glands in the vicinity if it were opened by the knife before it was "ripe" or ready. Most physicians wait until the boil is ready before opening it.

However, as boils and carbuncles cause considerable pain and inconvenience, various methods of trying to shorten their course have been tried, and it would seem that from all over the country now are coming reports of a new treatment that is very effective.

This method is the use of the X-ray for one or two short periods of a few minutes each time.

If the X-ray can be used in the early stages before there is any pus formation, it seems to give very satisfactory results in most cases. This treatment relieves pain and lessens the amount of inflammation so that very often they never go on to pus formation and heal up without even the sign of a scar.

And even where the boil has gone to the point of pus formation, the pain is relieved, there is less inflammation, and only a very small scar remains.

The treatment as stated above only takes about five minutes, and one treatment is usually sufficient.

The X-ray has been used for other inflammatory conditions; felons about the finger nails, abscesses, inflammation in the sinuses of the face, inflammation of the middle ear, inflammation of the glands, also in some forms of dental infection, including pyorrhoea.

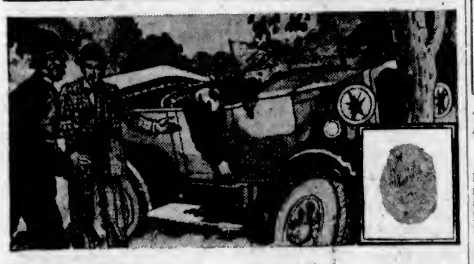

It is certainly gratifying to learn of this new form of treatment for these conditions; to know also that only a single short dose is usually required, and that no harmful results ever follow even when long treatments have been used.

MAINLAND VOTERS' LISTS ARE LARGER

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP).—Revision of the provincial voters' lists will add approximately 30,000 names to the Vancouver city list this year, it was stated today by A. P. Grant, deputy registrar. More than this number of new applications was received, but weeding out of duplications will bring additions to about the figure named and make the total of the city list approximately 60,000.

In South Vancouver electoral district new registrations numbered over 3,000, being 50 per cent more than in 1930, ad bringing total registration to approximately 9,300.

Poses as Stranger When His Victim is Found Dead

Finger Print Betrays Him

A man was seen running towards a motor car which had crashed into a tree in a park in London. He told the police he was hurrying to give assistance to a man in the car who later was found to be dead.

The police arrested him on suspicion. They took his finger prints. He was a well known automobile thief. Then the police searched the car for finger prints and found one on the driving wheel. It corresponded with the thief's. The dead man had been a victim of careless driving on the part of the crook, who was held without bail by a coroner's jury on a charge of manslaughter.

Thus are finger prints used to protect society and to bring arrest and conviction to criminals.

Your Danger Prints on Foods

You may be surprised to learn that your finger prints are just as dangerous to you—in another way. Not through crime because you are not a criminal—but through disease germs—many kinds of them.

Your fingers pick up germs all day long from things which other hands have touched. These other hands may have checked a cough or a sneeze and so become covered with germs. Then when you touch some article of food your fingers leave on it these germs which enter your mouth and so attack your system. Life Extension Institute has shown that germs of 27 diseases—some very deadly—may be passed around in this way—among them, "flu" and colds.

The Pleasant Way to Safety

These germs must be removed from your hands many times a day—and always before meals. Germs are stubborn things—they resist heat and cold—but one thing they cannot resist—and that is the germicide in Lifebuoy Soap.

Laboratory tests proved it killed even virulent germs when other soaps had no effect on them. Think what a service this is to find in a soap—especially how important for children who are even more thoughtless about what they touch than adults. Yet Lifebuoy is a pleasant—a delightful soap to use.

Brings Beauty Aid

With two fine palm oils as its base, Lifebuoy is also a beauty soap, its creamy, luxurious lather brings health and beauty to the complexion as well as safety from germs. Why not take advantage of both these important factors? Millions all over the world do, every day. You will note a refreshing scent of safety—not a perfume—in Lifebuoy, which vanishes soon after use.

For freedom from body odour trust to the refreshing Lifebuoy bath. For protection from germs—a great service—keep a cake of Lifebuoy always on the wash basin. Teach the children to wash regularly with Lifebuoy. It is the Health Soap for all the family. Get a supply from your dealer today.

The Difference Two Feathers Made

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

'Tis little things that often count,
And in the end to much amount.
—Old Mother Nature.

There is much of truth in that little saying. Things that seem mere trifles may completely change the course of events. There is no knowing what a seemingly small thing may amount to in the end.

Now the loss of a couple of feathers, even tail feathers, would seem to be a small matter, and ordinarily would be in the lives of the feathered folk. However, it wasn't so in the case of the handsome Flicker who was trying to win Mrs. Yellow Wing away from Yellow Wing. You know, Yellow Wing and his rival had been so intent on showing off before Mrs. Yellow Wing that they did not see Black Pussy stealing through the grass, and had it not been for the alarm given by Welcome Robin just in the nick of time, one of them or else Mrs. Yellow Wing certainly would have been caught. As it was, Black Pussy got two feathers. They were from the middle of the tail of Yellow Wing's rival.

"How ridiculous he looks," thought Mrs. Yellow Wing

There was at once a great outcry among the feathered folk of the Old Orchard and Black Pussy was glad to sneak away. When quiet once more reigned in the Old Orchard the danger was forgotten and Yellow Wing and his rival resumed their courting of Mrs. Yellow Wing.

Now, up to this time Mrs. Yellow Wing had been undecided in her own mind. This stranger certainly was a handsome fellow and he certainly did know how to show off. He was most polite and he had a very nice voice when he said soft nothings to Mrs. Yellow Wing.

When she had a chance to be by herself Mrs. Yellow Wing would sigh and say to herself: "I hadn't thought that there was anyone in the world like Yellow Wing, but I must confess this stranger is just as handsome. Sometimes I think he is handsomer. And he says such charming things. Then, too, he is younger, and that makes me feel younger. O dear, I really don't know what to do. I believe I am falling in love with him. I wonder what Yellow Wing would do without me. Probably he would soon get over it, find someone to take my place and forget all about me. This stranger has a way with him. He certainly has a way with him. I wish he were not quite so handsome, for really I am very fond of Yellow Wing."

This was before the adventure with Black Pussy. Afterward, when Yellow Wing and the stranger resumed their attentions to Mrs. Yellow Wing, resumed their nodding and bowing and efforts at dancing and showing off just as if nothing had happened, Mrs. Yellow Wing experienced a sudden and complete change of heart. The stranger put on just as many airs as before. He spread his wings and tail and nodded and bowed in his grandest manner, but his charm was gone. Yes, sir, his charm was gone. It went with those two tail feathers Black Pussy had pulled out. You see, now when he spread his tail, there, right in the middle, was a great gap. It was as if he had two tails, two small tails instead of one bigger one.

"How ridiculous he looks!" thought Mrs. Yellow Wing. "The idea of showing off such a looking tail as that! He should know better. He is absurd. That's what he is—absurd. Whatever did I see in him, I wonder. And he isn't as smart as Yellow Wing or he wouldn't have lost those feathers."

Of course, this wasn't quite fair on the part of Mrs. Yellow Wing, for it just happened that the rival was a bit nearer Black Pussy than was Yellow Wing. It was just his misfortune—that was all. However, Mrs. Yellow Wing didn't consider this. She turned her bright eyes on Yellow Wing. What a dear he was! How handsome and how very, very much in love! Her eyes softened. She nodded to him and moved over and touched him with her bill. Right then and there the stranger was completely forgotten by both Yellow Wing and Mrs. Yellow Wing, all on account of the loss of two feathers.

FIELD IN BRITISH AMATEUR GOLF REDUCED TO 32

Strong Crews Will Strive for Honors At Gorge Regatta

Brentwood College and J.B.A.A. to Send Formidable Squads of Oarsmen in Initial Meet of 1931 Season—Crews Released

With Brentwood College and J.B.A.A. oarsmen trained to a fine point, the curtain will go up in the initial regatta of the 1931 season Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Gorge. For the past month members of both crews have been training hard under the careful eyes of their coaches and many close finishes are expected to result.

Upholding the colors of the J.B.A.A. will be several youngsters who carried the blue and white shells to some fine victories last year in the various regattas. Coach Dan O'Sullivan and his assistant, Rex Askey, have had the local lads working out on the course at the Gorge practically every evening for the past fortnight and report their understudies are in the pink of condition and ready to give their best against the Collegians.

BRENTWOOD STRONG

Brentwood are sending in four formidable crews and are confident of returning with the lion's share of the laureis. Last season the Collegians showed up well against local and outside oarsmen.

On Friday evening two J.B.A.A. novice fours will meet at the Gorge and the winning crew will represent the club against Brentwood. B. Tobin, E. Knight, P. J. Vaucher, W. Duncalfe and Douglas McIntyre will comprise one crew, while J. Middleton, Pat Dunn, R. Sewell and Dave Hunter will be the second squad.

In the evening, commencing at 9:30 o'clock, a dance will be held in the clubrooms with the visiting oarsmen as guests. Officials for the regatta follow: Dan O'Sullivan, starter; A. H. Cox, referee; J. T. Mann, clerk; T. D. Roberts, judge; Ken Hughes, Charles Mallandaine, stewards; Charlie Walls, announcer; Jack Wing, Daniel Moses, Rex Askey, crew hustlers.

THE CREWS

Novice singles—Brentwood, T. F. Coulhurst, vs. J.B.A.A., Arthur Eagle.

J.B.A.A. 140-pound club fours—F. Cole, A. Jones, A. Mann and R. Wratten vs. G. Scott, A. Webster, S. Smith and W. Stancil.

J.B.A.A. 140-pound doubles—A. Webster and W. Stancil vs. G. Scott and A. MacLachlan.

Senior fours—Brentwood, D. R. Wilson, R. E. Malkin, R. L. Mayhew, J. T. Sharp and Cox D. B. Elmore, vs. Rex Askey, Noel Jones, Len Backler, Jack Dunn and Cox Douglas McIntyre.

FRENCH NET MEET MARRED BY WEATHER

SOUTH AFRICA PAIR DOUBLES WINNERS

AUTEUIL, France, May 19.—Rain again disrupted the French hard court tennis championships today, forcing postponement of ten matches.

The few thrills in the abbreviated day were provided by Dr. Heinrich Kleinschroth, veteran of the German Davis Cup team, who played in prewar style with a newcomer, I. Von Kramm, against the Frenchmen, Leseur and Rene de Buselet, winning, 1-6, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 8-6.

P. D. B. Spence and Louis Raymond, of South Africa, defeated Jean Gerbault and Pierre Albartan, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3. Borotra and Boussus played through the storm to eliminate Paul Joba and Marcel Bernard, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

George Lott and John Van Ryn, United States, defeated the French team of Louis Leven and Jean Augustin, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1.

BRENTWOOD XI TO MEET BAYS

Undefeated Wednesday Cricket Leaders Will Clash With Hudson's Bay

Brentwood College will be out this afternoon bent on continuing their undefeated march towards the first half championship of the Wednesday Cricket League at the expense of the Hudson's Bay eleven at the Beacon Hill pitch at 2:30 o'clock. In a second fixture, Five C's will battle Saanich at the Hampton Road grounds at the same hour.

The collegians are undisputed leaders with two straight victories, while Hudson's Bay and the churchmen are tied for second berth with one win and a loss, while Saanich are in the cellar with two straight reverses.

Peden Cup Final Carded Saturday At Beacon Hill

JOKERS and Victoria West senior soccer elevens will meet in the Peden Cup final Saturday afternoon at Beacon Hill Park at 3 o'clock. With both squads fielding their strongest line-ups, a great battle is expected. The Jokers reached the last bracket last week when Victoria City defaulted. The greenshirts eliminated Duncan some time ago and hope to halt the winning streak of their opponents.

SIMMONS WIDENS LEAD IN BIG SIX

Athletics' Slugger Lifts Mark to .446—Rogers Hornsby Loses Much Ground

(Associated Press)

Still paced by Al Simmons, the Big Six batting race in the major league continued yesterday with one change in the line-up.

Red Worthington skidded clear out of the National League leaders. Ernie Orsatti, who hit once as a pinch hitter, went into second place in the circuit at .354, while Rogers Hornsby failed to connect three times and dropped 12 points, going to third at .345. Simmons slammed three hits in five times up and added 13 points to his already big batting mark. Babe Ruth hit two out of five and gained one point.

EVKO PINS JOE MALCEWICZ IN SEATTLE SHOW

SEATTLE, May 19 (AP).—John Evko, Chicago, was awarded one fall on a foul and threw Joe Malcewicz, Utica, N.Y., for another to take two out of three falls and win a wrestling exhibition here tonight. Evko weighed 220 and Malcewicz 190.

Evko was given a fall in the first round on a foul, after the referee ruled Malcewicz had used rabbit punches. Malcewicz evened the match with a backward body slam in the fourth, but Evko took the deciding tumble in the fifth with a body heave and a leg hold.

Bob Kruse, Portland, and Freddie Meyers, New York, heavyweights, went five rounds to a draw in the semi-final, each scoring a fall.

EXPLANATION FOR SUNDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

Antonio Magliabecchi Read 140,000 Books—Antonio Magliabecchi, bibliographer and great Italian erudite, 1633-1714, was the librarian of Duke Cosmo III of Florence. He was a man of such prodigious memory that it permitted him "to retain for a year every word he ever read." This "walking library" memorized the contents of every one of the Duke's 140,000 volumes and 10,000 manuscripts, as well as their location on the shelves. The sages of the world came to see and consult him.

Rudolph Wins Cue Match From Spot

Foam Will Take Jensen's Place On Rifle Squad

OTTAWA, May 19.—Substitution of Sergt. O. W. Foam, of the Black Watch of Canada, Montreal, for Pte. T. A. Jensen, of Innisfail, Alta., on the Canadian Bisley team was announced tonight. Private Jensen declined a place on the team because of illness.

THREE LOCAL RIDERS AFTER PROVINCE CUP

FIFTY WILL FACE STARTER TONIGHT

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Knights of the "Iron Steed" tilt for bicycle racing supremacy on the Lower Mainland tomorrow night in the thirteenth annual Province road race around Stanley Park. Fifty riders, not including mail entries, are now in the big event which gets away from the Georgia Street Causeway at 6:30. The riders, divided into five classes, make a complete circuit of the park and finish on the broad causeway, an ideal stretch for thrilling sprints. Class "A," the senior racing division, which usually manages to lift the Province Cup for the fastest time, has drawn nine contestants, three from Victoria. One of the Victoria boys is Lew Rush, Class "A" winner last year. He has yet to hold the Province Cup, however, as Syd Luck, a Class "B" contestant, made the fastest time in the 1930 event to carry off the trophy.

Syd Luck is racing in Class "A" tomorrow in defence of the cup, and is one of the favorites. Victoria has two other outstanding threats in Class "A," Donald Stewart and Glen Robbins being noteworthy speed merchants. These will have plenty of trouble, however, beating such Vancouver men as Leo Marchiori, B.C. sprint champion; Frank Elliott, Pacific Coast twenty-five-mile titleholder, and Morris Robinson, an up-and-coming youngster.

Buffalo Fighter Recovers From K.O.

TORONTO, May 19 (CP).—After being in a coma for nearly ten hours, Art Weigand, Buffalo heavyweight pugilist regained consciousness at St. Michael's Hospital this morning, and it was thought he would be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to return home.

Weigand was knocked out in the fifth round of a fight by Jack Renault, of Montreal, at the Arena last night, and after medical efforts to revive him had failed, was removed to the hospital, where it was found he had concussion of the brain.

Tillicums Will Battle Eagles In Senior Loop

TILLICUMS, who received a shellacking from the Elks Monday evening, will be out to regain first place in the Senior Amateur Baseball League race this evening when they stack up against the Eagles, cellar occupants, at the Royal Athletic Park at 6:15 o'clock. Manager Wes Stickney will go to the mound for the Tillicums with Dooley Deane behind the bat. Pat Cornwall will probably get the call from the Eagles' camp, with Jack Tanner as his battery mate.

CANADIANS READY FOR U.S. MATCH

Dominion Net Representatives All Set for Opening Tomorrow

AMERICAN SQUAD GETS IN PRACTICE

MONTREAL, May 19 (CP).—In perfect lawn tennis weather the Davis Cup teams of the United States and Canada continued their practising here today on the En-Tout-Cas courts on which the matches will be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

There was no strenuous tennis. Frank Shields and Sidney Wood strolled on the courts at noon and had some singles practice. In the afternoon Gregory Mangin and Cliff Sutter engaged in a singles battle which went to Sutter at 7-5, 9-7.

The Canadians' nonplaying captain, A. C. Dunlop, expressed himself as well pleased with the progress made. Twice during the day Dr. Jack Wright and Marcel Rainville had singles tussles. Gilbert Nunns and Charlie Leslie opposed Wright and Rainville in doubles. Finally Nunns and Leslie played a singles. No scores were taken.

ARMOUR SAILS FOR ENGLAND; TO PLAY IN BRITISH OPEN

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—Tommy Armour, P.G.A. and Canadian open champion, left aboard the Europa last night for Europe, where he will play in the British open golf championship at Carnoustie, starting June 1.

PIGEON RACING

The Victoria and District Racing Pigeon Society held a race over the week-end from Boston Bar, a distance of 132 miles. The birds were liberated in a dense fog and high west wind, resulting in a slow race. Two hundred birds took part and the winners follow:

Many Favorites Eliminated as List Dwindles

Samuel Roper, Dale Bourne, Robert Harris, Sir Harold Gillies, E. Fiddian and T. A. Torrance Among Those Defeated—Geo. Voigt Given Tough Battle by J. R. Abercrombie

CYRIL TOLLEY

WESTWARD HO, Devonshire, May 19 (CP).—George Voigt stands against the field as play narrowed down to the fourth round of the British amateur golf championship tonight. Out of fifteen United States and one German golfer who started play today, only Voigt remains. Voigt saved himself from elimination only by virtue of a pair of sensational putts on the sixteenth and seventeenth greens in his match with J. R. Abercrombie today. Only thirty-two remain of the nearly two hundred players who stepped up to the tee yesterday morning. And the list bristles with names of men who have long trodden the path of glory in English golf. Lurking here and there, too, are brilliant youngsters who are itching to place their name on the championship roll of fame.

Among the remaining players, for instance, is Lister Hartley, brilliant and young, who may give any one a run. Bernard Darwin, who has overthrown many famous foreigners in his time, is still in the running. Young Doug Fiddian might come to England's aid by opposing Voigt in the final, too. While Roger Wethered and Cyril Tolley, England's greatest threats, are held in reserve.

MANY STALWARTS FALL

But today's play left a sorry toll in its wake. Among the British stalwarts who failed in the second and third rounds were the international, J. B. Beddard, of South Staffordshire, victim of another clever artisan, Samuel Roper, Notts miner. Roper gave Bobby Jones a great battle in the same tournament last year. Dale Bourne, former native champion, also went down to defeat; the heart was taken out of him when Fiddian sank two long putts in the middle of their match.

Robert Harris, who won the championship when it was last played on this course in 1925, went down with a crash at the hands of the irresistible Tolley, 4 and 2. The latter, apparently impatient at inaction, had a few practice shots, his hands whitegloved, and then proceeded to demolish Harris, who had previously beaten the Scottish champion, Ken Grieg.

SOCCER STAR ADVANCES

Among other outstanding third-round results was that of the Corinthian soccer player, Morris, who beat A. McNair, of Renfrew, 2 and 1; William Tulloch, of Cathkin Braes, beat Sir Harold Gillies, 2 and 1; Alan MacBeth beat O. V. C. Moberly, of Werplesdon, on the nineteenth hole; John DeForest beat A. Wilson, 5 and 4; De Montmorency defeated Belway, of Hunstanton, 1 up; Bernard Darwin downed H. Shaw, of Timperly, 2 and 1; Roper beat A. Perch, Werplesdon, 3 and 1; and Stanley Lunt, of Mosely, beat Rex Hartley, 5 and 3; Rex Hartley defeated Douglas Grant, Winnipeg, 5 and 3.

The German player, John Dewiel, Hamburg, was eliminated in the third round.

Tolley, so far, has had a fairly easy time in advancing. He drew a bye in the first round, won by default in the second, and then walked all over Harris in the third. Tolley meets Lunt tomorrow.

WETHERED IN FORM

Roger Wethered was playing in fine form. His drives were beautiful smashes down the fairway, and his work on the greens was outstanding. Tonight he was established as one of the outstanding favorites for the final round. Wethered won his second round match from T. A. Torrance, 4 and 3.

Voigt downed Abercrombie after a strenuous battle. He was 1 up at the sixteenth, after winning the hole in a great putt, and the match ended on the next green, 2 and 1, when George sank his long putt for a birdie 4 to win the hole by a stroke.

The record margin so far was run up by Reginald Straker, of Waltonheath, in the second round against E. Watts, of the Royal Calcutta. Straker won by 8 and 6.

Eric Fiddian fell before Allan S. Newey, of Mosley, in the most startling upset of the day. It had been considered probable that Fiddian would meet Voigt if he maintained his form. He lost to Newey, 2 down

NEW ZEALAND DOWNS M.C.C. SIDE EASILY

Touring Cricketers Defeat Marylebone by Innings and 122 Runs

HAMMOND SCORES 168 RUNS, NOT OUT

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—The touring New Zealanders won their cricket match from the Marylebone Club at Lords today by an innings and 122 runs. New Zealand concluded their first innings today for 302 for nine wickets and declared. Two fine feats by the visitors bowlers explain the M.C.C.'s collapse. Cromb took six wickets for 46 runs in the M.C.C. first innings, which netted them 132 runs, and Merritt took seven wickets for only 28 runs in their second innings, which brought a trifling 48 runs.

A wonderful bowling performance by Root, the Worcestershire professional, brought about the collapse and defeat of the champion county, Lancashire, by 126 runs. Root today took nine wickets for 23 runs, to bring victory to Worcestershire. Scores were: Worcester, 169 and 117 (Dick Tyldesley, six wickets for 28 runs); Lancashire, 75 and 95. The match was played at Worcester.

Kent defeated Derbyshire by nine wickets at Derby. Watt, of the former team, took four wickets for five runs. Scores: Derby, 150 and 137 (Townsend, 51; Freeman, four wickets, 72); Kent, 170 and 119 for one wicket.

SURREY TRIMS HANTS

Surrey defeated Hampshire on the first innings at the Kennington oval, scores being: Surrey, 245 and 103 for two wickets declared; Hants, 127 for no wickets declared and 126 for five wickets (Mead, 56 not out).

Gloucestershire got the points for a first innings lead against Sussex. Gloucester scored 289 for five wickets, declared (Hammond, 168 not out), and Sussex 107 and 278 for three wickets (Bowley, 103, and Cook, 101 not out). The match was at Nottingham.

Nottinghamshire collected first-innings points from Northamptonshire. Notts made 302 for three wickets and declared (Walker, 102 not out; Carr, 140), and Northants 211 and 78 for two wickets. They played at Nottingham.

Leicestershire, who were ahead of Essex at Leicester on the first innings, got the bigger share of the points. Leicester scored 246 for eight wickets (Sharpe, 50; Astill, 64; Nichol, six wickets for 81 runs); and Essex, 245 for seven wickets declared.

The match between Cambridge University and Middlesex at Cambridge was left drawn. Scores: Cambridge, 239 and 87 runs for three wickets; Middlesex, 185 (Hendren, 56 not out; Fabian, five wickets for 36 runs).

PREAKNESS WINNER WILL BE TAKEN ON EUROPEAN CAMPAIGN

BALTIMORE, Md., May 19 (AP).—The News quotes George Ellis, rider of A. C. Bostwick's Mate in the Kentucky Derby, as saying the Preakness winner very likely will be shipped overseas for a campaign on European tracks.

Mate finished in third place in the Derby on Saturday, losing to Twenty Grand and Sweep All, but beat the Derby winner in the Preakness at Pimlico, May 9.

Lew Fonseca Will Report to Chicago

CHICAGO, May 19 (AP).—Feard that Lew Fonseca would balk at the trade which sent him from Cleveland to the White Sox in exchange for Willie Kamm were dispelled today when he wired Secretary Harry Graviner, of the White Sox, that he would arrive tonight.

Oak Bay High School Sports Carded Friday

Annual Track and Field Meet to Take Place at Cranmore Road Grounds—Dickson and School Cups Will Be at Stake

Track and field exponents of the Oak Bay High School will gather at the Cranmore Road grounds Friday afternoon to decide the senior and junior championships. With two coveted trophies at stake, keen competition is expected from the large field of youngsters who will face the starter.

The Dickson Cup, emblematic of the senior laurels, won last year by Bill Menzies, who graduated last term, will go to the student with the largest number of aggregate points, while the School Cup, the junior award, will also be open for competition, since last year's winner has left the school.

Mary Bryden, junior girls' champion, will be in the thick of the field with hopes of defending her honors. She will be the only titleholder who will be in the meet this year. As in previous years, the various races are expected to be of a sharp character.

The list of events follows:

Tug-of-war, teams to consist of any number of boys, maximum weight to be 1,000 pounds.

Boys are permitted to stand still on bicycles in the slow bicycle race. The last over the line wins.

Interyear relay race—Four boys to a team. Each entrant to run 110 yards.

Golf approach—Each boy is to take two approach shots. Each ball to be dropped over the shoulder of entrant.

No competitor may take more than three prizes.

The Dickson Cup is open to senior boys and the School Cup is open to junior boys. Points will be awarded on the results of events 1 to 14. Points will be: 1, three points; 2, two points, and 3, one point.

Buffalo Fighter Recovers From K.O.

TORONTO, May 19 (CP).—After being in a coma for nearly ten hours, Art Weigand, Buffalo heavyweight pugilist regained consciousness at St. Michael's Hospital this morning, and it was thought he would be sufficiently recovered tomorrow to return home.

Weigand was knocked out in the fifth round of a fight by Jack Renault, of Montreal, at the Arena last night, and after medical efforts to revive him had failed, was removed to the hospital, where it was found he had concussion of the brain.

Annual City School Sports to Be Held Friday Afternoon

Hundreds of Budding Track Experts to Strive for Honors at Willows—List of Entries and Officials Announced

With seventeen schools sending in their best talent to the track with hopes of capturing the major share of the laurels, some of the keenest competition in years is expected to be witnessed in the annual Victoria and District School Sports Association to be held Friday afternoon at the Willows at 2 o'clock.

As each year passes into history, the budding cinder-path artists from the various public schools continue to show remarkable form. They not only strive for individual honors, but to pile up points for their school, in an attempt to win the aggregate award.

Short events for the smaller boys and girls are listed on the large programme, while longer sprints are carded for the older students. Bicycle races and the tug-o'-war contest will also hold special interest

THE OFFICIALS

Members of the School Board, including George Jay, W. C. Moresby, K. Ferguson and V. Emery, will officiate as track judges, while J. Mackenzie, R. Mackay, and representatives from the different schools will act as upervisors of the competitors' enclosure.

Archie McKinnon, of the Y.M.C.A., will be starter, and will be assisted in his duties by W. H. Muncy, R. Kipling and Captain W. Brown. G. H. Bevan-Pritchard, A. T. Hunkin, A. C. Hinton and Miss M. Lee will judge the field events, while G. Brand and W. Johns will be recorders; W. H. Binns, D. S. Cameron, A. H. Marrion, W. Plenderleith and R. Goldfinch will be in charge of the grounds and track, while D. Margison, B. Hamilton, F. McNeill and C. Chatfield will take care of the prizes. J. M. Campbell and A. R. Campbell will form the reception committee, and Captain T. R. Wheadon will be marshal, with J. Ross as his assistant. J. A. Adam is in charge of programmes and entries, and A. J. Stevenson is doing the secretarial work.

Every competitor must be in time for his event or be disqualified. Heat winners must return to their school sections before running in finals, and winners of races must take their cards to the recorder.

The different schools for which the boys and girls will be running will be designated by the following letters:

To Appear on Boxing Card Friday

DAVE LEWIS

well-known local fighter, who will battle Billy Gerard, flashy Vancouver boxer, in the six-round semi-wind-up to the ten-round main event between Teddy Beales, Victoria, and Billy Shaw, Vancouver. Friday evening at the Variety Theatre. Lewis is on the comeback trail and is reported to be in the pink of condition for his Mainland opponent. He journeyed to Fort Angeles a few weeks ago and took two United States opponents into camp after flashing some old-time form. Promoter Joe Bayley has lined up a fine card and a great crowd is expected to attend.

JOE TURNESA HEADS FIELD IN PRO GOLF

American Shatters Course Record in Leading Leeds Open Tourney

BRITISH RYDER CUP STAR NEXT

LEEDS, Eng., May 19 (AP)—Joe Turnesa turned in a record-breaking 69 for the Sand Moor course today to lead the qualifying field of 170 in the $5,000 Leeds professional tournament, but his co-players from the United States did not fare so well.

Tied behind Turnesa in second place were Bert Hodson, the well-known British professional, and Marco Churio, the Argentine, who played so well at Southport, with 70's. One stroke behind them were three other British pros, C. Saaner, G. Beck and W. H. Davies, the Ryder Cup player.

KIRKWOOD WELL UP

Joe Kirkwood, trick shot player fom New York, seemed safe enough with a 74, but Horton Smith and Tony Manero, with 76's, will have to do much better in the last eighteen holes of qualifying play tomorow if they are to jonn the select thirty-two in the tournament. Willie Hunter, the fifth American, with an 84, practically three-putted himself right out of the tournament.

Swarthy Turnesa, pro at Elmsford, N.Y., Golf Club, played sensationally to get his 69 for a new course record. He was out in 36, largely because of a trapped tee shot at the fourth, but came home in 33, the latter including three putts on the last green.

Jose Jurado, captain of the team of four players Argentina sent over to compete in the big tournaments in Great Britain and on the Continent, had a 73 today to finish well up with the leaders.

Western Canada Rugby Union to Meet Saturday

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Dr. Gordon Shrum, president of the British Columbia Canadian Rugby Union, will represent Coast Rugby interests at the conference to be held in Regina on Saturday, at which the differences of the Western Canada Rugby Union, the Western Intercollegiate Rugby Union and the British Columbia Rugby Union will be aired and some solution sought.

The executive of the British Columbia Rugby Union, which held a special meeting tonight, gave Dr. Shrum full powers to act for it at the Regina conclave, and take any steps he might deem necessary to gain better conditions for British Columbia. Dr. Shrum will leave for the Prairies on Thursday morning.

Second Favorite For Derby Badly Beaten at York

YORK, England, May 19 (AP).—Marshall Field's Derby candidate, Jacopo, second favorite for the Epsom Downs classic, was beaten eight lengths today in the Londesborough Plate by another Derby candidate, Dr. Doolittle.

The race was at one mile for a purse of $5,000.

A. Macomber's Bibby Burns won the Glasgow Handicap at a mile and a half from Mrs. Carruthers' Lion Heart. H. Collins' Clydesdale was third. Bobbie Burns paid ten to one in the fourteen-horse field.

YOUNG CORBETT AND GORILLA JONES TO MEET NEXT MONTH

OAKLAND, May 19 (AP).—Young Corbett, of Fresno, and Gorilla Jones, negro welterweight, of Akron, Ohio, were matched today for a ten-round bout here next month, thus completing a match that has been hanging fire for the last year.

A matter of half a pound held up the bout for the last ten days, Jones finally agreeing to weigh in at 148½ pounds. The negro previously had insisted on 149 pounds, with Corbett's handlers holding out for 148 pounds.

Victoria High Eliminations Keenly Fought

Midweek All-Stars To Meet Rest Today

Wednesday League all-stars will meet the Rest in a practice match this afternoon at Beacon Hill at 3 o'clock. The all-stars will play the City representatives in the final of the Anscomb Cup series Monday morning at the Royal Athletic Park at 10:30 o'clock.

GUS SONNENBERG WINS

BROCKTON, Mass., May 19 (AP).—Gus Sonnenberg, former claimant to the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, tonight defeated Lee Wykoff, of the University of St. Louis, two out of three falls. Sonnenberg took the first fall with a flying tackle in 24:25, and Wykoff won the second with an airplane whirl in 14:20. Sonnenberg took advantage of Wykoff's attempt to effect a body lift and pinned him for the final fall in 6:00.

Victoria Tug Gets Line on Schooner After Long Chase

Lottie Bennett, Bound for Chemainus for Lumber Cargo, Too Fast for Burrard Chief While Wind Held—Towed to Mill Town

When the four-masted sailing schooner Lottie Bennett left San Francisco on May 7 for Chemainus to load lumber for Tahiti in the South Seas and the news was broadcast to the shipping columns of Pacific Coast journals by wireless, towboat owners of Puget Sound and British Columbia ports had visions of making some easy money out of a tow, remembering the days when sailing ships were the rule and not the exception in the carrying of sea-borne commerce, and their skippers were always ready, if the price was right, to take advantage of a line from the first tug alongside.

It was reported that two United States tugs were awaiting for wireless advices of the vessel's approach to the Strait of Fuca; but, while they were evidently content to wait, the Island Tug & Barge Company just wanted the business and was determined to get it; for, besides the tow in, it would mean undoubtedly towing the ship to sea again after she completed loading cargo, and so the Burrard Chief, of the company's fleet, with Captain Newell in command, was sent out to the cape about the time the Lottie Bennett should be showing up, and with a bit of luck managed to get a line aboard her after a long chase.

Rounding Swiftsure Lightship at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the schooner was sighted shortly after by the Victoria tug, and she was immediately headed out to intercept the sailing craft. The Lottie Bennett was carrying all her canvas, and with a fair wind blowing and giving every promise of holding true until sundown at least, her skipper, Captain Harris, was not disposed to take a line, and so intimated to the Burrard Chief's skipper, who had to be content to follow in the wake of the sailing vessel, logging at times in the brisk breeze and following sea between ten and eleven knots, giving the Burrard Chief a stern chase for several hours. The tug managed to come up with the schooner some little distance west of Race Rocks, when, the wind softening, the line from the Burrard Chief was made fast aboard and the sails stowed as the ship was towed into William Head, which was reached at midnight.

Weighing anchor at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the Burrard Chief and her tow left the quarantine station and proceeded to Chemainus, reaching the latter port at 5 o'clock, after a remarkably fast run, the expectation being that it would be at least 8 o'clock before the mill town was reached. The Lottie Bennett will load with lumber, and is expected to be ready for sea in three weeks, when the Burrard Chief will take her to an offing outside Cape Flattery.

The Lottie Bennett, was formerly the French schooner Normandie. She has been engaged in carrying copra between South Sea ports and San Francisco, and has loaded lumbere on several occasions. She was built at Port Blakely in 1899. She is 171 feet long, 31 feet beam, depth 12 feet, and is registered 567 tons gross.

Seeking Halibut Eggs and Larvae With Silk Nets

KETCHIKAN, May 19 (AP).—Something new for halibut fishermen, who ordinarily work with the hardiest of materials, was introduced in the industry today when the schooner Dorothy, of the International Fisheries Commission, left for the banks with silk nets. The nets will be placed over a wide area, from Dixon Entrance to the Shumagin Islands, to determine the distribution of halibut eggs and larvae.

WILL NOT STAND FOR RE-ELECTION

Robert C. Gosse Resigns From British Columbia Marine Packers, Limited

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP).—The resignation of Robert C. Gosse as vice-president and managing director of the C. D. Rivers, Ltd., is announced today. He succeeded to the position two months ago, when his brother, Richard Gosse, retired.

In announcing his resignation, Mr. Gosse stated that he will not be a candidate for re-election at the annual meeting of the shareholders, which will be held here Wednesday.

"I have intended severing my connection with the company for some time," Mr. Gosse declared, "but at the request of A. H. Williamson, representative of the Wood, Gundy Co., Ltd., I stayed with the organization until operations for the 1931 season were planned and well advanced.

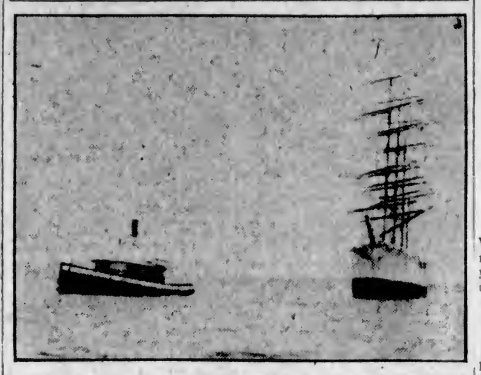

"I wish to say that I view the future activities of the B.C. Packers with optimism and think that 1931 operations should attain success," remarked the retiring official.

DREDGING PACIFIC HARBORS OF MEXICO

Big ports and harbor rejuvenation on the Pacific Coast of Mexico is expected this Summer, according to word received from ships that have been making calls there. Harbors that have been almost abandoned are to be reopened. Dredges are already working in Vera Cruz harbor and on the Panuco River at Tampico. This month a great dredge from England is due at Salina Cruz to start dredging there. This port was practically abandoned some years ago, but at one time was quite important.

In July another British dredge will arrive from England at Manzanillo, to be used on dredging operations there and at Mazatlan and Guaymas. Other ports included in the development plans of the Mexican Government are Puerto Mexico and other harbors on the Gulf of Mexico.

Local Tug in Long Chase

YACHT SEASON WILL OPEN SATURDAY NEXT

The Royal Victoria Yacht Club management committee met recently and attended to the regular business of the club. The cruising and sailing season will open on May 23 with a motorboat race to Saturna Island. The sailing craft will follow at their own time. The salute of the flag by the fleet will take place on this cruise before starting for Juiia Island. A number of boats of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club will join the fleet at Montague Harbor. The return trip is scheduled for Monday, May 25. The entertainment committee is busy arranging the opening flannel dance of the season to take place on Saturday, May 30, which will be augmented by the attendance of members of the Olympic Yacht Club, who are cruising to Cadboro Bay over the week-end. The series of races for dinghies and stars will open on the same day.

Prospects of Sympathetic Strike Remote

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Prospects of a sympathetic strike among skippers and mates on coastwise passenger liners in support of striking towboat navigators, as outlined yesterday by Andrew Goodlad, secretary of the Merchant Service Guild, were considered remote in waterfront circles here today. James Hamilton, secretary of the Towboat Owners' Association, said there had been no effort made to reopen negotiations.

"So far as we are concerned," he said, "there is no strike. The men who left their ships, we maintain, have merely resigned. We have more than enough skippers and mates, and engineers as well, able and willing to man the boats, than we have business on which to employ them."

BROUGHT IN SILK CARGO

TRAVELERS WERE FROM MANY PORTS

Arriving from Fast East ports at William Head quarantine station at noon yesterday, the American Mail Line Ss. President Lincoln came up to Rithet Piers at 1:30 o'clock. The Lincoln had a fair passenger list, about 100 in all, including thirty cabin travelers. Freight for Victoria amounted to 350 tons of general, including 525 bales of raw silk, which went South on the H. F. Alexander, leaving the Rithet Piers at 11 o'clock last night. All the passengers proceeded to Seattle aboard the ship, when she left at 3:30.

Included in the Lincoln's saloon passengers were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goebel and son, Manila, where Mr. Goebel is connected with the Pacific Commercial Company, en route to the United States on vacation; Lieut. Harry Hubbard, wife and daughter, returning to the United States from Manila, where Lieut. Hubbard was stationed with the Asiatic fleet; D. S. S. Douglas, Singapore, where he is connected with the National City Bank, on his way to Europe; T. Nagai Foo, Hongkong, proceeding to Portland, where he will enter a military academy; Mrs. U. S. Harkson and two sons, with Mrs. A. F. Henningsen and Miss Adrienne Henningsen, Seattle, returning home from Shanghai, where Mr. Harkson is managing director of Henningsen Produce Company; and Lieut. D. L. Irwin, who has completed his term of service with the United States Asiatic squadron, and is proceeding home, accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Among others aboard were G. W. and F. W. Hollis, Seattle, returning after an extended pleasure tour of the Orient; A. J. Avramow, Shanghai, where he represents Thomas De la Rue & Company, London, en route home; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bowman, Singapore, where the former is an exporter; Lieut. J. M. Sweeney, transferred from service with the Asiatic fleet to the United States for duty; R. M. TAKING EXCURSION TO SEATTLE NEXT MONDAY

On Monday, May 25, the new Canadian National steamer Prince Robert will make her first coast run, when the Victoria Branch of the Native Sons of Canada will run an excursion to Seattle, leaving here at 9 o'clock in the morning and returning about 10 o'clock at night. Music will be rendered by the Victoria Girls' Brass Band and also a six-piece orchestra will give selections.

There will be accommodation for dancing on deck and in the spacious lounge, and everything is being arranged to make the excursion a thoroughly enjoyable affair. Five hours will be allowed for sightseeing and shopping in Seattle. The Prince Robert will be open for the convenience of passengers while docked in Seattle.

Airplane Pilot and Two Passengers in Crash Escape Death

Flaming Machine Lands Upside Down in Field and Occupants Crawl Out Unhurt as Gasoline Tank Explodes

ALBANY, N.Y., May 19 (AP).—A pilot and his two passengers rode a flaming airplane 1,000 feet to the ground at Latham's late today, landed upside down in a field and crawled out of the wreckage just before the gasoline tank exploded. The ship was destroyed but they were unhurt.

Approaching the Albany airport, the pilot saw flames licking along the fuselage. He was making about ninety miles an hour and soon the fire was roaring. Side slipping to make the flames "go with the wind," McManus picked a field below and made for it. They were barely out of the wreckage when the tank exploded.

PANAMA CANAL TOLLS SLUMP TEN PER CENT

PANAMA CITY, May 19 (AP).—Panama Canal traffic for the fiscal year ending June 30 is expected to show more than a 10 per cent slump, measured by tolls, and a decrease of almost 10 per cent in the number of transits, according to estimates given out today by the Bureau of Statistics.

The estimate shows a loss of $990,664 in the first ten and a half months of the fiscal year and 664 fewer transits than in the same period of the previous fiscal year. The tolls to date amount to $28,164,829 paid by 4,910 merchant ships.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, May 19.—With a view to developing trade between British Columbia and Jamaica, S. Brown, of Jamaica, arrived here today on Ss. Point Arenas, of the Pacific-Caribbean-Gulf Line. The ship, in to Dingwall, Cotts & Co., under command of Capt. C. Olsen, had a fair cargo for British Columbia, including some parcels from the West Indies. She is now at New Westminster.

Mr. Brown is especially interested in developing the cocoanut, cocoa and fruits markets here, as he is actively engaged in production. His father is one of the largest planters on the island, and already has placed some of his products on this market, while there is an increasing trade being developed with Eastern Canada. Mr. Brown will spend some time here in the interests of Jamaican trade.

The fishery patrol steamer Givenchy is in port today to take on stores and arms for the annual raid on the sea lion rookeries of Queen Charlotte Sound. The ship will start on the hunt on June 1 and will be absent for some weeks, carrying death and destruction to the herds at all the rookeries of the sound and of the Southern Queen Charlotte Islands group.

Vilhjalmur Stefansson Takes Issue With Critic of Polar Submarine Voyage

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, explorer, today defended Sir George Hubert Wilkins' proposed submarine expedition to the North Pole against Rear Admiral Hugh Rodman's recent criticism that it was "foolhardy" and of little use even if successful.

Stefansson said data bould be obtained to check the weight of the earth with similar data obtained at the South Pole. Magnetic observations to be made at the pole were also important, he said, and records of specific gravity and temperature of seawater at the pole were to be made.

"A SOLDIER PLAYTHING"

World's Largest Tent Whipped to Shreds by Winds

ANAHEIM, Cal., May 19 (AP).—East winds from the desert today whipped to shreds a tent said to be the largest in the world, set up here for the annual Orange County Valencia orange show and fair. The canvas was 130 by 670 feet, supported by three structural steel poles, one of which blew down, the second bent double, and the third left standing with the ribbon strands of canvas flapping.

Tent damage was estimated at $30,000. The show, scheduled from June 4 to 14, will not be affected, it was announced.

Citrus groves were stripped by the wind, and the North Orange Citrus Exchange announced Valencia shipments will be held up several days to determine the extent of fruit by the storm.

TARNISHED LADY SHOWS NEW STAR

Eight years ago a little girl from Alabama played her first role on the Broadway stage. She was unknown to Broadway then—just as she, although a famous star with a nation at her feet, is unknown to American picture audiences today.

She is Tallulah Bankhead, who left her native United States to become London's favorite toast before a breath of popularity had touched her New York stage work; who has returned to the United States, after eight years of adulation, to begin to win the acclaim of her fellow countrymen in the motion pictures.

In "Tarnished Lady," the brilliant Donald Ogden Stewart drama, which the Dominion Theatre will feature for three days, starting today, Tallulah Bankhead co-starred with Clive Brook, the suave English screen favorite, makes her bow to the motion picture public.

Here is an actress of assured charm, quick-witted and sophisticated, able to handle a quip with lightning rapidity. In Miss Bankhead, Paramount raises the curtain on a new star, a great actress, on a new personality that will be immediately and warmly welcomed to the hearts of all theatregoers.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE Helen Twelvetrees appearing in a lead role in "The Ghost Talks," Fox Movietone special, now at the Playhouse Theatre, derives her last name from an English legend. It seems a baron, back in the days long gone, built himself a castle with his spoils and settled down to raising a family. When a child was born to the family a tree was planted to commemorate the event. There were twelve children, all told.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Clarence Badger, responsible for the direction of "The Hot Heiress," a First National picture now playing at the Columbia Theatre, is one of Hollywood's most versatile directors. Having completed "Paris" with Irene Bordoni, he directed "Woman Hungry" and "The Bad Man," and again returns to light, gay, musical screen fare in "The Hot Heiress." Ben Lyon and Ona Munson are featured.

POPULAR STAR TO PLAY AT COLISEUM

After a contingent of navy men saw Jacqueline Logan in "The Middle Watch," during its New York premiere, they wanted to award her the honorary rank of admiral. Her absence from the country prevented her receiving the honor. You will agree that she should have had that rank—at least when you see "The Middle Watch" at the Coliseum Theatre, starting Saturday, May 23.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Coliseum — "Dance, Fools, Dance," starring Joan Crawford.

Columbia—Ben Lyon, in "The Hot Heiress."

Playhouse—Miss Mona Jewell, Dance Recital.

JOAN CRAWFORD AS "SOB SISTER"

'Dance, Fools, Dance," Is Intricate Story of Life in the Newspaper Game

Realism is realism. Harry Beaumont, who directed 'Dance, Fools, Dance," Joan Crawford's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle, wouldn't allow anything but broken-in typewriters to be used in the Chicago newspaper city room scenes.

A large number of decrepit machines were obtained for the sets and veteran newspapermen acted as technical advisers to make sure no foppish blunders were made in the action or dialogue. The newspaper scenes, in which Miss Crawford is seen as a "sob-sister" reporter, play an important part in the gangster film and reveal the power of the press in crime suppression.

Lester Vail plays opposite the star in her new talkie, which will open today at the Coliseum Theatre.

DIRECTORS PRAISED FOR UNTIRING WORK

Some of the most satisfactory reports in recent years were tendered by the chairmen of the various departments at the forty-sixth annual meeting and banquet of the Y.M.C.A. held last night at the organization's headquarters. Every branch enjoyed a great twelve months, and those in charge were highly praised for the way their departments were run.

V. R. Carver, R. J. C. Smith, H. B. Witter and Dr. M. W. Thomas were re-elected to the directors' board, while Samuel Clack and H. S. Timberlake were appointed to fill the vacancies of Ira Dilworth and Fred M. McGregor, who were forced to tender their resignations, owing to business reasons, after years of untiring work.

R. H. Mayhew and Edwin Tomlin, vice-president and president, respectively, during 1930, were voted hearty congratulations by the meeting for their work during a long number of years. Great regret was expressed over their resignations from the board. The new officers will be appointed at the first meeting of the new board.

SPEAKS OF BUILDING

"Maintenance of plant and equipment is an essential task in any manufactory, so our manhood factory was following well-established custom when the directors decided to have exterior metal and woodwork given a two-coat paint job and needed roof repairs made, the combined work costing below $1,000," stated Secretary Walter S. Maguire, in speaking about building in his annual statement.

"In common with associations from coast to coast, we have experienced great difficulty in attempting to produce the proportion of the budget which we normally expect from membership fees," continued the secretary.

"The finance report is being presented by the finance chairman, so I will not deal with it in full. Under the conditions existing we ought to produce the highest possible amount of revenue and curtail expenses to a low minimum," he concluded.

PHYSICAL WORK

H. B. Witter, chairman of the physical department, tendered his report on the year's activities, and, in doing so, praised Archie McKinnon, physical director, for the way he handled the department. Fine seasons had been experienced in swimming, baseball, soccer, basketball, softball, boxing, wrestling and various other branches of sport.

Rev. Bruce Gray, the next speaker, dwelt on the fine work achieved by the boys' work department. He spoke highly of Vivian Shoemaker, boys' secretary, who was one of the organizers of the playground system last year.

Alderman James Adam, representing the city, spoke briefly on the progress of the Y.M.C.A. and wished them every success in the future.

Outstanding features of the financial report were many. Despite the general depression, the organization passed through a great year financially. The report showed that the Y.M.C.A. finished the year with net liabilities of only $2,244 as against $3,674 the previous twelve months.

Lindsay Alexander of the Brown Wolves has passed his first star tests, and, after renewing his promise last Friday, was presented with his star. The following tests have been passed: Jimmy Cornwall, ball throwing; Eric Holyoak, time telling and book-balancing. The pack will attend the I.O.D.E. ceremony on Friday, May 22, meeting at the corner of Belleville and Government Streets at 9:30.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaelis

MAN

This is not man, this creature raised from dust,
An abject wretch, the slave of shame and lust,
With power alone to crush his brother down
And brooding ever on his shadowed way,

Eyes once mist-dimmed must seek the man God planned:
Of faith upright and clean of heart and hand—
A king who conquers life and laughs at fate.
Unbounded lie the heights he may aspire
To scale, led ever by divine desire.

Unnumbered are the wonders he has wrought
In all the regions of most lofty thought;
For he is victor over air and sea,
And of vast realms unseen has mastery:
Of hidden chambers, where he walks alone,

What Today Means

"TAURUS"

If May 20 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 a.m. to 11:10 a.m., from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. The danger hours are from 11:50 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. and from 5:30 p.m. to 7:10 p.m.

Planetary aspects on May 20 denote influences which will make for curious and memorable experiences. They favor and encourage business enterprise, especially in connection with real estate or mining. Some unexpected good news will be received during the evening.

Children born on this May 20 will be, temperamentally, very matter of fact, straightforward, frank and easy to understand. They will always be calm and collected, never worry and never allow themselves to be stampeded. Fond of home and its comforts, travel will make little or no appeal to them.

Born on May 20, your chief characteristics are persistency and level-headedness. You never allow disappointment or adversity to lessen your efforts. Neither does success weaken your stamina. Before embarking in any new enterprise or undertaking, you carefully weigh the "pros and cons," and, almost unconsciously, overstress the difficulties and under-estimated the rewards. Once in, however, you never let go, and work until success crowns your efforts. Your judgment being always well considered, is generally reliable.

Your mannerisms assist you very much, and, underlying your strong determination, there is always apparent an atmosphere of affability that disarms criticism and promotes good feeling. You never show your true sentiments when you are inimical or pessimistic. You, too, shoulder your own mistakes and never try to "pass the buck."

Not afraid of responsibility, always fired by the ambition to do your utmost, self-confident and determined, your horoscope indicates that you will travel far, and achieve much. In your home life, those traits that will win for you, while on the outside, success and material prizes, will insure for your happiness and contentment. As husband or wife, you will, in good times or hard ones, be a real companion and a true pal. Your never-changing attitude will halve all troubles and double all joys.

WINNIPEG THEATRE OWNER PASSES AWAY

WINNIPEG, May 19 (CP).—Victor C. Kobold, prominent business man and theatre owner of Winnipeg, is dead here, aged sixty-three. He was a breeder of high-class hunting dogs, which carried off premier honors at field trials and bench shows through the United States and Canada.

A big man of the navvy type was in the witness-box, and counsel eyed him dubiously, knowing he would be a "hard nut to crack." "What we want to get at," he began, "is, who was the aggressor?" "Eh?" said the witness. "Let me illustrate my meaning," said counsel. "Suppose that I should meet you in the street and strike you in the face. I should be the aggressor. "You'd be a fool!" retorted the witness. "No, no!" cried counsel, with heightened color. "You don't understand. I was speaking only in the abstract. Suppose we met and without provocation, I struck you, I should be committing an act of aggression." The navvy hunched his huge shoulders. "You'd be committing suicide, mister!" he remarked grimly.

KILLED IN GUATEMALA

GUATEMALA CITY, May 19 (AP).—Carlos Merlen, nationally-known aviator, and Salvador Lopez Padilla, American journalist, were killed in an airplane accident at the Aurora airport today.

MOTORCYCLIST SUCCUMBS

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP).—Thrown to the pavement when his motorcycle got out of control on Fraser Street, near Fiftieth Avenue, on Monday night, William Burbage, thirty-two, of West First, succumbed to his injuries in the General Hospital at 3:15 a.m.

Price Decline on New York Stock Exchange Halted

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—The brakes were applied to the stock market's decline today.

Although many prominent issues touched new lows during the irregular price movement, strenuous selling pressure was absent and enough short covering and investment support filtered in to give the list a steadier tone. The composite embracing ninety issues closed unchanged, despite the break by the utility group to a new 1931 minimum.

Rails showed to much better advantage. Sales totaled 2,800,000 shares, most since May 1.

United States Steel common, opening 1-8 lower, crossed par, but broke to 97, a new low. The final quotation was 98 5-8, off 3-8. Other leaders registering new minimums included Eastman Kodak, American Telephone, Atchison, Union Pacific, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville, Corn Products, Liggett & Myers "B" and Pennsylvania Railroad. Telephone rallied 5-8 net. New York Central received good support and gained 1 1-8. Southern Pacific was stronger; Atchison lost a small fraction net.

Warner Brothers, Fox, Paramount, Corn Products, Woolworth, Columbia Gas and American Tobacco closed 1 to 3 points lower. Case was weak. Texas Corporation profited by covering when directors cut the quarterly dividend from 75 cents to 50 cents instead of omitting the payment entirely, as had been rumored. American Can gained a couple of points. Fractional advances came in General Electric, Bethlehem, Westinghouse, Anaconda, Consolidated Gas, North American and National Biscuit.

Sterling exchange was strong. Cables rose to a new 1931 high.

Other rate changes were narrow. Shanghai was a little heavy.

A sharp increase in volume, rising prices in gilt-edge bonds, some of which reached new 1931 high prices, for 1931 and for all time, and declines in a large number of speculative obligations, some of which made new low records, were the outstanding features of the bond market today.

WHEAT PRICES MOVE UPWARD

Reports That Rains Were Insufficient Start Rally at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, May 19 (CP).—Wheat prices bounced one cent on the grain exchange today at one period, when it was reported that rains on the prairies were not sufficiently heavy to benefit crops. The cent advance, however, was not maintained, and final quotations were only 1-2 cent to 7-8 cent above yesterday's figures.

May wheat closed the day at 59 5-8 cents per bushel, July at 50 5-8, and October at 52 1-2. Cash wheat and coarse grains were unchanged in a dull and uninteresting market.

ACREAGE OF WHEAT IN RUSSIA NOT EXPECTED TO REACH OBJECTIVE

MOSCOW, May 19 (AP).—Present indications show that the ambitious Spring-sowing plan of the Soviet Government may not be realized, although the total sown area and intensive cultivation indicate optimistic prospects.

The Commissariat of Agriculture issued figures today showing 46,167,000 hectaers (approximately 115,417,500 acres) sown up to May 15, which is 46.2 per cent of the entire plan.

The late Spring, heavy rains and scarcity of machinery caused a delay to some extent. Although Soviet officials themselves assert that the sowing plan will be fulfilled, some American agricultural observers say they will be lucky if they sow 80 per cent of their intentions.

Price Movement Is Erratic and Trading Quiet at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, May 19.—Price trends were erratic in quiet trading on the Vancouver Stock Exchange today. Bridge River Gold shares continue to monopolize trading interest, while special Turner Valley oils issues reflected bullish news from the Merland well.

The market opened nervously and during the first hour weakness development in the Flathead Valley stocks, Mayland and Big Missouri. However, the depression in these issues failed to disturb the apathetic rut into which the market fell. Oils, with the exception of Merland, C. & E., Commonwealth and A. P. Consolidated, continued to ease during the final hour, and new lows were registered by Home, which dropped to 50 cents before recovering to close at 55 cents bid, and Calmont, which ended the day at 7 cents bid.

C. & E. responded to constructive news from Merland and rose steadily to close with a net increase of 3 cents at 37 cents bid, after selling at a high for this movement at 38 cents. Merland, in dull trading, closed strong at 13 cents bid, up 1 cent above Monday's close, while Commonwealth, at 15 cents, and A.P. Consolidated, at 17 cents, both gained 1 cent. Home closed off 2 cents at 55 cents, and Mercury dropped fractionally to 17 1-2 cents.

Both Flathead Valley oils issues turned heavy at the outset. Amalgamated, from an opening at 12 cents, broke sharply to 10 cents before the noon recess. In the late dealings the stock dipped below the morning close, but strengthened up to 10 cents on the final transactions, to end the day with a net loss of 2 1-2 cents. Crow's Nest tumbled from 10 cents to 8 1-4 cents and closed at that price, down 1 3-4 cents net.

Pioneer attracted buying support in the final session. The stock crossed the board steadily at 2.20, and closed at 2.15 bid, up 3 cents net. Big Missouri was under selling pressure in the late trading and dropped 2 cents to a new low at 28 cents. Lorne was active at 10 cents during the forenoon and rose to 11 cents during the afternoon. But the advance was not held and the price receded to close at 9 3-4 cents bid, down slightly below Monday's close.

AVERAGE PRICE SHOWS DECLINE

Twenty Mining Stocks Sell Lower—Gold-Copper Issues Take Largest Drop

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—The weighted index number of twenty mining stocks computed by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics on the base of 1926 equals 100, was 78.7 for the week ending May 14, as compared with 80.9 for the previous week.

Eleven gold stocks fell from 76.1 to 75.3, four gold-copper stocks from 102.3 to 94.5 and five silver and miscellaneous stocks from 36.3 to 35.7.

Among the gold stocks the weekly average prices behaved as follows: Hollinger dropped from $8.03 to $7.85, Kirkland Lake from 76c to 74c, McIntyre from $24.47 to $23.47, Premier from 77c to 73c, Teck Hughes from $7.90 to $7.77 and Vipond Consolidated from $1.05 to $1.02. Dome mounted from $10.94 to $11.04. Lake Shore from $27.62 to $27.68 and Wright Hargreaves from $2.92 to $3.01.

Average weekly prices were lower for all of the gold-copper stocks. Amulet declined from 29c to 26c, Hudson Bay from $4.50 to $4.44, Noranda from $25.32 to $23.20 and Sherritt-Gordon from 85c to 77c.

BANK BUSINESS QUICKLY SETTLED

Dividend of Six Per Cent Passed by Stockholders of International Institution

BASEL, Switzerland, May 19 (AP).—It took only thirty-five minutes today for the Central and other delegates from twenty-four nations to settle their business at a meeting of stockholders in the Bank for International Settlements.

Since his report had previously been submitted, President Gates W. McGarrah confined his remarks to a brief speech of welcome. When he asked for discussion, nobody had anything to say, and in rapid succession his report was adopted and a dividend of 6 per cent was voted.

To help countries in need of economic development, especially concerning promotion of export, the bank has decided to set aside 150,000,000 francs for middle term credits, hoping this example would stimulate others.

LARGE LOAN FOR INDIA ANNOUNCED

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—Some surprise was created in the financial district today by announcement of a 6 per cent loan of $58,000,000 for the Government of India. It will be issued at 100, redeemable in 1933 and 1934, and is being underwritten today. The last loan was received with great success.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE REPORT

MONTREAL, May 19.—But little relief was apparent on the stock exchange this afternoon.

Brazilian Traction advanced 3-4 to close at 14 3-4, Canadian Car preferred moved up 3-8 to 13-8 and Canadian Pacific Railway recovered 3-4 at 26. Nickel firmed at 11 3-4. British Columbia Power "A" was up 1-4 at 34 1-4 and Massey-Harris held a gain of 1-8 at 4 5-8. Cockshutt Plow was up 1-4 at 6. Atlantic Sugar advanced a point to 23.

Smelters sold down 3 1-2 points to 86. Dominion Glass lost 2 points at 98. Cement preferred was off 5-8 at 93 1-2. Power Corporation dropped a point to 47 and Montreal Power lost 7-8 at 49 1-2. Steel of Canada lost 1-4, down to 27 1-4. Gypsum, Canadian Car common, Bell Telephone, Canada Bronze, Cement common, Dominion Textile, General Steel Wares and Shawinigan each lost 1-2.

NEW YORK SUGAR

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—Raw sugar was quiet early today and, in the absence of any further demand, the undertone was easier with offerings at last paid prices of 3.25 more liberal. Indications were fractionally less would be accepted in some instances.

Refiners who announced a contemplated advance at the close tonight have withdrawn their notice and prices were unchanged at 4.40 for fine granulated. One Southern refiner reduced prices 5 points to the basis of 4.35, and this seemed to check any fresh buying, with the trade inclined to limit fresh commitments and await further developments.

NEW HEADMASTER OF FAMOUS OLD RUGBY SCHOOL APPOINTED

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—Percy H. B. Lyon, rector of the Edinburgh Academy since 1926, has been appointed headmaster of famous old Rugby School, founded in 1567.

Mr. Lyon is only thirty-eight years old and was educated at Rugby and Oriel, Oxford. He had a distinguished war record, serving with the 6th Battalion, Durham Light Infantry. He was wounded in 1918 and made a prisoner of war in May, 1918. He was awarded the military cross. Mr. Lyon is also the author of the Newdigate prize poem of 1919 and of of "Songs of Youth and War," and books on poetry.

The retiring headmaster is W. W. Vaughan.

TORONTO MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

TORONTO, May 19.—Prices moved lower on the mining market this afternoon and staged only a mild rally in the last few minutes.

Noranda was off nearly a point to $20.60. International Nickel, establishing a new low of $11.50, closed off a quarter at $11.75. Sherritt-Gordon eased a couple but other Lindsleys were quiet.

Wright Hargreaves was a soft spot in the gold section, falling to $2.70 for a net loss of 16. Teck Hughes, touching $7, closed off 15 at $7.15, and Hollinger was down a like amount to $7.10. Minor recessions were scattered throughout the balance of the group. Lakeshore, on the strength of the bonus declaration, firmed a few cents.

Oils were relatively steady and dull, though Acme Gas, in which rights to purchase new stock expire tomorrow, was off a cent or so.

ARGUMENT IS OVERHEATED

Port Alberni Council Has Stormy Session When Discussing Gravel Purchase

CHIEF OF POLICE IS CALLED INTO ACTION

PORT ALBERNI, May 19.—It had been hoped that, after the mill rate for 1931 had been finally settled, the stormy meetings of the city council would come to an end, but the meeting of last evening proved that this was not to be so. At one time Mayor Kendall called upon the chief of police to restore order in the council hall, after it had become impossible for the aldermen to hear what was being said.

Much heated argument took place over various matters and the climax was reached when the contentious gravel question was discussed. The city clerk produced an agreement between the city and a local resident for the purchase of or pertaining to 10,000 yards of gravel which is being hauled out of the Somas River. The Mayor and several aldermen were of the opinion that the agreement had been drawn up solely for the protection of the vendor of the gravel, and that the city would be setting a dangerous precedent to affix the city seal to it until legal advice had been taken. Alderman MacMillan, chairman of the works committee, was opposed to the city having legal advice on the agreement.

MAYOR'S PROTEST

"You are unworthy of your office," stated the Mayor. "This agreement has been drawn up by a lawyer to protect someone's interest and, if you oppose the city taking legal advice on the matter, then you are not working in the city's interest, but in the interest of someone else. I don't understand this agreement, and I don't think anyone else on the council does. The city's agreement is not with this man, but with the contractor who is hauling the gravel out of the river."

Alderman Stone stated that the one-sided agreements, where the other parties had lawyers and the city did not, should come to an end. The city's interests had to be protected as well as those of anyone else.

When the matter was put to a vote it was carried, with Aldermen Fleming and MacMillan voting against the city obtaining legal advice.

Alderman Stone took exception to the way in which the works department was running the affairs of the city. Unless a man was a friend of the city foreman he could not obtain work, and would be fired if he happened to give him (Alderman Stone) any information. "And this had been done," said Alderman Stone. The works foreman, who was present, arose in his seat and hotly denied any such statement. Several persons present attempted to get into the argument, and the Mayor called upon the police to put the noise makers out.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

Several works under the local improvement plan will be proceeded with almost immediately, the most important being that on Second Avenue. This will cost about $14,000, and discussion took place as to whether it would be necessary to obtain an engineer to supervise the construction. It was decided that, as the matter would be let by contract, it would be well to retain the services of an engineer.

A matter which will be of much convenience to the residents of this city and Alberni will be the construction of a sidewalk between the two towns. This will be about three miles long and will fill a much-needed want as, up to the present, the roadway has been the only walk for pedestrians.

Cement sidewalks will also be laid on Third Avenue from Argyle Street to the postoffice, while the corner of these two streets will be hard surfaced.

JUNIORS IN CHARGE

The variety concert to be held under the auspices of the Metchosin and District Community Club on May 29, is being undertaken entirely by the juniors of the various districts. This promises to be a most interesting and varied entertainment, and it is hoped that everyone will turn out for the benefit of the club and the encouragement of the youthful talent of the district.

SENTENCED TO PRISON

NANAIMO, May 19 (CP).—His Honor Judge Barker this morning sentenced Peter Grismack, of Ladysmith, to one year's hard labor on a charge of attempt to do grievious bodily harm to his son-in-law, P. Cathey, at Ladysmith, on December 18.

RIDING CLUB MEET

The Albert Head and Metchosin Riding Club again met for a very pleasant ride on Sunday. After the ride, the club gathered at Mrs. A. Swinton's for tea, where they were joined by various other guests.

ROADMAKERS BUSY ON UCLUELET ROAD

UCLUELET, May 18. — Road work has commenced on the Ucluelet-Long Beach road, although so far this season the work is being done in and about Ucluelet. But it is expected that before long a large gang will be taken on and improvements will be made right through to Long Beach. At the present time, however, this road is open and it is reported that it is in fair condition for motor traffic.

RESIGNS AFTER LONG SERVICE

W. O. Sweatman No Longer President of Metchosin Conservatives —Dr. Gaddes Carries On

METCHOSIN, May 19.—A meeting of the executive of the Metchosin Conservative Association was held at the home of J. B. Edwards, Rocky Point, on Thursday. Those present were W. O. Sweatman, president; Dr. Gaddes, vice-president; W. A. Clay, honorary secretary; J. B. Edwards, P. Thornett, William Arden, P. Arden, C. Bechingham and G. F. Weir.

Mr. Sweatman's letter of resignation was read and accepted, as it was felt by the meeting that his position as road construction foreman for the district precluded any office in the association. A vote of thanks was then tendered Mr. Sweatman for the many years that he has held office as president of the association. At many times during the war he had to be a whole executive in himself.

It was decided, after some discussion, that the vice-president, Dr. Gaddes, carry on in Mr. Sweatman's place for the balance of the year. Several letters were then read from Hon. R. H. Pooley in answer to questions asked at the last general meeting. These were tabled until the next general meeting.

On the adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served by the ladies, those present being Mrs. Gaddes, Mrs. Sweatman, Mrs. P. Thornett and Mrs. P. Arden.

NANAIMO SCHOOL CONCERT

The pupils of Nanaimo Junior and Senior High School rendered a very fine programme in St. Andrew's United Church auditorium on Monday night in excellent style before a large and appreciative audience. A pleasing item in the evening's entertainment was the presentation to Miss Johnston of a beautiful bouquet as a mark of appreciation for her work in creating a love of good music.

BOND PRICE IS SATISFACTORY

Courtenay Council Receives Good Price for Issue—Fire Rates Discussed

COURTENAY, May 19.—A satisfactory price for this city's 5 per cent debentures was reported at Monday night's regular council meeting. The price obtained for the recent issue of $8,000 was 99.45.

Official notification was received by the council that H.M.S. Dragon would visit Comox harbor from July 3 to 18.

A letter from the secretary of the Board of Trade jogged the council's memory that the grant of $150 for publicity purposes had not yet been received by the trade board.

It was pointed out that the fire insurance rates for the city of Courtenay are the lowest in its classification, while the fire loss was among the highest. It was explained that owing to the whole of the losses in the entire district being charged against the city under the present system, a very misleading impression was left.

REPORTS

The reports of the chairmen of committees showed the electric light system to be in good condition with an improvement in outstanding accounts. More fire hose was recommended by the fire department.

The works committee included in its lengthy report the completion of the bridge and fill into the Puntledge Park. An abundance of water was reported at the source of the city's supply, but during the dry season the domestic demand would exceed the present amount being delivered to the reservoir. It was therefore advisable to either increase the capacity of the reservoir or to prepare to curtail the use of garden sprinklers.

A schedule of charges for sports clubs using the Lewis Park was approved and the recommendation of the parks board to engage the services of a man for three months and the purchase of equipment was also adopted. The totem poles at the entrance of the park are to be repainted and repaired.

The old Masonic building at the corner of the Comox Road was officially condemned and will therefore have to be demolished.

The city clerk gave an interesting report of the recent convention of the Pacific Coast Water Association.

Logger Is Sentenced To Year in Jail for Robbing Cigar Store

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP).—Sentence of one year's imprisonment in Oakalla jail was imposed by Judge Cayley in County Court on Thomas Fitzgerald, thirty-two-year-old logger, who was convicted of breaking and entering the shop of R. J. Patterson, Cambie Street, on February 25, and stealing $350 worth of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes.

Two other charges of a similar nature are pending against Fitzgerald.

Alexander Titmus, who was charged jointly with Fitzgerald, elected for jury trial, and will come before the Assize Court in the Fall.

To Address Farmers On Noxious Weeds

J. Travis, of the Department of Agriculture, will be the speaker tomorrow night at the regular meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute, to be held at the Temperance Hall, East Saanich Road. Mr. Travis' subject will be "Noxious Weeds and Their Control."

COUGAR IS KILLED

UCLUELET, May 18.—A large cougar was shot not far from the settlement on Tuesday after killing on Sunday and partly eating a sheep owned by J. Roush. The last cougar to be shot in this district was killed several months ago on Long Beach while feasting on a freshly-killed deer.

A modern young woman was taken to see a boxing match. Coming away from the show, her escort said: "How did you enjoy it?"

"Oh," said the young woman, "the boxers were all right, but those seconds are a lot of funks. Did you notice how they shot out of the ring as soon as there was any trouble brewing?"

English pedestrians using highways at night are wearing hats and mackintoshes in vivid colors to escape being run down by autoists.

To those who do the Work of the Nation

An Advertisement about the Dominion of Canada Conversion Loan

CANADA has a job on its hands. Between now and 1934, more than a thousand million dollars are coming due for repayment to War and Victory Loan Bondholders . . . The job might be put off—but it shouldn't be.

To procrastinate would be unwise. The beneficial effect on business of making a success of this Conversion Loan is incalculable. It will assist in bringing about a restoration of confidence. It will ring about the world as an evidence of the complete faith which Canadians feel in the future of their country.

It will enable you to re-invest your savings in the premier security of Canada, at a desirable rate of interest, for an extended term.

The present rate of interest (with tax exemption, if any) on Bonds eligible for conversion will continue until their maturity date. After that, 4½% per annum for at least another fifteen years and—possibly—twenty-five.

Conversion applications are invited to a total of $250,000,000, but the Minister of Finance reserves the right to increase or decrease this amount. Subscription lists will be closed on or before 23rd May, 1931. Bondholders who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity for re-investment should therefore act without delay.

Bonds of the following issues are exchangeable for Bonds of the 1931 Conversion Loan:

War Loan	5%	due 1st October, 1931
Renewal Loan	5½%	due 1st November, 1932
Victory Loan	5½%	due 1st November, 1933
Victory Loan	5½%	due 1st November, 1934

Your Bond Dealer, Broker or Banker will arrange for the conversion of your Bonds without expense to you.

A Pretty End Play

Contract Bidding

	1st Rd.	2nd Rd.
South	2 ♠	4 ♠
West	Pass	Pass
North	2 N. T.	Pass
East	Pass	Pass

Auction Bidding

	1st Rd.
South	1 ♠
West	Pass
North	Pass
East	Pass

The above deal, in addition to furnishing an example of a forcing original bid at Contract, presents the opportunity of making a very pretty end play in order to make the game.

SALIENT POINTS OF THE BIDDING

Contract: South with four and three-quarter Quick Tricks in his hand and a solid five-card Spade suit opens the bidding with Two Spades. West passes. North's hand is, of course, not trickless for he has four Diamonds headed by the King-Queen. The only question he has to decide is as to whether he should bid Two No Trumps or Three Diamonds in order to show where his trick taking value may lie. Since he has four Hearts in his hand which might be valuable should partner have a two-suiter, the bid of Two No Trumps seems preferable, for although he holds Jack high in Clubs, the combined hands should stop that suit in the event that the original bidder's hand was such as to dictate the support of a No Trump rather than a rebid of a suit. East passes and South, knowing that North has some trick taking value in his hand, immediately bids Four Spades, which all pass.

Auction: South obtains the declaration for his opening bid of One Spade. He has the requirement for an opening Two bid even at Auction but his Spade suit is so strong that he is practically determined to play it with Spades as trump and there is no need to invite a denial. This concludes the bidding, for although North holds only two Spades in his hand, he is not strong enough to make a take-out which partner has not asked for by a bid of Two.

THE PLAY

West opens the King of Clubs and his partner not only started but completed the echo in that suit. Three rounds are led, the last of which South trumps. South now leads three rounds of trumps, exhausting adversaries.

If the Diamond suit is evenly divided as between adversaries, he can discard his Two of Hearts and trust to the finesse to make a possible five odd. However, when he see that East does not follow on the third round of Diamonds he has a decision to make as to whether he should take the Heart finesse or throw West in the lead in order to make him lead a Heart. Of course there would be a guess if East should discard a Heart rather than a Club on the third round of Diamonds, but the Club is East's natural discard and since the Queen of Clubs must still be in East's hand West would be marked with but Three Clubs. Even should East discard a Heart it would seem preferable to lead a fourth round of Diamonds from Dummy and discard thereon the Two of Hearts. West, of course, would take this trick, after which he must lead into Declarer's Major tenace in Hearts.

ROYAL SOCIETY TO MEET TODAY

Dr. J. S. Plaskett Will Address Scientists at Toronto Convention.

TORONTO, May 19 (CP).—Canada's most distinguished scientists and literary men were gathering at the University of Toronto today for the fiftieth annual meeting of the Royal Society of Canada which opens tomorrow.

Feature address of the meeting will be delivered by Dr. Charles Camsell, deputy minister of mines for the Dominion, who, as president of the Society, will speak on "Canada's Position in the Mineral Situation of the British Empire." Other important speeches will be made by Sir Robert Falconer, vice-president of the society, and Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory at Victoria.

Delegates to the meeting include leaders in mathematics, physics, chemistry and astronomy, geology, and biological and medical sciences, many of whom will report the results of their work during the past year. It is expected that many important discoveries will be announced for the first time, particularly in the field of physics.

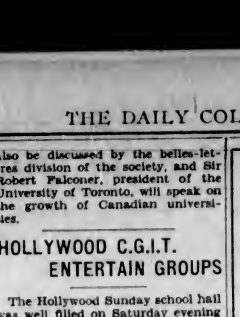

Literary effort in Canada will also be discussed by the belles-lettres division of the society, and Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, will speak on the growth of Canadian universities.

HOLLYWOOD C.G.I.T. ENTERTAIN GROUPS

The Hollywood Sunday school hall was well filled on Saturday evening for the concert held under the auspices of the Hollywood group of Canadian Girls in Training. W. Hyslop acted as chairman. Miss Maquinna Daniels, well-known local pianist, opened the programme with a pianoforte solo, and vocal solos were contributed by Mrs. J. Kyle, Mrs. G. Gauld, Mrs. W. Grant and Miss C. Barlow. Misses Dorothy Plumb and Alice Skellern delighted their audience with a vocal duet, while the instrumental trio, composed of Misses D. and M. Plumb and N. Kyle, was warmly applauded, as was the violin solo given by Miss C. Lang. Humorous recitations were given by Messrs. E. G. Marriott and J. Walker.

The playlet entitled "Buying Eggs," presented by Misses Phyllis Baylis, Barbara Daniels and Jean Hyslop, caused great amusement and the "Camp Scene," put on by the C.G.I.T. group, consisting of a lively sing-song and story, showed clearly what a grand time the girls enjoy at camp. Miss Anne Fountain, B.A., secretary, Provincial Girls' Work Board, gave a short talk and also paid high tribute to the work being carried on by the Hollywood groups. Miss Olive Campbell, A.T.C.M., L.Mus., acted as accompanist for the evening. At the close of the concert a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered the artists by Phyllis Baylis and Jean Hyslop and refreshments were served to the artists and parents of the girls.

REV. W. C. PARHAM TO HOLD MEETINGS HERE

REV. W. C. PARHAM

Tonight and tomorrow night, at 8 o'clock, at the Foursquare Gospel Lighthouse, corner of Broad and Johnson Streets, Rev. W. C. Parham, of Los Angeles, will be heard in two evangelistic meetings. For the past two months, Rev. Mr. Parham has been in charge of the Vancouver Foursquare Gospel, headquarters for Canada, where he came from the South. He has been engaged in gospel work for the last ten years, during which time he has spoken in practically every state of the United States and in some parts of Canada.

He will be remembered by many Victorians as the son of Rev. Charles F. Parham, who conducted meetings here several years ago. He married the former Alice Wilson, of this city, who is also engaged in gospel work.

DEMONSTRATION IN APPEAL COURT

Liverpool Citizens Show Much Interest in Murder Case—Convicted Man Wins Suit

LONDON, May 19 (CP).—Liverpool citizens who crowded the Court of Criminal Appeal made a great demonstration when the Lord Chief Justice today announced that the appeal of William Henry Wallace from conviction on a charge of murdering his wife, had been upheld.

Great interest has been aroused in the case, and prayers had been offered for Wallace daily in the Liverpool Cathedral. He was found guilty by the Liverpool Assizes jury on April 25. Wallace is a fifty-two-year-old insurance agent, a slender, refined looking man.

The body of Mrs. Wallace was discovered in the Wallace home at Liverpool when Wallace, reporting that he was unable to enter his home after being out during the evening, called neighbors and they broke in. The woman's death was evidently caused by several wounds, although no weapon was found. Police found in another part of the house some money which Wallace said had been stolen.

Wallace explained he had been called to another district by a telephone message passed to him by a friend, but had been unable to find the address.

MOVE TO LEGALIZE LOTTERIES TO AID HOSPITALS KILLED

LONDON, May 19 (AP).—The House of Commons came down hard today on advocates of legalization of lotteries in support of hospitals, defeating by 181 to 58 an application by a Conservative member for leave to introduce a bill authorizing the operation of such lotteries.

There has been considerable agitation in favor of loosening up the laws in this respect in view of the great sums which have gone out of the country into the Irish hospital sweepstakes on horse races, while charitable institutions at home need money.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

GOLD RUSH IN SASKATCHEWAN

Hundreds of Claims Staked in Past Two Days Near Boundary

FIFELAKE Sask., May 19 (CP).—The "rush" to the Poplar Creek bed, six miles southeast of here, and on towards Coronach, which started following reports that gold had been found there, continued today, and at noon it was estimated about 450 claims had been staked.

According to information received today, M. M. Bennett, a farmer opposite the M. Woelfiin farm, two years ago sent samples of the dirt to Los Angeles to be assayed, and received a reply that there were traces of gold. E. Larson, one of the men interested in the purchase of the Woelfiin farm, is reported to have sent samples recently to Los Angeles and to have been informed that the dirt he sent contained gold running from $2 to $20 a ton.

Fifelake is almost directly south of Moose Jaw, about ninety miles, located in Range Two, about ten miles from the international border line.

So far no gold is known to have been taken from the places where claims have been staked during he past two days.

THREE MURDERED ON ALBERTA FARM

Man in Edmonton Hospital Alleged to Have Shot Relatives Then Self

EDMONTON, May 19.—Joseph Michalavik, thirty-three, of Edwand, is in hospital here with an even chance of recovery, and three members of his family are dead as the result of a shooting affray at the Michalavik home early Tuesday Morning.

Michalavik, it is alleged by Provincial Police, seized his rifle and shot down his mother, Mrs. Baska Michalavik, seventy, his daughter, Mary, thirteen, and his brother, Stephen, forty-five. He then turned the high-power rifle on himself, a bullet striking him below his chin and ploughing upwards and out of the left eyesocket.

He was rushed to the hospital here, arriving in the late afternoon. Medical attendants stated tonight he had an "even chance of recovery."

No motive for the shooting is given by police officers who hurried to the scene, a lonely farm situated ten miles from the farm where, on October 22, last, George Dwernychuk shot down five persons. Dwernychuk was hanged March 3.

Five Are Killed; Fifteen Injured In Indian Clash

SIMLA, India, May 19 (AP).—Five persons were killed and fifteen injured today in a clash between villagers and police at Khuyan Sakwab, in the Ferszepore district of the Punjab.

The trouble began when a detachment of police, transferred here for special duty, was attacked by 200 natives. When the police opened fire three natives were killed outright, two were fatally wounded and fifteen others less seriously wounded. Thirty were arrested.

Eastern Ontario Swept by Severe Electrical Storm

TORONTO, May 19 (CP).—Heavy property damage resulted from severe electrical storms, accompanied in places by hail, which swept Eastern Ontario today. Shattered windows and stripped fruit trees were reported in several areas visited by hail. Thirteen head of cattle, under a tree during the storm, were killed on one farm.

E. D. JOHNSON MAKES RAPID IMPROVEMENT

PRINCE GEORGE, May 19 (CP).—E. D. Johnson, deputy minister of finance, who is ill here, was reported today to be improving rapidly and no great anxiety concerning his recovery is felt now. It will be some time, however, before Mr. Johnson takes over his duties in the finance department.

Gen. Aguilera Passes

MADRID, May 19 (AP).—General Francisco Aguilera, seventy-four, who once was imprisoned and fined on a charge of leading a military plot against the Government of the late Dictator, General Primo de Rivera, died tonight. The Republican Government had recently appointed him a Captain-General, the highest military rank.

Everyone Past 40 Should Make This Test

Far Amazing and Lasting Relief From Middle-Age Ailments That Cause Daily Annoyance and Sap Vital Forces

No longer need folks near or past the prime of life put up with those painful and often embarrassing conditions brought on by overworked, sluggish kidneys or bladder weakness with their distressing symptoms of lameness, pains in back and down through groins, scanty but frequent and burning urination. "getting-up-nights" and nervous irritability—because a ten days' test of Dr. Southworth's URATABS will convince the most skeptical of the value of this special treatment for their particular case.

Amazing testimony of physicians and users gives convincing proof of the power of URATABS to restore health and strength to a weakened, inflamed or irritated bladder and urinary tract. A multitude of alarming symptoms seem to quickly disappear—and you see and feel a truly genuine improvement often within two or three days. "No more backaches, no more pain, no more embarrassment or getting-up-nights. I now sleep soundly and get up in the morning full of 'pep,' thanks to URATABS!"

While new to the general public, the wondrous value of URATABS has been thoroughly proven by years of successful use in the private practice of Dr. H. C. Southworth. And now any good druggist will supply them on a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Try URATABS today. (Advt.)

BILL IS GIVEN SECOND READING

Gov't Finance Measure, Embodying Snowden Budget, Approved by Commons on 270-230 Vote

LONDON, May 19 (AP).—The House of Commons tonight passed on second reading the Government's finance bill, which embodies the budget of Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, including the tax of a penny a pound on the value of land. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, for the Conservatives, moved rejection of the bill.

The majority of the Liberals followed Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George's lead in supporting the bill, but Sir John Simon, adhering to his recent policy of hostility to the Liberal support, opposed it and sharply criticized the land tax. He contended the tax differed entirely from the land tax proposal of Mr. Lloyd George twenty years ago, with which he then agreed.

The vote on the motion to reject the bill was 270 to 230.

REORGANIZATION OF MILITARY FORCES IN N.Z. IS ANNOUNCED

WELLINGTON, N.Z., May 19 (CP).—Reorganization of New Zealand's military forces was announced today by Hon. J. G. Cobbe, Minister of Defence. The scheme is based on the present territorial organization and is designed to aid rapid organization of adequate forces for home defence, wit hthe maintenance of a small but highly efficient and trained permanent force for instruction purposes.

Enlistment will in future be on a voluntary basis, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five, enlistment being for a period of three years.

In a recent month more than 3,000,000 pounds of coffee were shipped from La Guaira, Venezuela.

Knee-Joints Were Sore; His Ankles Swelled

A Thin, Amber-Colored Liniment Was Rubbed On and Pain Disappeared

"My knee and ankle joints bothered me a lot—they were a bit swelled and quite painful. I got great benefit when I rubbed on Nerviline. It is a strong liniment, and destroys pain quickly. I could feel Nerviline sink in deeply. It went right after these pains that had made my joints so sore. I urge all sufferers from rheumatism to faithfully try out Nerviline." This was the experience of E. H. Hillyard, well known in the City of Georgetown. Pain soreness and stiffness vanish before the magic power of this wonderful liniment. Get a 35-cent bottle of Nerviline from any storekeeper; it will do you good. (Advt.)

LOAN SUBSCRIPTIONS NEAR HALF BILLION

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP).—While no official statement has been made, it is estimated that the $250,000,000 "Bennett Conversion Loan" has been subscribed close to $500,000,000.

The unprecedented success of this loan is evidenced by the number of subscriptions which are now coming in from small holders of 1931-32-33 and 34 bonds, who are now turning them in for the new issue. Most of the subscriptions this week have been from small holders scattered throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion, anxious to participate in the new loan.

Two convicts were talking.

"Garn!" was the reply. "It took me ten years to do a sentence."

KRAZY KAT

THE DOT CARTOONIST, BY GEORGE BELL

Foosie Forsyth was so farsighted he had to rig up mirrors in order to read and yet be able to turn the pages. Once Foosie read the classified ads from a paper that was lying on the ground from the top of the Washington . . . (Kindly draw straight lines between the numbers.)

"LIEUTENANT"

We hear it said every so often that a man succeeded because of his able lieutenants; or that So-and-So had a knack for sizing up men and surrounding himself with efficient lieutenants, the term "lieutenant" being applied in a general sense to any man who labors in an inferior yet dignified and somewhat independent capacity as assistant to the 'head of the works."

Most of us assume that the word was taken from the military and adapted to commerce. As a matter of fact, it is the other way 'round. The army got it from business; and its origin easily bears out this sense.

"Lieutenant" comes to us from the French. It is compounded of two words, "lieu," place, and "tenant," holding. Thus meaning one who holds place, or, figuratively who exercises authority in the absence of his superior. When the army needed a title that should denote this significance and meaning, what more natural than that it should go to the world of business and select "lieutenant," which so nicely filled the bill?

AIMS SOUGHT BY TRAINING

Prof. C. K. Allen Tells of Ideals Which Cecil Rhodes Had in View

ANGLO-SAXON UNITY INSURES PEACE

The ideals which the late Cecil Rhodes had in view when he set aside by his will a sufficient sum to allow of giving an academic course in Oxford University to scholars from various parts of the English-speaking world outside of Great Britain were explained to the members of the Canadian Club by Professor Carleton Kemp Allen, the secretary of the Rhodes trustees. He referred in his address also to the influence which these scholars were exerting, not alone on the communities from which they came, after their return, but upon the student life at Oxford itself. In this way there was a real unifying, which was for the advantage of the peace of the world, which was an object in view.

The speaker said that Cecil Rhodes was still a great character in British life. The Rhodes scholarships were a monument left by him that served to recall his deeds and ambitions.

STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Touching briefly on some of the outstanding features of the life work of Rhodes, Mr. Allen pictured the young man suffering from physical disability, going to South Africa with the expectation of only six months to live, and of his struggle against this and the attainment of a tremendous place in the history of South Africa. He founded a company, which, in addition to exerting a great commercial character also exercised political purposes.

Rhodes realized early the necessity for the acquisition of a university training, and, while deep in business, went back and forth to England taking a course at Oxford University. While he did not attain high distinction in an academic way, the speaker said, he did not believe that he cared much what course he took, but was interested in the relationship which he had with the university and its students.

He valued what he got at Oxford and provided by his will that others should gain something of this which he valued.

WAS DREAMY MAN

Rhodes was what was described as a dreamy young man. He attained what seemed to be a revelation. He aimed at the development of South Africa as part of the British Empire. It was not the acquisition of territory alone which was sought but the spread of the civilization which Rhodes conceived as the best. He had faith that the Anglo-Saxon was the race destined to work out the highest form of civilization.

These ideals he kept before him through his eventful life and perpetuated them after his death. He combined more than most men are able to do, a truly idealistic spirit with a practical side to it.

The romantic chapter in his life was afforded when Rhodes, who was then Prime Minister of Cape Colony, did the indefensible thing of identifying himself with the Jamieson Raid. This was a blunder to be explained only from the fact that he was in such a hurry to accomplish the ends sought. It altered the situation which he had been trying to bring about, that of friendly relations with the Dutch.

The Matabele peace, which at risk of his own life was accomplished by Rhodes, was recalled, and this peace was regarded by him as the greatest thing in his life.

NOT SUPERMEN

Reviewing the terms of the will of Rhodes creating the scholarships, Mr. Allen said that the criticism was sometimes offered that there were not enough outstanding men being created by it. There was nothing in the will to indicate that Rhodes expected to produce a race of supermen under it.

He felt that the unity of the Anglo-Saxon race was vital to the peace of the world, which was made manifest today.

The tests under the scholarship conditions were with regard to intellectual ability, some athletic qualifications and qualities, which were best described as character. He showed that at Oxford the Rhodes scholars were making a very satisfactory showing, ranking well up with the scholars who came to that university from the best English schools.

On the subject of what they brought back, Mr. Allen said this was always a difficult thing to estimate. In the words of the late President Wilson, of the United States, the great object of a trained mind was the discipline and enlightenment of that mind. Such a man had a mind which was a practised instrument of appreciation.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. S. J. Willis in the absence of the president of the club, W. H. M. Haldane.

A vote of thanks was proposed by J. B. Clearihue, the first Rhodes scholar from here, who had also beside him James Gibson, the most recent of these.

CFCT HIGHLIGHT

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock the Studio Players, of CFCT, will go on the air presenting another in the series of complete mystery stories. The title of tonight's presentation is "Remote Control," a tale of the secret service, in which "Ace" Lakeland and his chum, Sammy Potter, are detailed to discover the "where" and "why" of a leak in the treasury. The eventual solving of the tangle and the mystery surrounding the fair and charming Miss April Gay will provide radio listeners with an entertaining half-hour programme.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS REACH HIGH MARK IN FOUR MONTHS PERIOD

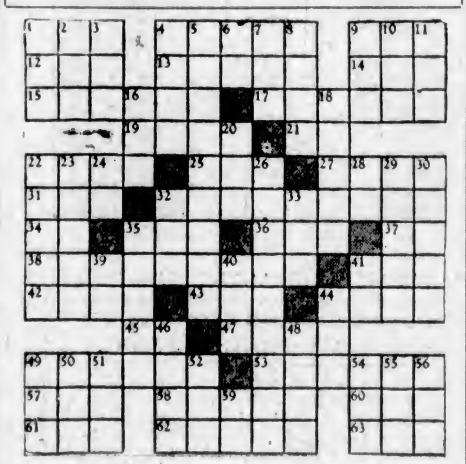

The total value of all transfers of lands in the city of Victoria, including actual sales, transfer by will and changes of ownership other than by actual sale, reached a total of $1,350,107 for the four months of 1931, according to figures given out yesterday by George Okell, city assessor.

For April there were 100 sales involving a value of $229,195, fourteen transfers with a value of $41,300, value of property in wills, $91,600, making a total in declared value of $362,095.

One night, after the curtain was rung up at a certain theatre, where the "Standing Room Only" announcement was not needed, a small boy was discovered sobbing in front of the pay-box. The manager of the theatre asked him what the trouble was. "I want my money back!" sobbed the boy. In surprise the manager inquired the reason of the request. "Because—because I'm afraid to sit up in the gallery all alone!" the youngster wailed. The money was returned.

Eight Gambia stamps, valued at 8 and 12 cents each when issued in 1874, brought $600 at auction in London recently.

B.C. JERSEY NOTES

Appearing in the latest report for Jerseys in R.O.P. is "Daisy Willoh," owned by A. E. Dumvill, of Sardis. Her exceptionally good record of 11,952 lbs. of milk and 804 lbs. of fat in 365 days, exceeds the R.O.P. requirements for her age by 404 lbs. of fat. This cow started on test at the age of nine years. The average test of her milk for the year was 6.73 per cent fat.

F. J. Bishop, of Duncan, one of the first Jersey breeders on Vancouver Island, is the owner of Riverside Dream's Glow, a two-year-old that produced 11,701 lbs. of milk and 578 lbs. of fat in 365 days.

Three very good records are credited to cows owned by John H. Heywood, of Crawford Bay, whose name appeared regularly in the R.O.P. lists. Lowfield's Lavona Model Lass gave 9,182 lbs. of milk, 527 lbs. of fat in 305 days at the age of two years and five days; Lowfields' Lady Oxford made 10,040 lbs. of milk, 559 lbs. of fat in 365 days at three years, and Pilot's Lavona produced 8,535 lbs. of milk, 490 lbs. of fat in 305 days at five years.

M. B. McDermid, of Eburne, is the owner as well as the breeder of Blackwood Secret Gold that gave 8,942 lbs. of milk, 541 of fat in 365 days at three years of age.

Rhoelyn Beauty's Girlie, owned by A. E. Dumvill, Sardis, produced 6,927 lbs. of milk, 402 lbs. of fat in 305 days at the age of 2 years, 2 months.

A cow at North Bend, Pearl Pogis, owned by the estate of Violette Cowen, produced 7,663 lbs. of milk, 469 lbs. of fat in 305 days at four years of age.

Reg. Thompson, Sidney, is the owner of Felix Bright Ruby, that gave 8,338 lbs. of milk, 417 lbs. of fat in 305 days at two years of age.

Pilot's Foxhall's Lassie, owned by J. H. Weaver, New Westminster, gave 8,731 lbs. of milk, 417 lbs. of fat in 305 days at five years of age.

A NOVEL EXHIBIT

A novel calf exhibit and children's judging competition, sponsored by the Pitt-Meadows-Maple Ridge Jersey Club, was held on the Agricultural Grounds, Port Haney. This show was put on by the club principally as an educational feature and to interest the boys and girls in a better type of livestock. It was unique, it being primarily a juvenile affair.

Some twenty-five Jersey calves were entered in three groups, those born between January 1 and June 30, 1930; those between July 1 and December 31, and those born after January 1, 1931. The type and quality of the calves was a credit to the district. Some of them were in real show condition. Those exhibiting calves were: D. McFarlane, R. Laity, A. Laity, Albert Hampton, William Adams, D. Brown, C. E. Pallot & Sons, and the Spencer Farm. The calves were shown by the children.

Mr. R. G. Sutton, district agriculturist for the Fraser Valley, placed the calves and gave a practical lesson on judging, using two of the older calves to illustrate.

A boys and girls' judging contest was also conducted by Mr. Sutton. The winners who received prizes from the Jersey Club were: 1, Willie Watney, Pitt Meadows; 2, Jerome Myers, Pitt Meadows; 3, Bob Pollock, Port Haney; 4, Willie Thorpe, Pitt Meadows; 5, Anne Rippington, Pitt Meadows. Three of these five winners were members of the 1930 Pitt Meadows Calf Club, which shows that a real knowledge of livestock is obtained from the club work.

Another item of the show was the clipping and fitting demonstration, in which a calf was clipped as it should be done for show purposes, in order to bring out the desirable points and to make a much more attractive animal.

Ice cream, supplied to all the boys and girls by the Jersey Club, helped to make this a memorable day for the young people.

At a dinner in New York a well-known literary man was praising Lincoln. "Lincoln," said he, "could not stand tedious writing in others. He once condemned for its tediousness a Greek history, whereupon a diplomat took him to task. 'The author of that history, Mr. President,' he said, 'is one of the profoundest scholars of the age. Indeed, it may be doubted whether any man of our generation has plunged more deeply in the sacred fount of learning.' 'Yes, or come up drier!' retorted Lincoln."

IT'S LIKELY YOU NEVER CALLED IT

"ATHLETE'S FOOT"

MORE THAN LIKELY YOU HAVE IT

TOE itch, golfer's itch, ringworm of the toes, "Athlete's Foot"—it's a Canadian epidemic caused by the ringworm parasite, tinea trichophyton. It's a germ which has certainly made a nuisance of itself in these Provinces but—it cannot live in the presence of Absorbine Jr.

Look between your toes tonight: If the skin is slightly red, or unnaturally white and moist—if there are cracks, or tiny itchy blisters, or dry scales—then you, too, probably have the beginning of a case of "Athlete's Foot"!

Absorbine Jr. kills tinea trichophyton!... Exhaustive laboratory tests prove that this famous antiseptic penetrates deeply into flesh-like tissues and, wherever it penetrates, it kills the ringworm germ. At the first hint of infection, douse your feet generously with Absorbine Jr. morning and night—every day. And guard against infection by treating the feet after every exposure to any damp floors, even in your own home. If it does not yield readily to Absorbine Jr., see your doctor.

You have always found Absorbine Jr. fully efficient in relieving strains, sore muscles and bruises, and in healing cuts, abrasions and burns—you will find it just as good for "Athlete's Foot." At all druggists'—$1.25. W. F. Young, Inc., Lyman Bldg., Montreal.

Absorbine Jr.

For years thousands have found Absorbine Jr. unequaled for sore muscles, rheumatic aches and pains, sprains, bruises, burns, cuts and sunburn. Always have a bottle handy.
